Himani Gangurde : Sukkuu 😊 Not everyone is lucky enough to get a mother away from home, we were lucky to have you, mummy :) . I'm so glad that you're staying one more year 😊 You are sooo innocent, kind, modest and smart, you've always been an inspirational and ideal person to me ♥ You somehow come up with some new weird expressions everytime, how do you do that 🤪 We've tried to capture most of them tho 😊 It's always fun to be around you, and talking to you always helps ♥ Keep showing off that pretty smile always 😊 Keshav Janyani : Hello Sukanya, my first memory of you was working on a project together in SatLab. You have been a fun person to be around and I find you weird in a very special way :p . I hope we meet for more outings with the bosonic gang and yes the Vihar Lake experience was amazing :p . All the best for your future and yes keep in touch :))

Bhavya Garg : Mummmmmmyji!! One of the best things happened to me in insti was meeting you. You would ALWAYS make sure I was doing alright whenever we met or crossed paths. Our talks would drift away in very random directions somehow and we would end up surrendering to the philosophers in us. I have seen you evolve so much. From a time conscious sophisticated girl who would watch movies in 10-10 minute episodes to the one who has finally made space for some much-needed chill in her life. You care so much for everyone, you have no idea how many people you inspire and motivate around you everyday. You were the perfect audience to our harkate with your crazy judgemental expressions. Will stay in touch ♥

Sayali Kshirsagar : Hey Sukanya!! (don't want to call you by the nickname you don't like😅 but I hope you remember). Tu sabka kitna dhyan rakhti thi wing me. I remember our early morning study sessions. How I used to wake you up whenever you fell asleep while studying😅. You were always a motivation for me to go to library and study. You are so dedicated in life. Tu, mai aur priyanka baddy khelne jaate the. You always strive to become a better person and never give up. Your passion for things is commendable. Volleyball camp was fun with you. Also biathlon. I will always be grateful to you. You are very helpful, calm and an inspiration for me. I am sure you will definitely achieve all your goals.♥

Kartik Patekar : Hey Kud-wave! I still gotta write the book - 'Collections of Kuddu's silly statements'. From "Call sagar on messenger since he is not getting signal" on Vikatgad to "Me december be nahi bachugi":P. You are one of few friends with whom I could be serious in one moment and crazy in next. You made many things happen in my insti life, you practically convinced people for every group outing, from Dinners to Alibaug trip (I am beating you and Aman in race next time we Kayak xD). Thanks for the LitFest trip, being patient with drunk me, and everything else. You are obviously gonna do great in life even without God's blessing, but don't forget the expensive gift that you promised!

Riya Singh : Hey Soul Sister :) I remember a sincere and studious girl from first year who would proudly prefer to be a nerd (though my best friend considers you to be the most beautiful girl of our batch). Over the years I have seen you as being considerate of people around you and compassionate towards your career. You were my go-to person for crying about my career-related confusions. I have always considered you as one of my best friends. <3 All the best for finding in which field your heart lies...

Vaishnavi Gupta : Heyy sukkuuu...mummy of our wing.... My first impression of you was... Kitni disciplined and focussed hai bandi hai, (takes a bath everyday too :p) and i wasnt very wrong ... Youve been so kind and helpful consistently, caring towards everyone one in the wing and those awkward cute expressions 😂 your discipline actually inspires me and dont worry too much 😊 im sure you ll do great... Best, stay in touch ♥♥

Sowmya Ravichandran : Hey Sukku! You're hands down the sweetest person I have ever met. My most favourite memory of you is the day we spent in Toronto :P It was so nice catching up with someone all the way on the other side of the world and it felt a bit like home tbh. I've always enjoyed the random mess conversations we have and looked forward to them. The one thing I admire the most about you is how you were brave enough to step out of your comfort zone, welcome change and make a lot of difficult choices. Keep growing and stay happy always <3 Also, keep in touch :)

Abhisek Sahu : Sukuba Kuddu Kudwave-tere kitne naam hain re!- just as many as there are sides to you 😊. You are as naive as you are smart, and as sensitive as you are tough. You are the kindest person that I have met here as I just don't know how you handled me, Kartik and our incessant 'tang-khichna' 😂. I was able to pass all the lab courses, just because you were my lab partner and you did everything 😂. I enjoyed listening to all your new perspectives over coffee, and hence those treats. You inspire me to take bold and difficult, but the right choices-just like you do, and all these make me respect you so much 😊 For u, mere paas hamesha coffee rahegi, keep saying OMG lol every 5secs and keep in touch!

Mrigank Ashesh : In our first year physics lab I remember you confusing me with Sagar that's my probably my first memory of you. I have enjoyed our brief interactions and "Hi!" "Hello!" throughout. I had a wonderful time playing Connect and the Poker with you. I hope we have many more such interactions and those aren't our last ones. Also, one last clarification does Kartik pronounce your sir name correctly. It sounds weird when he says it. Okay Bye!! Stay in touch and All the best for your future.

Shobhna Misra : Hey, you guys have been an amazing bunch! My job was a breeze because you guys were so damn awesome! It was a pleasure knowing you, and being able to help in whatever small ways I could. I didn't have a lot of idea as to what to expect and how to go about mentoring, but you guys were warm and welcoming, and that made my job super easy. Thank you for that! And thanks for listening to my monologues throughout the year :P All the best for your future, I am sure you will excel in whatever you do! :)

Shashank Verma : That road roller incident in Gandhinagar was amazing. That was the highlight of our trip :p and our talks in the bus when we were coming back were lit. You are such a amazing and sweet person. Be the same. P.S: I remember the way we (Anant, me and Sanket) teases you, next time we will meet let's repeat this :p

Mrunal Chavan : Yo Sukanyaaa!!! I was trying to remember when with u I felt like I was talking to my junior, well turns out the answer is never 😊 and I so like it that way♥♥ You have a heart of gold and u make me want to be a better person. If it wasn't for Satlab I would have missed on having such a close friend. I can't thank u enough for taking me to Kalsubai trek 😊 It is my most cherished memory with u all. Yar I so want more treks like that 😊 It ws no surprise when I got to know why ur entire wing calls u Mummy. 😊 Tujhe shayad pata nahi bt u always manage to inspire people. You sure have come a long way since the fresh year, well you have also incorporated time for some chill 😊 Terese baat hoti rahegi♥

Karan Trichal : Hey Sukanya! I think the first time we really interacted was at the Insight Handing Over, and I remember scandalising you a bit there 😂😂 We got off on a slightly wrong foot, but I'm really glad we got to work together so that I could show you that I'm also a sane and introverted person 😊 Your drive for your duties and your responsibility is incredible, and it was a real pleasure working with you. I'm really glad we went on to become good friends and got to know each other! Fundaes galore whenever you need them, though I daresay you probably won't 😊 Your openness towards different things in life, despite being somewhat of an introvert is admirable - I'm sure it's going to take you places.

Chitrangna Bhatt : Ek aur saal hai hi to tabhi likhenge aapke liye mommy. I wish yaha thodi pics upload karne ka bhi option hota :P

Ashi Gupta : Hi Sukanya, Chitrangna has infinite photos of both of us, and we can't just click one of her 😊. You are amazing person, you manage so many things together, excelling in all. I am sad swimming planning kabhi poori nhi ho paayi ☹... All the best for future 😊

Edwin Saji Uthuppan : Miss Lab partner, It was fun in all the labs (although I was hoping you would do all the work). I truly think you are too nice and apologise too much. I should have spent more time with you and changed that (keep in touch and I might just do that :P). Good luck to you and I hope you find what you want to do!

Sagar Kumar Seth : Lots of memories yet to make Kud-wave ! So next year :P

Kireeti Akkunuri : Though I constantly keep reminding you this, our mothers met during counseling and I heard you were getting into EP. It was a branch I really adored, so I thought you must be super intelligent to make it there. When we met early on in Insti, I saw how laconic you were, and did indeed confirm you were super smart in NLD! Yet it was really during our Insight tenure that I got to know you and appreciate you much better. I'm happy we could open up to each other finally! I was surprised you were ready to do me a big favour in Hyderabad, so I really appreciate that! I hope you keep nurturing your spirit of adventure. All the best for your life ahead! :)

Puneet Kaur : Hey! We didn't interact a lot but I've really been a fan of your dedication and hard work - be it acads or insight and what not 😊 all the very best for your future and stay in touch!

Yashaswini Chauhan : I really admire you for your simplicity and grace. I met you for the first time during those Vision Interviews and you standing up and saying that the candidates shouldn't be the ones paying for the food is something that stayed with me (and we discontinued the 'tradition' this time :D) You're one of the sweetest people I've known. I wish only the best for you :)

Saman Siddiqui : Hi Sukanya, All those mess type gossip sessions are unforgettable! I'm so glad that I got to know you ! You're just the kindest soul who just happens to be incredibly brilliant! I wish I could go back to those handing over times as Editors and do it all over again. Remember that car ride with Ivy ? XD You're just the best person and I hope you have a really happy life! ♥ Stay in touch. Sending loads of love.
