Abhishek Datta : Kaisan ho bhau? Bihar ka future tere haat me hai. A complete anime and movie buff. Sabkuch milega iske paas. A very polite and understanding person. Rubik's guru. Bike trip baki reh gya.

Titash Baidya : Mera roommate...not only that. My partner during practising of the deadly moves of different martial arts. Tu aur main, matlab Farhan and Raju of 3 idiots...bhaai tu bahut straightforward hain. Aur Himmatwala bhi. And I will owe you forever for the silent revolution you brought in yourself. I have seen you just endeavouring the deepest concepts of many different things from glycosylation domain to Morse code. And your indomitable spirit for understanding things ignited my mind. I am very fortunate to be your friend in IIT BOMBAY. RUKH....abhi bhi bahut se practice baaki hain. Karenge.

Sreyashi Mandal : I don't think I can ever explain in words how adorable this guy is. He is so sweet and caring and a damn good friend. He had helped me a lot with my studies in 1st sem and I can't be thankful enough. I really love how chilled he always is. What else? He is never intentionally mean, tries his best to make everyone around him happy, loves to shout in excitement while watching movies and gets really upset by other's rudeness. I hope you find your true passion and I wish you all the best for your future Rohit! :)

Sagar Baulia : aree bhai bhai bhai , humare 2 saal ke sahare jisne mujhe exam ke pehle pura syllabus paraya .U r Forever fraaand . u r so adorable and chill guy , that enjoys when he is punished bcs of me for copying his practical .Zindagi jhandva fir bhi GHamandva bhai.. But evrytime for me is one more trek with rohit , ek baar fir se pradip ta kaatna .. chu , etc etc etc. # live life like their is no tomorrow, stay safe and stay healthy, u will reach ur goals for sure.

Neeraja .P.S : Best friend ! You were the first one who came to me after informal freshers, just because you got to know that I am a Keralite !From "You are from kerala right? Do you know martial art in kerala where people wear dhoti and red belt? "(It was 'Kalari ' and Ofcourse I had no idea about it 😊) to me ended up learning basics lessons of defence from you.. we had a beautiful journey of friendship together.The only one who opens Google translator to understand when I speak malayalam😁The talks we had in ground, the compulsory warm and firm handshakes after every "chalo, bye..see you ".. will never fade in my memories. Thanks for the constant support !
