Samardeep Sarna : Bug! A great friend since 2014 JUSTTT

Aryan Agal : You're a great dude and very weird. Our wing was quite fun and my only regret is I didn't hang out enough. Waiting for your Placement treat though. PS: NKMFNKFT needs its own yearbook page okay?

Kavya Bhandari : From the "plus plus story" to being roommates @153, I feel like I've seen so many contrasting sides to you. My insti life was all the more fun & interesting & weird with you in it xD. Oh & hate racing for taking you away!

Rahul Manglik : Start using a laptop. You cannot do everything on a phone. Now that I look back, there are so many things that we have done together, so I'll not write about any of them. Just continue being on time and yeah, we win

Rajat Kadam : NSO ke time after the workout at the end, we used walk exhausted all the way back to hostel.. wo chillis mai dinner waali raat....And then the department trip.. It was always fun hanging out with you

Nitin Tiwari : Yo pseudo roomie! Coimbatore se leke Birmingham tak, Silverstone se leke Hinjewadi tak, kafi experiences aur memories hai saath me. You have been a good friend. Aage bhi aise hi machate rehna!!

Drish Mahnot : Easily the most influential guy in my college life. The chosen roommate. 153 is my happy place. The most appreciation I've got in my insti life is for the meme page I made on you xD Racing se kabhi time nikaal leta mere liye last 2 years me -.- If there's one guy I'm sure to stay in touch with, it has to be you :D

Mayanka Medhe : Where do I even begin? It seems like I have known you forever. We have grown so much- from Ketchup dance to Kill this love. You have taught me how to "Be Mature" on roller coasters. I will always remember all the stupid stuff we(you :p) did like mooing at a cow, following random cars around & saying "Butter Chicken" during that scary movie. I will miss your GRE pop quizzes at random places. Maybe we should go to that wax museum the next time we meet. And it goes without saying that you are the most cheerful tall person I have met. I know it must be hard being tall, but not everyone is lucky enough to be short right ;p? Also, don't you dare lose touch :p PS- Marathi bonding is a real thing :p

Bohra Ankit Narendra : Hey Namya...after the first year Lawn Tennis NSO...we properly interacted in last year. Though it was a short duration but it was fun, be it LCH or Psycho lectures. The Good RG Gang group was just amazing😂. You're a great person!! I'm sure you are going to rock it in future as well! All the Best!!

R Sucheta : "Meh"

Bhuyashi Deka : Soooo I began to write this and I realised that maine scrapbook mein hi sab likh diya. So please refer to that :p One thing I missed was when you come back from US please bring chocolates. And invite us to your home again. I miss aunty's cooking. Oh and apan dono ko saath mein aur photos khichwaani hai. Yeah okay that's it.

Vihang Wagh : Well, writing this senti for the third time kyunki sirf ye chapne waala hai :P. tldr always a pleasure to work with and hang out, super focused (I wish I was too) yet super lame and funny. Apne FSUK experiences yaad rahenge. Sorry for the CTM thing - got a call from my boy Xi down in Beijing 'bout some bioweapon they were makin that could cancel FSUK'20, so had to pull out. Anyways, I think it worked out best for everyone :). Milte hai kabhi. You are welcome in Nashik any time. And CMU craxxxx (though UIUC better reheta for meme purposes)

Yash Shrivardhankar : Bagree mah boi! It's not coming home, bitch! If someone asks me who's Namya Bagree, I'll ask them to sit in your exam hall and see for the first guy to leave the room :p. I haven't seen a guy with such a clarity about things he wanna do and one who actually gets things done. You are like a sharp shooter! Take a bow! All these years in racing were too good man! Batch 1 was insane! Birmingham Wheels pe skating on battery trolley was a bad idea :p. All those F1 discussions and tere tattti jokes, ayye hayee <3. Tu, tere chutney shots aur 2.5 baar ka routine xD. Tu kaha rehta hai? xD. Take Nitin with you or else you wont be able to sleep xD. And no, I will stop everywhere to click pictures :p

Umang Chhawchharia : Yo! Seriously Namya ke memes for Namya ke friends is the funniest page ever :p. Dude teri masti aur pagalpan kabhi lose mat karna. Apart from all the enjoyment, I admire your dedication towards racing. 2nd year mai class mai baithke book padhta thi aerodynamics pe :p. Always stay the lively person you are and keep in touch. I will vote for you General Secretary of Conditioning Affairs:p

Viral Shah : Team Leader !!! we have spent many phases together, vagad me iit prep was the first. Learning polo and then playing for the hostel, I enjoyed playing by your side while defeating so many teams. Racing was the best, your enthusiasm right from the orientation day in our first year till today has never been down even for a single moment (I am sure it would be the same when you would be an alum). It was always good to have someone more enthusiastic than me around so I would stay motivated and strive for becoming better. FSUK toh machayenge he... Mumbai toh we have met a lot, hoping to get in US and meet you there as well...

Adane Sahil Ravindra : Bagree boi! First year was mostly spent on the 8th floor in yours or Soumil's room. Playing football, badminton, dominion, that one single cramped room in H6 where there were 6-7 of us, all that Pronites time in the second year, and all the crazy birthdays (can never forget the Adidas one) we have celebrated together... these are all wonderful memories. It has been crazy fun and the Anshul Chhabra gang will have to keep meeting for sure. Good luck and we will stay in touch!

Pattisapu Divya : I had the fortune of meeting the kindest and the craziest best friend, all by sheer dumb luck in my third year at IIT. When I'm afraid of losing what we have, I think of something more permanent. Your friendship and our times spent together have engrained in my personality a change that is more permanent than anything else. Who would have thought the 5 year old, playful, carefree, standard issue cool guy and the jock of the batch would work such miracles on people projects when he's not busy with racing project? All time spent with you was fun. All time that will be spent is promising. I'll miss you ♥

Rohit Banavath : give me a jam one last time bagree. one last time. and stop talking like a girl.

Vinayak Gupta : I love your enthu for whatever u do in life. yr tere liye kuch funny likhna ho to u know what comes in mind, wont write it the second time :p. I still hope u come to JLR :p chatni shots maareng

Maitrey Gramopadhye : Yo Bagree!! I remember when I first met you, you had just jumped up on a chair in H15 ka mess, because you thought you heard a dog :P. You are one of the most fun people to be around. The goa trip, and all the subsequent outings were some of the best times I had in insti. Thanks to you, I know where the best "phus phus" is in insti and that if you moo at a cow, it doesn't moo back. Keep in touch, and wapas ghar bulana kabhi.

Chaubal Soumil Kishor : Racing,football,late night canteen runs are just few of the many things we have done together.Thanks for telling everyone about my fake shivsena connection.Your enthusiasm and optimism for getting aero on the car will always inspire me.Your clues in connect will always confuse me.Be it aquatics , racing or mood indigo, you always had everything under control. Firse Barca ke matches dekhenge kabhi saath me.

Jasdeep Singh : "Namya Driver Jeep Contractor" this name is always gonna be in my contact list, the credit goes to soumil though. Mere baare me sabse zyada afwaahe tune falayi hai. Even made a whatsapp group jisme sab kuch exaggerate karke daalta tha. Thank you for bringing me to Racing ♥. I think we have made good enough memories to remember each other :)

Rishabh . : The nut to my bolt, the screw to my driver, ye sare engineering puns innuendo kyu sound karte hai. But you were the best bodyworks partner I could've asked for! Chahe koi kuch kahe, IITB Racing ki humesha sabse sexy gaadi to humari hi hogi 🤪. Also we need to do manyy more of those Creatives treat! You're a really sweet person but stop bitching about my wheel sketching skills all the time 🤪

Riya Singh : Hi Namya!! When I used to read your name in first year WhatsApp group, I thought that you are some senior girl. I have seen you before but it was on department trip that I realised that this guy is Namya, not some random girl. I have never interacted with you personally but through fb and common courses, I know that you are dedicated towards racing cars and putting your best efforts to pursue your dream. Due to time spent with Divya, I guess that you must be an understanding and tolerant person to remain friend with a tubelight. :p All the best for your future!!

Shashank Kumar Sahu : Dance like a Chamiya 🥳

Barath Krishna S : Hey Namya! I first saw you at the mech dept orientation at VMCC. Tabhi I'd found you really cool(only coz you were in racing XD). All my interactions and experiences with you after that lead to you being my favourite senior and my role model... Thank you for all the knowledge, help and fun(although ye kam tha :P). It sucks that UK didn't work out this year coz it looks like you would've made an awesome tour guide XD... Thank you for believing in me (I think :P) and I'll miss you a lot ;)

Mehta Meet Amitkumar : Yo team leader sir. You were always full of energy and spirit and inspired us a lot. It was a couple of years when you had some or other work for so many of us and that made us to love even more to work for the team at anytime.

Razi Ansari : First year first day se me Soumil, Drish aur tere saath raha hun aur whole insti admires ki you guys are the most intelligent and smartest people of our batch, Matlab aisa andar se proud feel hota hai jab bolo ki "Namya to mera wingie hai." English coaching, Bhiwandi ka don aur tera Paaji ki dassi khajana (kya rota tha yaar paaji) hamesha yaad rahega! Baaki to scrapbook me likha hi h.
