Ramakanta Behera : Tej, you may/mayn't be knowing u r popular in our hostel, 🤔.we had spent good time in this IIT life, those trip wala fun, gossiping, shiru cafe chat . U never dance in group, but I was the one who always get scolded..🙄
σ U r like a partner in enjoyment, in every outing you r the one who is always ready to go. Watched lot of movie with u, did good enough argue with u for that farewell party, still couldnt convince you😞. Your chi chi moment, sss soup moment, ehe moment, will be missed. Enjoy life till the fullest, you are a good friend, a motivator, a good speaker, you can convince anyone with abc please. I will surely miss all fun moments with you and ur stories. Dont forgot me..ok. surely Ankan Karmakar : Will always remember, "This is not life" and try to enjoy a bit more. I saw you stepping up in Salman sir's presentation when I broke my hand. U took lead and I saw a different person then. Wo, H10 ke dinner wale baat vul nhi sakte. I hope you are not eating now..... My chicken partner in every restaurant. Also, I will tend to forget Revit now, coz nobody will ask me difficult doubts there. It was fun solving your problems. Hope you become a world class gardener. Stay safe, stay Happy..... (wonder woman)....

Priya Agarkar : Tej! First day of IIT, after knowing that one more girl in the batch..it was such a relief ! :) 😊 we share mixed kinda memories.. 🌸 may it be movie time, bday celeb time, Dmart time , party time.. our pickups from H10 gate.. many more.. for sure i will miss the travelling together the most! 🚗🚚🚙🚲🚶 🙏 wish u bright future ahead! keep smiling! 🌸

Neeraj Kumar Burugupelly : Teju, The Telugu movie partner. It's a relief sometimes that you are in the gang, just to vent out whatever is in my mind. Our movie times, Lonavala and Matheran trips will remain memorable ones. We share similar opinions on various things. You are very careful about how to spend your time and money, which exactly resonates with me. Your company was always Fun. Wish you all the best !! Unta Mari.

Ankur Tiwari : Teju, our Lonavala trip will remain one of the top notch memories. From being complete strangers to talking so much, enjoying laughing all of us together... Farmhouse, Matheran or Mood I, it was all super fun. Told you ur placement suit is different... Raam group me chaa gyi uske wajah se 😊. Anyways... All the very best for future. Take care.

Anjusha K : Teju.. A girl who hold her head high and speak with authenticity.. I was surprised to see you managing in the local train and how u explained all the rules so clearly 😊 I always liked listening to u. Every time u will have a new information to share when we meet at the mess.. 😊 "potta voste potu, juttu pote ratu.. " 😊 Take care.. Best of luck. Thanks for the health tips 😊

Jasmine Lokesh K G : Teju. We first met during that amazing Lonavala trip. And it was so easy to get along with u. Right from the way u speak to ur blazer, everything is unique (blazer, at least in insti :D) We never used to meet often but when we did, it was so entertaining to speak to u :) And ur room!! Nobody can beat ur room decor ideas (Suchi might be an equal). Room with a mandir too! Anyway, keep rocking in ur future endeavors! Ur words are enough to symbolize ur intelligence. P.S. Waise u were right about redmud being jinxed :)
