Debanjali Chatterjee : Hey! Tbh, I was initially afraid of talking to you, since I knew you as the Chem Olympiad guy... but Mimamsa changed that perception entirely. I appreciate how you say things straight to the face, however unpleasant they might sound. The bus ride to Pune is one of my best memories with you. I find it difficult to converse with people I don't know well, but you made me feel so comfortable. I still laugh at that incident at Sigree where you suddenly announced that it was my birthday and everyone clapped for me! A year later, I really enjoyed staying at your place in Chicago, you were so welcoming to all of us. I'm lucky I got to interact with someone like you!
