Yash Samriya : Didwania! You were the cool person in the council. We first met during NSO Squash and I remember how we struggled to live up to Pramod Sir's expectations, somehow surviving the intense sessions! The scene in Sunny after Council Treat was something embarrassing but it was fun! :p Going to gym in the middle of midsems and endsems in the last two sems was something thrilling jaar! From NSO Squash to gym buddies, we have shared a lot! Stay in touch! :)

Bhishma Dedhia : Yo Didwania _^_ I regret not knowing you well for the first half of insti life. Tech council with you was fun but apna asli bonding common courses ke through hua. Final year was too much fun with you dude. I'll miss all those LCH to hostel discussions where I learnt so much about life, the universe and everything. Apna customary ho gaya tha BNB jaakar espresso shot peena. and sync mein gym jaana. I love the fact that tu apne liye padhta hai, not for external incentives. Rishikesh alag hi feels tha bro <3 Jaate hai fir kabhi baba ko dakshina dekar prasad lene :p East coast aaja, bahut mazze karenge. Machata re and keep in touch <3

Parthasarathi Khirwadkar : Yo Didwania! We have been friends since the first year (NSO Squash) and it has been nothing short of epic! We had a lot of fun together, from going out in Mumbai to department trips. You are one of the most witty and confident person I have known in Insti, which is why I would often come to your room to chill out from my usual acads stress 😊. Watching Breaking Bad and Office together, playing TT at night, and listening to RHCP while revising AML lectures were truly awesome times that we had together! We have tried and failed at getting fit multiple times during these 4 years, but I hope we will continue to motivate each other to meet our gym goals in future 😊 Aise hi machate rehe life me!

Varun Patil : Didwaniaaaa 🥰🥰 I swear pehli baar we met I had no clue other than ki tujhe kahi toh dekha hai pehle, dimmag me ghum raha tha 😂. From there to Yokohama to midsem ke ek din pehle on your room 😊 kaha se kaha aagye. You're the chilliest person with whom i have discussed most serious and random stuff (dark secrets stay in coffee shops in Japan 😊), aise hi rehna hamesha. Lonavla chal ab, acads ka bhi bahana khatam hogaya 😊❤️

Athul Arun Nambolan : Didwania Bro ! undoubtedly you still the one of the best of the guys in my tech council team back then. Thanks for all those help with Tech-meet website, managing internal council matters. Loved your ideas related to some of the projects and initiatives and those discussions with you and abhinav during elections. I still don't know how you and sarthak were able pull a treat from me for wncc in my fifth year so easily. All the best !

Navnit Kumar : Yash Bhai tu best hai, senti agle saal due rhega. Tab tk last sem ka wing trip plan krna hai. Milte hain insti mein. Agle saal apne convocation me mummy milegi terese mil lena, har baar tere baare me phoochti rehti hai. Cheers

Arsh Akhtar Ansari : Didhwania bhai!! First legit interaction insti app ke liye hua. Hum dono kaafi enthu the but kaafi dormant bhi. Than patil came and rest was history 😊. MI ke time tujhse baat karna kaafi insightful tha. You and Sarthak did a great job with tty 11. Apna sunny ka plan to fail hi hota gya last sem m. Chalo agli baar jab bhi insti jaenge sunny pakka

Darshan Tank : Didwania, my lucky charm! we have nailed whatever we have done together, right? MI ke projects and Inter IIT! (Well, nearly, because InOut pe nahi chal paya ye magic) It has always been fun working with you. I will always remember those rubber duck debugging explanations when things wouldn't work. Keep working hard, publish papers, get a good placement and then we will celebrate :D PS. kuchh bhi pain ho, turant msg, ok?

Unmesh Raskar : Dearest Yash, tere bina toh merese elec nahi hota. Goa mei beach pe the three of us, bathing in moonlight, playing in the sand, stealing that glass from the shack, it bonded us forever. You are far too smart for me to comment on any of ur academic achievements. You are a real gem in elec. H7 mei your room was always a safe haven for me. You saw my downfall and hopefully I have been a better person afterwards. Placement macha dena, Keep in touch and Lets party one last time at convo! Come to Pune with me when u are free
