Goru Meher Ritesh Kumar : Neeraj Boi! From hard laughter at gang beasts to nailbiting placements, we've come a long way. I have actually known you since 11th, but you've become closer to me after becoming my room-mate. This random event makes me believe in fate. You are always there for me, Remember the cult school in our first year? & when we used to play T.T like maniacs at 6:30 AM in the morning. Also, The times we played OverWatch and the epic one is the night out before MA 205. I have always annoyed you with my foolish doubts & asking for suggestions about something or the other. Sorry about that. You are shy & lazy, but super smart. I like it when we both smile at your narratives. You should keep smiling more.

Abhro Bhuniya : Chana! always grateful for your gaming knowledge and your silent wisdom. Can always find you at the H2 canteen. Thank you for Ubisoft!!
