Harsimran Kaur : If I have seen anybody growing into someone shining with confidence at IITB then that is Shalini Tyagi. Dude your confidence and your wit never fails to amaze and surprise me. I had some wonderful heartfelt late night conversations with you which are really close to my heart. I hope you go out in the world and Triumph every success that you make in that classic posture of yours at the corner of the bed. :p

Aprajita Shukla : Shalini Tyagi! The girl who is a child at heart and Einstein when it comes to academics! The girl who would enjoy even the minutest of things, be it playing with a balloon in the hostel corridor, or seeing a pigeon making its nest. You have always been the fun element of our small family! With your goofiness and your witty jokes! 😊 You have always appreciated the good in people! You were the first person from a different department to talk to me. Everytime that you've complimented my smile, you've made me smile even more! That is the magic you do! You make people feel good about themselves! You have that postive energy! Thank you, Shalini Tyagi! :) I love you! ♥️

Neharika Sharma : Hi my go to person! The last 6 months with you have been amazing. Watching Reviews together have been one of my most memorable memories with you and our healthy scientific discussions at the end of the day used to make me feel that the day was productive. Thanks for your support. Love you always.

Aparna Singhal : Is badtameez Idki ko jitni gaaliyo do utni hi kam h..bt mei gaaliya hi nhi deti...First day image of shalini tyagi:-ye konse gao se aayi h...Fr Idki ne jo ek hi baar mei englisshh boli bs fr toh first day hi image bdl di..uske baad toh isne mera itna khoon piya h ki meri platelets hi km hogyi..Ar aaj tk vo din hi nhi aaya ki meri platelets bdh gyi ho..Chlo ye toh rhi iski dogess wali baatein...ab aate h iske chipe hue talent pe...Isne aajtk nhi btaya ki ye hum sbse chipke kya khaati thi..Ab toh btade bhn..pure time sona ar fr exam se aake rona ar discuss krna ar fir grade AA lana toh iska routine sa bann gya tha..Ye hrkat toh mei kbhi nhi bolungi teri..

Jeyapriya T J : You've child like nature. At the same time, you're straightforward which is impressive. You explain things like a child which even a child understand. I've seen you never say you understood something until and unless you get things 100% clear in your mind. That's another impressive thing in you. Though there were little exploration with you, still all of them were memorable. Initially, we were playing getting lost in the campus. That star gazing with you ❤️ Long walk with your long speech😊

Rumjhum Mukherjee : Tujhe dekh k bohot kuch seekha hai maine: tera confidence, teri never-say-never attitude, tera smartness - you're one human being on a different level of everything - sleep to khaana to everything! And how will I ever forget the way you poke me to mail the profs? Always rise and shine! Much love! <3

Sudhakar Kumar : Had it not been for the PT cell, we might not have seen each other. Thanks to the PT cell for this! Though we couldn't interact much, whenever we did meet, it felt like I have known you for long. There are some of our memories worth cherishing. Remember, we went out on a walk towards Sameer hills at around 3am. You might not know, I was tired as hell on that day. Still, I felt like staying and listening to your 200-250 words per minute. At the end, it became one of my favorite moments in IITB. The late night chit chat near H-11, exchanging novels, helping each other in PO, and forcing each other for a treat are some of those 100-200 things which I would miss a lot. Stay in touch!

Susmit Mansaram Nimje : Apne clg ki gold medalist, bina padhe GATE rank 26, JRF, Citius tech, Amazon Alexa, Sparx gym bag aur chill MTP wali ladki. IPT me ye saare jawaab deti rehti thi. Khane aur mithai pe hakk jamana koi inse seekhe... Competition hi ni h. IITB hospital se inhe pyaar h. CC post se toh jyada hi. Bakwas ppts me bulati aur party b ni deti thi. 14/03 ko b conduct ki h.. hate u for that. MI aur marine drive pe humne bhot maje kiye h. Best memory: dept. ki patli awaz wali ladki ki mimicry. Jaldi waapas aana bola tha... ab b wahi baithi h. Kala ghoda jana h ya nhi?? Paint ball aur bhot kuch due h.

Aravindan S : I saw real powerpuff girls in my real-life. You're the blossom character 😊. I never saw girl with more intelligent and also funny good character. You knew how to win friends and influence people. We have good memories at Sameer hills, rajdhani and gulmohar 🌸. And also have bad memories all because of my despise character 😞. Sorry for my act. One of the best story I heard from you was the ghost story between you and lisha 😊. I missed opportunity to spend time with you. You have good soul. One suggestion plz take care of your health. I hope you will still in contact with me hereafter. All the best for your career 🙌.

Saket Milind Kothalkar : Tyagi ji namaste! Waise tere saath jyada interaction to hua nhi hai but jo hua hai usse yhi kah sakta hu ki you have beautiful heart and friendly nature. Sab ke saath ghul mil jati hai. Tera aur lisha ka PO ke last PC pe baithne ke liye hota hua zagda dekha hai maine. CC wale group me kisika birthday hota tha to sab happy birthday wish karte the par un sab ke bich 1 msg ubhar ke ata tha "anyone in PO?" 🤔dekhte hi samjh jata tha ki ye pakka tyagi ka msg hai. 😊 Itna courseload hote hue bhi tune CC ka kam sincerely kiya. Sincere and hardworking CC. I really enjoyed working with u. 2 parties due hai terepe, ho sake to de diyo pakka. Aur ha, mai bina phute gulab jamun banana sikh gya hu 😊, ti Sreyashi Mandal : Wish you all the best for your future. Stay healthy. Stay happy.

Abhishek Datta : First Labmate. Really cute and nicknamed after GIGI. Even though things turned out to be really sad, I wish they didn't. You are a really good speaker and a very serious student. Thanks for all the times you have helped me with the calculations.

Titash Baidya : Your grasping power for any topic is overwhelming. You are highly intelligent, cool minded and studious all at a sane time. And also so well-organized like a software. Your coding skills and managing abilities are just out of the world, truly speaking. I enjoyed the sudden cycle ride with you when I carried you in the backside carrier of my bicycle and you were so easy to carry...please, try to gain some weight yaar....and please don't tell me that I am judgemental or something else. You are honest in your opinions which I like. Take my pranaam....

Ankit Raj : Wo lambi si ladki !! Oye co-cordie !! Kaafi mast sath tha apna, first meet or tera enthusiasm dekh k mai shock tha "Aisa bhi kahin hota hai kya?". After that tera effort dekha , all time busy her event me participate karke saare kaam krna. Although kabhi kabhi bura laga akele tu itna kr rhi hai, fir apni halat dekh ke sab nullify ho jati thi. Thanks for all sort of help, tere CC ke kaam ke baad bhi tune time nikalke interview me help kara. That was tremendous. Sab to theek hai lakin teri party pending reh gyi yaar, be in touch and will do blast once. :p
