Nishant Jannu : Solanki bhai, Ben, Sencha aur tere saath khane mai kaafi maza aata tha- jab jab me mess ke darshan kar leta tha. Meri sabse random conversations tolerate kar lete the tum log. Dual convert karne se bohot baar warn kiya tha, bhugto ab xD. From having stalked every girl in our batch 2 days into insti life to being rejected by matkas- your quest for love that didn't even spare PhDs has been remarkable. Endsem time, tere padhne ka schedule kaafi random rehta tha- while others were busy cramming in LCH, tu movie marathon pe lag jata tha. You've always kept your door open for me, helping me get rid of my boredom. Kaafi support and understanding raha hai bhai tera. Milte hai Sencha ki shaadi mai!

Pattisapu Divya : Ever so imaginative, hard working and cheerful. I formed my first opinions on several issues/ideas/theories because of you and I am very grateful to you for that. It was always fun hanging out with you and hearing out your new plans (and adventures). That HS101 class when we were singled out not only for not listening to the unintelligible professor but also for passing notes to each other hehe. I can't not mention the multitude of favours I owe you for all the help you've always done for me. Rang was fun, face painting was fun, making that Minion bag when we first met was fun. You're fun! Thanks for always being there:)
