Atri Dutta : From racing to purdue to whatnot, you are legit one of the best people in insti whom I've met. Next party agar hogi to pakka bas paani piyenge, come, pretty please😂? Keep aiming for those hop on a bike travel plans you told me about. Watch hannibal sometime, silence of the lambs was awesome :P. And yes, i guess i somehow owe you a bunch of shoes and earrings😂. Best, keep in touch!

Ronnie Mondal : Best drinking buddy ever! Lots of memories with you, Purdue and IITB both. Let's keep in touch, and I won't bore you with too much politics lol.

Riya Singh : Hello Vaishnavi!!! We were in D3-T5. Your appearance and dressing style (Tshirt + capri + hair in a ponytail + specs) was very similar to my Ranchi friends due to which I got very familiar feeling from you. Talking with you over mess food on numerous and diverse topics was fun. It touched me a lot when last semester you messaged me to know whether I was Ok when I posted that "feeling-low" post. I have seen you as a sincere and hard working person and therefore I have believe in you that whatever path you choose, success will come to your feet. All the best!!!

Shobhna Misra : Hey! I had a lot of fun working with you in the Racing lab, figuring things out together. Also, you were a very good tent-mate at Silverstone. :D I'm glad to have been of help! Keep doing tech, and stay happy like you always do! And, yes, let's not lose touch. :) All the best for your life ahead!

Saurabh Kolambe : Hey, first of all, I am really glad that you made your way in the automotive industry. I always had huge respect for your work, cz DAQ/CAN kuch chamkta nahi tha mujhe, but you and dhoti did an impressive job handling this subsystem. I am sure you will keep up this dedication and hard work in the industry as well. All the best for your future. And yes, stay in touch. I always feel great talking to mentees :D.

Himani Gangurde : Brooo 4 saal and infi bakchodi with you!! 1st year k sleepovers se tere placements tak, all those shitty jokes, those photoshoots, the dress trials, and even a make up session 😂 It was a wonderful journey. I still don't approve of your jokes tho. Too bad we don't go out a lot but we have been roomies for summers and winters 😊 sitting in that empty wing of H15 and recalling freshie year days ♥ it's still one of the best memories I have with you. Hopefully we'll get to do that again before you go! I saw a true example of perseverance during your placement, that truly was inspiring ♥ we'll be bros always tho 🤝

Bhavya Garg : I can't tell how much this means to me!! Thank you for being the bigger person ♥ I love you man! Kvpv camp se leke Purdue tak you have listened to every struggle I have been through. And I am very well aware of everything you have gone through and still going through. Stay strong champ, I wish only happiness for you! We have shared really deep and heartfelt conversations and moments that I will cherish forever. Stay in touch kya, iss semester bewakoofi ke chakkar me trip reh gayi apni next time pakka chal rahe hain.. sorry about how a day spoiled everything and thank you for not giving up ♥ maanegi nahi but bahot yaad kiya hai tujhe! Tu jeeta jaagta cartoon hai which comes alive in all its might when you dance with your crazy moves 😂 and dude "roli bhi koi naam hai, koi kyun rakhega apne bachche ka naam roli"- you know you said it 😊 bro forever ♥ infi thanks for bday pizza and collage. Tu ne bahot mehnat ki hai sabka bday yaadgaar banane me. Wo baat alag hai tera legendary ban gaya no one's gonna try and beat that 😊 congratulations on getting job of your interest, macha dena bhai! Ek baar international trip bhi kareng saath me. New continent though 😊 Purdue wasn't enough lol!

Sowmya Ravichandran : hey Vaishnavi <3 In the roller coaster ride that was our college life, I'm glad we were roomies for two of those years and could share a lot of funny, happy and deep moments. You have mentioned all those already, so I am not gonna repeat it :P. Apart from creating amazing memories, I'm glad we could be there for each other during our lows too and help each other wade through them. Stay in touch, and call me now and then to tell me about your adventures :p

Sukanya Kudva : Hi Vaishu, the first time I met you in fresh year, you came across as this very matured person. I had a secret admiration for you. And then came your sense of humor and your PJs (I like them anyway)😂. It is fun talking you and I still do respect your opinions. You are probably the only genuinely tech-enthu person from our wing. And I am glad you are getting to pursue what you want. Good luck, keep in touch♥

Chitrangna Bhatt : Yoooo vaishuu, the one with no roomie in the first year ? 😊 Celebrating so many birthdays together, and some courses, but it was mostly Ghar ka khaana that brought us together 😂😂 all the best for what future holds ♥ stay in touch 💜

Unmesh Raskar : YO WASSUP GIRL! I remember CoEP T1 LASS exam morning, i was frantically searching for some proofs and you just happened to be present. How we juggled bw college and BT, showing up outrageously late everywhere. Also, how the ED Prof came looking for you during the endsems and asked for submissions XD Tune BC maara isliye infi respect + foreign intern is very awesome (tho it must have taught you importance of true friends around you), You were among the unfortunate ones who had to listen to my psychedelic praise 24x7. You were always there for me when I came crashing down. Our Confession Secrets are too much Masala! Placement memories are too cringey XD! Stay in TOUCH and keep smiling :D u da best ga

Sayali Kshirsagar : Vaishh! Wingies, NSO. Lab partners since second year♥ Labs wouldn't have been fun without you. Kitni masti ki hai humne😄One thing I love about you is that you always dig deep into the concepts. Thanks for clearing all my small doubts and for being my editor. You write so well. You were always there for me. You have set your priorities right in your life. Bro, I am gonna miss all the gossips we three had, all the lab works(jhagde karke hi sahi😂kids), outings. I miss our trio. Pune trip with you was amazing. You are very dedicated, confident and humble. You pursue only what you are interested in but full heartedly(respect). Stay the same. I am sure you will do great ahead. Love you♥

Bhadri Narayanan R : Vaishnavi ! Our crazy laxmi nights and those amazing pictures will always be treasured :D The various endeavors to survive chemical from our LC nightouts to your freak outs before exams..everything turned out to be quite fine in the end. Hope you become freeaakin rich in the future and still be friends :)

Abhijeet Aanand : Vaishnavi!! Glad we had those fun weekends at Purdue. Nhi bhulaaye jaayenge kuch bhi krlo. I accept that maybe I irritated you a lot by singing those stupid songs. Sorry for that. I know you would kill me for mentioning your bday but that's the most vivid memory for all of us at Purdue!!! And, I still remember those crazy answers you framed while playing psyche and how u always got psyched again and again. Best of luck aage ke liye.

Yash Shrivardhankar : I had no clue you were from pune and you speak marathi before team trip xD. Good finding so many things in common afterwards, and much more to come xD. Mai toh bol raha tha tension mat le placement ke time xD. Haha we are meeting again xD

Puneet Kaur : Hey! You're a really sweet and ambitious person 😊 Freshie year ke baad interaction thoda kam ho gya but jab bhi baat huyi bahut accha tha 😊 placement ke time I really appreciated your hard work and focus towards your interests. I wish you all the success in the future! Stay in touch ♥

Priyanka Lakku : Vaishnaviii<3 Freshie year was so much fun with you guys around. Kitna masti krte the. Thanks for clearing all my doubts whenever I came to you. IITB Racing me kafi machaya. Your hardworking nature and attention to detail is something I really admire. You bravely followed your dreams and not the herd. Keep cracking lame jokes :p I still remember one day you were sleeping with the room locked and FRIENDS playing on your lappy, I knocked the door and you got frightened suddenly lol. That expression was epic. Keep rocking and all the very best, smart girl<3
