Priyanka Gogoi : So here comes my dearest little bro...the first day I met you in class was the day (me and Divya) enjoyed the most of your comments...and I guess you will remember your 4 votes kis kisne diya tha 🤔...I wish I can't be chill like youthe most precious gift our rakhi wali pic I will treasure for lifetime...keep going and all the best for your future..will miss you

Swagatika Priyambada : Totally mad, totally crack and utterly nonsense. Yes, otherwise who will make every girl in the batch his sister? You took so much pain by taking photo, framing it Raksha Bandhan. I will always cherish it. I like talking just rubbish, nothing which makes sense and useless but I also know that you are sensitive, quietly following your dream and doing great. I appreciate also the help and advice that you give to me. All the best and thoda kam irritate karna.

Swapnil Labade : Dear Anshul...Farishta of CTARA....Confidence ke Devata!! One thing I want to learn from you is to stay Positive ! bhai online classes le le..main join jaroor karunga! All d best for future!

Rohit Kumar Prince : You are the first person I met after admission, that too in H15 searching for a room secretly. Initially I considered you as a senior but the next day I laughed at myself when you too sat with us in the convo hall. Well... one thing I will remember the most is how to keep a constant expression in every situation, specially jab hamari sabse jyada fatt rahi ho. And kabhi khana khate waqt mat bhidna kisi se ab :p Do great in life :)
