Arush Gupta : Hello chacha B-) Meeting you was great and I'm pretty sure that our bond will develop and transcend any other chacha-bhatija bond over the years to come. You're a great person and 10 times more genuine than me. Looking forward to doing shero-shaayeri with my chacha. Will whatsapp the succeeding messages xD or we could message here instead to irritate the people who are stalking us on yearbook xD

Nautatava Navlakha : The only person apart from Tanay jo TT ko nahi nai bolta. Sirf 2-3 din me hi got the heart out of me. Phir se LoL khelenge jab bhi possible ho!♥

Bhishma Dedhia : I can't even remember how long I have known you. I the Samwell Tarly, was just doing fine, chilling with the Night's watch, when you the Jon Snow rolled into my life and said "Eyy beyond the wall jaakar White walkers ko tapli bajaane ka hai kya?" And thanks to the absurdity of your spirit, here I am on a good ole fashioned adventure. Thank you for hyping me up to do things I would otherwise have never done, for pulling me out from some of the lowest points of my life and always showing me the bigger picture. Insti will now never know how it feels to blast Freddie Mercury music for 26 hrs straight :p. Final year macha dena and East coast aajana chup chaap, life sort ho jayegi.

akash kumar : Hey A gal! It was great being friends with you man. I know after second year we didn't get much time to hang out, but I am looking forward to our last semester to do that. You are a really cool guy and I wish we remain in touch. Random discussions with you have always been great. See you soon bro!

Tezan Sahu : Howdy ITSP Mentor!!!! Well...I guess I have known since u before ITSP as well I guess :P Always had a gr8 time chatting with u whenever we met at random places....may it be outside LH102 or outside the CS Dept...or even in the corridors of H3!! Aise hi sabko motivate karte raho....aur life me machaate raho!!! See u soon bro!!

Shubham Punjabi : Aryan broo! You were the person I bugged you the most when I was trying coding in the ITSP summer and you have had the same smile while explaining all my silly doubts. I still remember our TL movie sessions and discussing how tech is better than cult 😊. Remain as awesome you are man, and weight loss ka kya hai, ho hi jayega ek din 😊

Kumaresh Ramesh : I don't know why you wrote for me because both of us aren't graduating, but I also don't know why you deleted my code shrugs DesignBuilder was epic and you missed the debate :(Thanks for hearing out my rants and even more thanks for trusting me with stuff. Do minute ki baatcheet would invariably turn into hours-long conversations that would turn into nightouts. Bitching our way through solar lab reports every week was epic, especially with Word frackin' up the formatting. Proud of you for working hard on yourself and your dedication to snatch CS from the jaws of energy. Here's to hoping that your perseverance will inspire me to get off my ass. Much power and strength to you! <3

Mrunmayi Mungekar : Agalzzz!!! From wncc tasks to brooklyn 99 ka night-lukkha, jaha agal hota hai super fun and laughs guaranteed! Forever stay lively, dude, you own it!!!

Pranil Joshi : Aryan sir! I had never been called 'inspiring' before today :p . I'm glad we met whenever we did the very first time. You are someone I'm happy I got to know. I love that you are sorted, I love that you are extremely friendly and social. I love that you had the courage to ask Sunita ma'am doubts that I would've been too shy to ask. Hope you get all you ever want in your future!

Sanket Agrawal : Yo Aryan! You really are a very happy and enthusiastic kid. Whenever we meet it's always a discussion full of energy and we share quite a few laughs every time. Stay like this, stay in touch, all the best kiddo! :')

Puneet Kaur : Heyyy Aryannn ♥ You're one amazing person dude! Kya bak bak karta hai be tu 😂😂 kept me entertained through the tenure. Chipku insaan - sab bacchon ke saamne free ka PDA karta rehta tha 😂😂 amazing time, man :) And pls text even if you don't have to get some info/gossip from me - - Keep taking more credits and keep poking your nose around everywhere 😂😂 I'll miss our conversations and all the fun! Listening to your rants and two cents about almost everything xD and your always "kya hua bta na mai hun na" sort will be so so cherished💔♥ ly ♥

Sarthak Sharma : Brooooooooo! kya epic memories hai apni intern times ki, all those gossips and bakchodi with our buddies and DU wale co-interns. Bhai tera work place attitude kafi badass and awesome hai :p Will always remember our daily lunch (healthy fruit plate) and gossip-filled coffee sessions. I hope apne intellectual discussions on cricket :p tujhe yaad rahenge xD baaki toh asap ek pending retail bois lunch par chalte hai! stay in touch :D and hopefully jald hi dubara bakchodiyan karte hai sath mai xD

Abhro Bhuniya : Man!! Truly its been a regret for me that we couldnt talk more, bcos whenever we met, we could talk about absolutely anything. I could talk to you with the utmost comfort. That first year summer was so much fun, just because of you and Satya, with us bitching about Tech clubs, seniors, whatnot. Hope we meet many times more in the future. I can assure you it will be at the most random place, by accident, just like insti, and we still be able to continue where we left off.

Abhinav Jain : Tere liye iss saal likhna hai ki agle saal hi chalega? Likh hi dete hai xD... Remember when we first had our proper conversation in TL during second year summers. We have had so many conversations since then discussing on a wide range of topics :-D especially now that we are wingies I am waiting for more endless discussions on how everything sucks man. Chalo baaki ka next year liye rakhte hai, let's have many more discussions by then!

Rajarshi Saha : "Bhai site bana lete hai" is how we started off, the only 2 WnCC volunteers in ERC (and mera subsequent katana, jiska mai already kaafi gaali kha chuka Disip se :P). Convener tenure was a blast and it was fun to have another tty infiltrator in the mix XD. Although after the tenure, mile nahi utna jitna pehele milte the (totally my fault sorri) but jitne bhi baar mile, our banter was always on point and super fun. Looking forward to our Last Debug. Cheers dude <3

Satyaprajna Sarthak Sahoo : Boi. Remember the nickname I gave you (the one you forced me to remove because it was getting out of hand lol.) Kya bolu. You were one of my first friends in the campus, and the first person I had a proper conversation with. And we never stopped those late night convos did we. Insti ka har kona has seen us talking about deep philosophical shit and was probably wondering how high we are. Tune mujhe life me bahut kuch sikhaya, legit. Aur sikha raha hai still. Abhi bhi ek saal hai, Jai Mata Di, lets rock it (I still remember the time I stopped in front of your house and wondered if I was dressed appropriately)

Tanya Gupta : Aryan duuude I do not have words to describe how glad I am Anvitha introduced us. From flossing, late night group walks on lakeside, singing 'I want it that way' as loudly as possible, playing basketball and so much more I love every minute I have known you! Us and having healthy relationships? Sun will rise from the west. I can always count on you to call out my bullshit and thanks for embracing my brand of crazy :P Also try to embrace that syndrome you are facing and realize you are where you are because you deserve it and have worked hard for it. Or just assume everyone is suffering that syndrome too :P What are you going to do this year without meee? (Sorry yaar too much self-importance I know xD) but call me whenever! And please, chills. Literal chills! xD

Yash Samriya : Aryan! You are one of the most cheerful lots I've seen! 😊 Convener tenure me itna machaya hai ki har jagah bad aapke hi charche hote rehte the! 😊 Aise hi machate raho aur touch me raho! 😊

Owais Chunawala : My best friend! My brother! You are one of the most important people in my life. You are so fun-loving and amicable. You make everyone laugh. You just change the vibe of the environment wherever you are present. Our tenure during ERC, our H12 canteen treats, our secret restaurant that we told no one about ;) , long walks and great conversations, our bonding in general is something that I feel I cannot express in words. It's something that both of us understand much more personally. Ha, bas itna hai ke sometimes, some of your jokes are bad, but people still laugh XD (Just kidding, all your jokes are great :P) Happy for you that you figured out what you want to do in life.

Pranav Sankhe : Hi Aryan, differences are an essential part of any interaction and I am glad that we interacted! I didn't indulge much in the elec club during your tenure but it makes me happy to see that you guys are still in touch among each other and after all, that's the point of having a club. Best wishes!

Darshan Tank : Hey Aryan, from being overenthusiastic and spontaneous in first year to being a bit sensible in final year, you have come a long way! From ITSP mentee to Elec Club to MI to WnCC, we have a numerous interactions to even write them down. I will miss the fun we had during MI Yoga room days. Keep working hard like you always do, and I hope you fulfill your American dream! Aur kabhi bhi pain ho life me, I am just a msg away :D

Bidish Ghosh : Adult Hitler bc main tty pe bolta toh hoon; ab meri kya galti that I can't churn out content at the same rate as you :P You've got a bunch of quirks that set you apart, and just to be clear I'm not really offended by your insults broo xD I'd beg to differ on your assessment of my brain turning to mush - perhaps a proper conversation sometime shall fix that. DD hain na tu to? I'll be in Mumbai, gonna hit you up soon!

Jasdeep Singh : Kiddan meri bitch!!!! Final year me to tu mila hi nahi. bohot tang kiya maine 3 saal tujhe. Lord ki battein and Leader ko mock karna energy ka rr, all those moments I'll never forget. Bas jab bhi yaad aaye phone kar lena.

Vipul Ramtekkar : Aryan dude, talking to you was always fun because of your enthusiasm. Thanks to troy, I got to know some super fun energy people (literal and figurative too). Thanks for showing those kick-ass games and being always so welcoming! Keep in touch!

Anirudh Mittal : Aap graduate nahi ho rahe isiliye ek saal wait karo :P Next year saath main infite senti milegi <3
