Rashmi Ravindranath : Yummmmyy! I just can't believe you were the one who refrained from stepping out after 10pm in freshie year? XD I feel we have grown up together in this insti journey. I am gonna miss all our Hangouts right from gossiping, writhing fake confession, watching randon YouTube videos, shopping together, to trying out each other's outfit. Thanks for gongura pachhadi😂♥. Hope we keep in touch. Cheers♥

Kapil Shobhnani : Yummmmyyyy!!!! The best thing happened to me from SARC tenure. You are the only person who doesn't judge me and listens to my rant no matter what. I can't imagine my last one and half years without you. The constant motivation that you provided me during the placement sem and helping me in all the possible ways. I'll miss our waffle treats, movie nights, English lessons, and midnight political discussions. Thank you for always being there for me <3.

Gaurav Raj Singh : I don't think I have ever told you this but you are the most hardworking, sweet and the most genuine person I have ever met. You were the most ideal co, and we made a tenure possible with so many things to show for; especially the team we had. I know I am the most difficult person to work with but you did a brilliant job. You are also one of the very few people In insti that I respect and admire. I learnt a lot from you. Always be awesome 😊😊

Harsh Vazirani : I remember checking everyone's Facebook when the team was announced and I checked yours, and thought this girl seems cool. And indeed she is. I also remember eating pizza on the T point road with you and panda while I was wasted :P. I had fun not denying that you were my "crush" in the team while I was still in the closet 😊 You're the most chill, cheerful one in the team. I had fun working on ASMP with you 😊❤

You are a very very sensible person, you portray a childish personality on the outside (really sweet always smiling) but you possess a very mature mind. Always chill and ready for a joke. And I also clearly remember kaise fat gayi ti hamare naya CTMs when sweet Yamuna, became furious Yamuna firing back to back questions. Be the same fun loving sweet friend to everyone as you are now.

Kriti Kamna : Yamuna yaar! I remember when we first met at your room trying to solve MA 105 , with you dressed in the most elaborate salwar-kameez. It was Divya's birthday and from then , even when we were in different wings, we never lost touch. You know what, I was so so happy and excited when you came after "that" SARC event and told me all your stories. Watching movies in winters 2018, trying out restaurants, late night bitching and dancing together - all of it was so so fun! I was so happy to find an equally crazy girl in insti who is ALWAYS up for time-pass. If there is one room, I can walk-in without a second thought ki aur kaun hoga wahan(:p) , it's yours. Keep coming to my room at 1 am , asking t

Mujhe pehle se hi doubt tha is sweet se chehre ke peeche shaitani thoughts panapte rehte he (meaning janne ke liye ping kar lena 😂😂). Baki machahte reh ♥ and sabpe tera aashirwad banae rakhna 😊😊. Stay in touch ♥.

Aryan Aryan : Pranam devi ji! Dil ki to aap badi achhi hain, and cooking ka talont bhi bhar bhar k hai aapke paas, kabhi milne pe kuch khila de, laga rakhi hai humne aas! And startup k baare me zor zor se bol k sabko scheme bata de 😊. Thanks for being there with me in my difficult times. Stay “motivated” 😊 Mazze karo! And bhoolna mat 😊

Golu . : Yammuuuuuuuu ;* I have been through all of your moods - The most memorable would be the first-time drunk and crying one! Your way of caring, bringing food for a hungover Golu; smiling innocently (really?) immediately after crying bring out the best person in you. We had some of the best gossips, late-night strolls, and hair straightening plus ASMP senti session in my room. Out of all other things, our midnight craving for waffles will always top the list. Stay the same jhalli and fun-loving person always.
