Risha Agarwal : Dear Saloni and robo partner, I guess the whole insti knows how talented you are as a singer and I guess vvv soon I'm going to open a Salzone fanclub :P But being classmates and friends w you last few years was an extremely fun ride. No matter how risky or tough a decision might be, I know you'll do it if you wAnt to. You're gutsy, and you won't think twice before taking the road less travelled, and I'm real proud of you. I hope we stay in touch always and I hope that you keep singing and slaying like a star, like you already do!! LPQ TOH JAAKE HI RAHENGE EK BAAR 💕💕 :')

Tanvi Prakash : Saloni! Such good memories of awesome songs played together. Hope you'll always carry a little bit of Purple Habibi with you 💜

Raghav Goyal : Dude! yr, let me start by saying you are by far the best vocalist this insti has seen! seriously! Thank you for killing my ass during the IMS sopbox :p but yeah, maybe that's why I pushed myself to work harder! Shit bey! bhand hone ka mauka toh reh he gaya dude! but yeah, that bike ride was epic! im so glad i didn't let you drive :p I wouldn't be writing this then xD haha! Infi judge kr lia hoga logo ne uss time par :p like everyone's home and you are like "woooo...on the bike haha"! but seriously yr, i have made so many memories with you! oombeyaptap! Surbahaar after parties, and so much more! Stay the same :) stay in touch

Ishita Shah : Hey, partner in crime (literally?) Thank you for helping me cross that off my insti bucket list (even though that security check did kinda freak us out a bit) xD I will miss our 4AM conversations and thank you for always having a smoke whenever I've asked for it :P hopefully we can still get our laxmi night, which has been looong due! :( oh and I'm still waiting for those cupcakes you were going to bake for me :P ;)

Hritwik Ranjan : Yo Saloni! Convenor tenure was awesome with you. Really unfortunate ki uske baad we couldn't stay in touch. As you quite appropriately mentioned, life (also me, a big fat introvert :p). You are one of the best vocalists, really cool person and an awesome work partner. Hope to stay in touch in future!

Aditya Dev : Dude your covers are insane. What an overkill voice UwU. On stage with you has been so much fun (irrespective of the crowd response 😂). Them drunk nights and roaming around insti with dhvaj chasing us down with cow poopie on his leg. Or getting drunk and looking for shooting stars from gymkhana grounds. Or gettin drunk and runnin away from creeps at Roorkee. And that cross fade we had at apna dabha. Let me get my guitars back and misty complete karenge 😂.

Georgi Joseph Bobby : Yo Deodhar 😊 Have a long history of yoos with ya . Sunny may still be a prospect after the madness . Till then ill stay innocent and you stay happy. 🤗🤗

Dhwaj Singhal : General Kenobi, we met much later in our college life, and yet, as we graduate, i have some of my dopest memories with you. You're one of the very few people that i can truly vibe with on a cellular level. You been there through all of my misadventures and been a constant source of encouragement to do stupid shit at sunny (like snorting old monk). Man you're an incredible singer, and an even better friend. Your daily barrage of memes really keeps me going. And if there's one thing i can definitively say about you, its that you have never committed several war crimes in the former Yugoslavia (also if the transcripts of our sunny conversations got out, we'd be sent to the gulag).

Nutan Megu : at frst i used to think u r mean. but u r actually really nice , mature when needed and u have a strong personality . i really admire how badass u r saloni, i really do and performing with you alwayssssss made me feel badass too. u always were such a perfect fuel to my craziness. i still rmmber highway to hell was a banger and even dancing queen , u were alwasly so kind to me and i always saw u as this REGINA george( the cool kids of highschool) cuz u so cool but nice , u even helped so nicely in aftr parties in handling the drunk juniors and gave me nice tips to improve singing. please stay in touch even aftr u go abroad plis

Madhur Sudarshan : From being the first senior I met from the music club, to one of the select few I've spent most of my sunny times with, its been a crazy journey. Every song we've performed in together has not only been some of my treasured experiences but also consistently the best performances of my insti life (cough*TU hai wohi*cough)!! If not for you insti wouldn't have had a Neo-Soul/Jazz/RnB scene at all. Enough about Saloni the session musician, she's also a real G! Its bin a hella vibe >:{ Going to miss all the great times we've had, but let's keep the music going k? The world may never get italian hands emoji but as long as Salzoni keeps releasing dope ass music the world will be Calzone o_O !

Pranav Thakkar : Yooo I don't exactly know how to approach this :P to say that we've had our ups and downs is an understatement, I'm sorry for the crap I've pulled over those few years. I'm glad I got to know such a free spirit like you and I definitely look back at the good times we've had with fond memories. You've gotten insanely good at singing since freshie year (kinda off tho) and you've kinda become a meme junkie now :P (def not a compliment) but I'm glad we buried the hatchet for good. Chilling with you is always fun (H10 terrace 🍷) and we've had some fun times at greetings with our PP buds. Keep teaching me how memes work 😊 looking forward to a buttload of music and window chillin ngl

Parmar Dhairya Dinesh : Saloni! I remember the first time we met, it was the MB stationery, buying lab stuff and you asked me "tu gujju hai kya?!" You were like our own in-house popstar, I had a major crush on you back then. I've heard and liked each and every cover of yours, you've got a very mellifluous voice. Labs were so much fun with you, sobo night was just amazing. I wish we could have had more drinks together. You're a very chirpy person, I hope all your dreams come true. Ek kya convo pe pura six pack peete hain 😊 Hope we stay in touch!

Animesh Singhal : Saloni, look at your singing skills! What a phenomenal transformation has taken place from the freshie year to the final year. I'm in talks with Risha to open a Saloni fan club :P. Thank you for assisting us in the drum kit shifting. AD vaale din toh tune shifting mein macha hi diya tha (Haalat kharab ho gayi thi XD)! My most fond memory of performing with you is "Tu hai wohi"! Do you remember Cult Orientation when we ran to H10 to get the Cajon XD? Kitna dramatic dialogue mara tha tune end mein XD. Yaad ho toh PM karna :P. It's good that we did a few covers in Quarantine and it helped all of us to reconnect! Hoping to do more such collabs in the future and wish you loads of good luck.

R Aditya Narayan : No matter what, scenes with you have always been fun. Wish you well :)

Jay Nalin Thakkar : Dude your covers are sooo good!!! You are legit the best singer in insti. I'll really miss the PP sunny sessions, the Tu hai wahi jams, the random bakchodi during inter IIT jams and thanks for all the random advices i used to take from you after getting drunk at after parties XD. You are one of the most chill seniors and i really enjoyed my first surbahaar (Thanks to your memes ) PP Problems for life <3

Anyways, you're one of the best singers in insti never forget that, your alcohol tolerance is damn insane(Roorkee dude) ,keep growing and achieve whatever you want to in your life. The first time that I talked to you was probably when you sold me Ed Sheeran tickets XD but Roorkee was the OG shit. You've been a great company for the past 2 years and I'll really miss you :( Lets meet in a month!
