Mayanka Medhe : Partysapu! You are always cheerful and ready to party, just like your name :p. Spending time with you is always fun. You know how to make anyone laugh with your drama XD. I wish I had known you sooner though. I will always cherish all the fun times we had like the Mahabaleshwar trip, watching Invisible Man and so many more. I will always remember your "modules" on the snake game too :p. You have taught me some very valuable life lessons through it, Sensei XD. Stay as fun and creative as you are. All the best for your future and keep in touch <3.

Bohra Ankit Narendra : Sweet, innocent, caring, always full of enth and always trying new things. Simple way to describe Divs. My best memory is 3rd year winters where we used to speak soo much and give random dares to each other (you remember the dares?😄). The treats we've gone on were absolutely amazing and fun!!! You've worked on so many things in insti and have performed so well in all yet you're soo humble. This sem finally we had common courses and i could have bugged you in LCH but corona ruined it😞. You've always been there to listen to my crying💜. Our loads of treats are pending and I'm gonna catch up on them next year😁. All the Best for future and always stay in touch my Good RG Friend♥

Sanskriti Shah : Divyaaaaa...we had so much fun together sophomore and third yr mein...then apne rooms door hogaye 4th yr mein :(. But the time we had together was so good :D. Apan pura time ek dusre k room pe pde rehte the...and areare...jo sath mein courses and lab groups leke sath me maze kiye h :p. Always jolly and cheerful, you light up every room you are in with your shitty jokes :) . You have been an amazing friend..kabhi bhi giveup hota tha..tujhse baat krke sab chill ho jata tha ...I am gonna miss you so much :(Pls pls stay in touch..and meri posting to mumbai mein hi h...pls pls milte rehna <3

Ronnie Mondal : Hey! One of my most favourite persons on the campus - I love you dude. You've been a fun friend ever since coordie year, and I'll always cherish the moments we spent together. Have fun, and keep in touch.

Rupesh Leburu : One thing i never understood was our mutual inability to speak in telugu with each other lol. Still we had a lot of fun, the four of us. Shame we didn't make more plans in the final year but i know you'll be smiling and making others smile wherever you are. We can go back and forth on this being cool thing but you know we're both the cooler members of the team. Keep in touch! And also, go watch The Office again before you get into the office life. It's honestly so good. Or after joining, you know, when it's too late 🤔👍

Abhijeet Banthiya : Yolllooo Divya-chan ! xD You are one of the coolest person I have ever met. It's always fun to talk with you. I don't exactly remember how I started talking to you maybe when I asked you about branch change form and the first thing you sent me was the eamcet result poster (who does that ?). Indeed the J outing was fun, I realised that you too are obsessed with animes (you even had an app with quotes from different animes xD) and since then I kept asking for anime recommendations from you time and time again :p. Stay the same cool and machau person ! All the best for all your future endeavors !

Namya Bagree : Partysapu! Known you for less than half the time and seems like spending double the time at IIT with you! The reason I got to skip LHC - H6 trips and yet increase my total steps. You got me to see insti from a completely different viewpoint. The infinite times we would randomly decide to go out or order in. DMart trips with you is the most fun part of it all. The number of trips to the theater and the hurry to reach there, even making us walk it once made life amazing! Matching all our courses to be able to spend time despite our other projects worked perfectly. You've changed me not only for my time at IIT but also after it. Happiness shall follow everywhere you go! ❤️

Hiranyagarbh Narale : Patti!! You're so sweet, innocent, kind etc. with a devil mind! 🐱 Thank you for considering me close enough to share your sorrows with, 😊 And listening mine in return. 😊 I'll remember the night we spent together in the H9 study room, then we had idli for breakfast, jo tumhe kafi pasand aayi thi! 😊 I'll miss all of our outings! 😊 Keep sending beautiful songs! ♥ I'm going to miss you. Wish you all the best! 🥳 And remember you still owe me a dinner treat!

Kinjal Saxena : Hey Dude! Teri smile sabse pyaari hai aisa bolungi to don't freak out xD but tera sense of humor and spontaneity is no match xD. Apna Goa plan reh gaya yaar last year and is saal kya ho gaya xD. But apan sab jayenge once and is baar permission pehle se hi le lena xD. You're really cute like a barbie <3. Won't forget apni pre-diwali outing and how we made an old guy literally freak out xD.. aise hi haste reh and pleaseeee don't forget meee.. hehe.. see you!

Apoorv Srivastava : I told you that we won't be having a common course, at least in this life :p. You have a good taste in music, do send me those whenever you find any. Don't worry, your precious book is safe, I'll give it back to you as soon as I get back to insti. I wish we had interacted a bit more but something or the other kept coming. I do wish to stay in touch with you and hope our friendship grows. And, oh wait, maybe we can take a common course on Udemy or something (xD). all the best for all your future endeavors. BTW, I'm going for a PhD. (:p)

Rajat Kadam : Pappu!!!!!!! I remember our first interaction at grass and gossips where almost after an hour you realised I starred in a film gc video ... Drunk you is so much fun bro!!! We will definitely go drinking once this is over..... Tu jitni innocent dikhti hai tu itni hai ni :P Sorry 3rd year se hum busy hogaye but tu bhi kaafi busy thi doing stuff :P Tera chipmunk voice humesha yaad rahega.. .

Riya Singh : Hi Divya.. It was in Ahmedabad that I first interacted with you much. You are a very kind, considerate and tolerant person. I was able to be careless there due to a responsible roommate like you. I like talking to you as well as hearing you sing "wish I stayed". I found you a very hardworking and sincere person both at intern and in KDOM lab. And sorry that I didn't go to any Ahmedabad trip. I acted unwisely at that time. Later I have started behaving better as I went to many trips in summer intern. I will not wish you best of luck because you don't need luck to rock.

Nutan Megu : my one and only anime fren. bhot cute hoap. and guitar kafi acha bajane lage ho . keep playing and doing thinsg u like. and kabhi bhi anime ke cool BOIS ke bare me discuss krna ho to meko btana okay. hhehe kafi machate ho ap.. wishing u success

Debanjali Chatterjee : Cutiee pieee♥♥♥ I remember that pic I took on the day before your bday, the one where I was pulling your cheeks♥ (I absolutely love your cheeks btw 🤗) I love your sense of humor. You're so sweet and lovable! I will miss you too. Do keep in touch!

Viral Shah : Yo !!! You were one of the coolest girls I met in insti... Itni bakwaas koi kaise kar sakta hai yaar. It was good to spend time with you. Sans ke room me assignments, food trips, random cheezo pe discussion. You were a total package having well balanced acads, projects, animes, FS, Tv series etc. Name anything and you were able to comment something or the other. Tumhare wajah se kaafi baar racing ke meets hostel k jagah LHC me rakhni padi hai hume. Anyways, stay the same, as happy as always. All the best...

Nikunj Mohota : Hii Divaa! (since you liked to be called that XD) H15 xerox shop is where we first met. I never thought we would be close friends during the second semester. Late night insti walks were always fun, I remember that morning on 15A terrace with a failed sunrise timelapse. Also that LCH mei texting when you were right in front of me! Let's just delete the memory of salsa night :P. I'm kinda disappointed that we weren't that in touch later. Please keep staying curious, sweet, weird and funny otherwise I'll send you your speeches on whatsapp. Hope we stay in touch :)

Somansh Chordia : Scrabble with you was fun :D We made quite a lot of memories considering the short-semester project. Thanks for being generous and doing more than your share of the work xD. I never knew one could make such beautiful presentations  Had you brought comics everyday, my attendance would have been 100%. I'm not sure about souvenirs, but will definitely pack a lot of authentic sushis and we'll witness a world record

Ayushyamaan Raj : Haha, Kaafi zyada masti in Rang but then you became superr padhne me busy but all those Rang wall painting arts and random NSO masti was really cool. Also your anime and song selection is awesome. I remember your Summers advice to read Percy Jackson. Keep in touch and keep same humble person you are. Naruto binge!

Umang Chhawchharia : Pappu tu kitni boring hai:p Moti toh nahi hai chal itna maan leta hu:p I remember how we met first. I remember how invited all of us for your birthday party even though we barely knew each other (you bascially started meenasses). I remember our "study"sessions where we never studies, our trips to marine drive and ofcourse 10 ke baad ke trips (mummy ke permissions ke bina :p). Dude 3rd year ke baad tu apne cheezon mai busy ho gayi hum apne cheezon mai. You can still start the meenasses and is baar mera phone bhi nahi khoyega :p. Stay in touch dude :)

Sigireddi Yamuna Devi : Yooo Roomeeoo!! Firstly, to answer your blackmail, ooo I have some sweet pictures of yours too and a video of your mind blowing dance moves too :P. If you should ever forget me in the future, I'll post them as reminders ;P. Not only that I'll throw you in mud and kick you in the butt. Is that ok with you? XD Lovvvv youu lotss!!!

Ahsan Aslam : Divya, the embodiment of agreeableness. You are an OG when it comes to songs and cartoons and like all the cool stuff. The reason you feel I know stuff is because of our matching tastes (not to brag and definitely not non-veg) or because of my joblessness which I wouldn't recommend unless you have the resources (definitely a brag). Seeing all the posts for you here, I think I may have not got to know you further because of me spitting random facts all the time, but I think I've seen enough. You resemble Carey Mulligan a lot and is one of the cutest persons here, inside and outside. Instead of screaming at jump scares, do your favourite emoji 🙏. Don't remind ME 604. I'll deliver the songs. Stay Awesome.

Mrunmayi Mungekar : Hey budddy! We were the only two girls in the BCed lot to mechanical and that leads to a speedy bonding :-p But what I liked about you the most was that you were as crazy as I was! Random stupidest of jokes - remember "telepathetic" ?!, random laughs and inside jokes - our stupidest coin tosses before getting kicked out of the class :P! You are a sweet bubbly crazy gal of mechanical who can fill up any room with instant buzz of laughter as soon as you enter... stay like a cute sa child at heart...!!!

Aarcha Suresh : Man, you're one of the very few non idcians I am friends with. Though I curse my awkward introvert self for not hanging out with more people, I'm super happy I got to spend some weirdly amazing time with you. You are a super fun person to be around! I hope we run into each other again in some corridor and exchange some more laughs! Also, thanks for addressing my broken hindi. 4 years and still broken. * Sigh *

Kajal Kumari : Hi Divya I always thought you were a nerd with good looks, such a rare combination;) But you are lot more crazier and hope you remain the same happy and even more insane, <3

Luv Nainwal : Divya '84 to yaad hai. Labs ke to mast experiences the xD Labs se jo chill karna chalu hua tha woh end hi nhi hua. Idk where were you these three years, probably padh rhi hogi in some corner but Thoda chill karo sab hojata hai 😊 Itna formal conversation kon karta hai? Btw, I'm posted in Mumbai (hopefully) xD
