Drish Mahnot : "Bhiwandi ka don kaun? Razi bhai, Razi bhai" Idk how you tolerated me and Soumil spewing constant garbage, I don't think half of our jokes even make sense. Most talented artist I've ever seen in my life, and I love how passionate and calm you always are. First 3 years ka most visited room tha tumhaara, I will always cherish those memories! Take care Razi bhai, Spot se order karte time yaad rakhna :)

Namya Bagree : Bhiwandi ka Don kaun? Razi Bhai Razi Bhaiiiii! Literally the best artist I've met. Neighbours for 3 years 🤖 You're among the most kind hearted people in insti! Looking back at all those years, we probably could have spent more time talking in English 😊 One day you'll surely make a painting that'll make you known worldwide so please remember our wing then where you made your first "masterpiece" wall paintings (MI wala was okok compared to 156). It's been a great time knowing you!

Ashutosh Kumar : 1st year mein artwork collect karte time tumhari paintings dekhi thi Razi and tabse hi I have admired you for you skills, bina tumhare art and design ki baat kiye, tumhari baat kar hi nahi sakte. Kaafi acha laga tha jab tumne senior convener banne ka bola tha, I am happy ki got the chance to work with you, kitni saari chize ki humne saath mein, Inter IIT and Kalaghoda and how can we forget KD (best part was being after Akanksha every other day 😂😂), Thanks for everything they would have been incomplete without you. You were one of my support system during the entire tenure ❤️ Keep creating new stuffs, I know you'll be successful & phir MI wale bulayenge world famous Mural artist ko 😊

N Jagadeep Sai : The best artist I have ever met. It was literally toddlers and bob ross painting (2 of them :P) painting in the NSO class. Short time yet memorable. Do be in touch

Khyati Jain : Hey Razi (bhaiya ;)) I met you during Inter IIT Cult 2020 and it was worth an experience. Your responsible vala face... the frustrated vala look... the craving to take everyone on a treat... your brilliant ideas ,sketches and appreciations even at the worst piece of art are encouraging . May life give you great great heights and may you succeed wherever you go <3 Aarcha Suresh : Mannn Razi! You are one of the most dedicated, talented and hardworking people I know. I remember sitting next to you for fresheizza, while you painted those super realistic water droplets on a paper cup :) I didn't think it was possible for anyone to get any better than that, but dude, your improvement has been spectacular to watch! You have been an inspiration, really. Will miss all those interiit train journeys when you guys made me say complete sentences in hindi :p Though I failed miserably then, I hope the next time we meet, I would be able to manage a proper conversation in hindi!

Viral Shah : Razi bhai !!! kya mast kalakaar aadmi ho aap. I haven't come across a person so involved in art as you are. First year me jab woh book dekhi tab it was like ki single aadmi se possible nai ho sakta itna karna, but during the four years I saw you actually do that. wall painting, road painting, MI wall sab me lead artist tha bhai tu, thats so fucking cool. Kaafi acha lagta hai aapse baat karke hamesa. Ekdum practical and down to earth insaan hai tu. last year me shift nai hue hote toh wing me infi masti hoti, chalo koi na, all the best mere bhai, macha do aglse saal. Do stay in touch.

Akanksha Murmure : First year me drops paint karke fir har jagah machane vale Razi ke baare me jitna likho utna kam hai. KD ke time aur hamesha hi itna supportive hone ke liye thanks. Inter IIT me delhi valo ne beech me kuch kiya varna tu toh saare gold medals le aata. Tera start up idea, teri fish vali paintings, teri freelance wall paintings, sab kuch kafi awesome hoti hai. I hope aage life me tu ye sab karna continue kare. Tere jitna acha toh nahi likh sakti, but ye kafi ye mere jese 'K' bolne vale insaan se. Also, wall painting karte karte soyi nahi thi...
