Mouli Hazra : Hey Mr. Harishankkar GK...listen I'm not gonna write here some nice words about u...Im not gonna tell u r one of those people in insti talking to whom I feel great..Im not gonna say u r the inspiration in my life..not gonna make a statement like 'the way u live ur life in commendable'...I wont tell anyone that friendship with u changed my perspective towards life...I never say here that u r one of my best friends. But unFortunately u r ;-) ..I feel lucky for those meaningful conversation between us..Im sure it will be there in future too..always be like this only..

Anurag Dwivedi : Hey Hari.....I will always be inspired by the way you live your life. I kept coming to your room to bother you, to have discussions with you and to learn words that you have written on that white board. I can remember the tutorials we have solved together and how you managed yourself to awake till midnight to solve those tutorials, to sit on the first bench in Prof. Pragma's class and to draw cartoons on the notebook to share our boredom in the class...Stay safe and stay healthy.

Amrit Prittam Nayak : Talking to you gave a noice feeling every time. You always greeted with a smile. The best thing about you - you are so down to earth. I remember our first conversation was about your reason to switch career. That discussion was very insightful about your passion towards the subject. You owned my respect and also motivated me in some sense. Thanks for being a co-rider of this beautiful journey. All the very best for whatever future has preserved for you. Stay in touch bro.

Neeraj Kumar : When we joined insti, I needed a South Indian buddy. With you, I got a full package that one wishes for. I have always fancied the way you manage everything. We all are inspired to pursue our dreams by your lifestyle. I will forever cherish our electronics project days, trash talks, and all the moments we had together. Thanks for lending me your DSLR. Stay the same generous person as you are, surely gonna miss you... Now, show is over, Get lost!

Jaydeep Lohia : Valeyëttan The first impression as I remember: a curious guy, who is adventurous enough to do unimaginable, yeah, we all knew within a few days about you. You humble thing, you always worked harder, and knew so much! But I won't lie, not atleast here, that not a sliver of pride ever touched you regardless! Hey, I'll seriously miss teasing my "old" friend, and knowing him through discussions. Please, never let that passion for life fade. I'm happy we met :)

Srestha Banik : Hi Hari😊.. I am mesmerizing that you remember the messy I had done in that trip😂.. I was so amazed and pleased to have you beside me in that trip😊.. I like your immaculate appearance 😍.. You are gentle calm person I have ever seen.. I still memorized that you taught me. remember! 😊.. Best wishes for your future.. Stay healthy and fit🏋️.. Stay connected.. 🙏

Writasree Maitra : You've the funniest expressions. I wish I'd have observed all your expressions meticulously and would make a collection of emojis out of those. Your constant urge to gain knowledge and convert that knowledge into wisdom is something I truly admire. I love the way your eyes spark with happiness whenever you talk about your wife. I wish both of you a beautiful and prosperous life ahead. Hope you do great research and accomplish everything that you've in your bucket list.

Lovish Gulati : Hari..! Adventurous guy...thanks for some suggestions..u gave me..I will always..keep in my mind🥰🥰...I will miss you 'English Master', u used to tell me some new english words everytime i came to your room😊..i was inspired by your way you keep yourself focussed in your work.👍👍...may you achieve the greatest in the future

Rohit Kumar : Yo Poor man, remember the day, D-278, when first time we met. As u know I was feeling so clumsy and worried that how would I live with u in such a small room. However, with time we settled down in IIT life and in that, I found you very helpful to me. I really like ur habit of reading books. Each and every beautiful conversation and debates which we had were awesome and Kerala trip! It was my pleasure to go to your home and to see your parents, they are so good. I would say Bhabhi Ji is very lucky. My friend You are not one page of this yearbook, I have written a chapter for u but here word limit. Come to USA, will take you some beautiful places. Keep motivating us with your kind heart.....

Chainika Chauhan : Hi Harii!! I got the positive vibes when I interacted with you for the very first time in second half of the orientation in convo hall. You were sitting on the right hand side. And I was not paying attention to those mundane stuffs and you asked me what did they announce?? And I was like 😊 I have always seen you smiling. Always keep that smile alive. I'm lucky that I met such gems in IITB. Good luck friend for the future. I know you're deserving. Stay in contact 😊

Ritesh Bachhar : Hi, Hari... I felt sad when I came to know that you have decided not to take project in the last semester. I always enjoyed talking with you especially about your adventures. Thank you so much for introducing me to the secret curry and Kerala food. Best wishes for your future. You are a true wanderlust.

Manoj Manohar Karnekar : I will never forget the experiment in which we got 25 marks out of 60 and then we trying to figure out why our marks are deducted!!..your very very chilled person and yes the best lab partner. I enjoyed time in your home.

Sandeep Jangir : You have an air of wisdom about you. you're calm and composed and very mature. I wish we had more conversation. Though I may have come across as an inarticulate person. I will always rue not having an opportunity of saying "You're a wizard Harry". Thank you for the kind words you wrote for me. I wish you the happiest life ahead.

Marnya Lomi : Hey Bro. I remember the day , I got to know you. it was at our first mentor meet under jainam. As the time passed , I got to know you more and more, though physical manifestation wasn't so apparent. But over these two years , I found you as one of the most humble , kind hearted and always as a guy with a smiling face. Keep it up always. It makes positive environment around you. Thus Happiness. Thus, A better world. :)

Sonia Rani : You seem a very serious person to me. I get very mature and positive vibes from you though we never talked. You seem to be very passionate about your studies. You and your wife makes a really cute and mature couple together. Stay happy. Good luck for future.

Chigicherla Venkata Sai Prasanna : GK !! Gadgets Guy ! Multi talented. Still I wonder how you manage so many things and yet enjoy all of them ? Academics, Adhira, Novels, Photography, Trying new cuisines.... you have time for everything. Good luck GK ! Hoping to see you again in Bangalore.

Rahul Verma : Mr.Harishankar, THE gentleman. you are such a kind hearted,down-to-earth personality, i really admire. With you, All the memories are unforgettable. I remember the first conversation we had was on marine drive and from then onwards a lot happened. You always listen to person, help him and be calm in every situation. Always be the same, keep smiling and wish you all the best for your future endeavors.

Pooja Choudhary : Hi Hari!! I know that we haven't talked much but I was always impressed by your hard work, punctuality nd time management. Have a wonderful life ahead 😊

Mithilesh Kumar Sahu : Hari..... I really admire how you keep everything balanced in your life. Career and love life. Bravo. ..once we were having dinner and someone started giving you advice on something. You were like "I know what I am doing." That sentence was so lit. I wish to have that dedication and focus in my life. I regret that I couldnt ask you to adventure I have done in insti. I hope you enjoyed that book and jt I gave you. 😊😊😊. Wishing you happy married life brother. Good luck with the journey ahead. 🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌
