Neharika Sharma : Here is to the person who laughs at her own jokes more than anybody else, who has highly expressive eyes and shares the love for Punjabi music, thank you for helping me in whichever ways you could. You are amazing.

Maayla Siddiqi : To the girl who can't stop talking ever XD i will always cherish the little time we spent together. i am going to miss your amazing movie recommendations. Room pe akr prof ki bitching karna and teri gaaliyaan after all we were few dilli waale in our batch <3

Titash Baidya : After reading the post about myself I felt overwhelmed, really overwhelmed because I didn't really expected this much appreciation from anyone. The word 'thanks' is smaller for you since you insisted me to open account in yearbook. And truly speaking I have to be really good in English to say something about you. Indescribable. Really.....and I will try my best to remove the clumsiness from myself..😊

Himanshu Bishwash : I kinda regret not being on the interview panel we talked about :P You have been a great teammate and a dependable friend. Thank you for listening to my rants and meltdowns patiently and making me believe that everything will be alright. I believe you are the friend, not everyone gets. You have been incredibly supportive and we have been on the same page for a lot of things, including our shared love for the feline :D Your cute optimistic replies for the worst of my predicaments has helped me a lot. Thank you for everything.

Shalini Tyagi : Simmo | The PJ Cracker | Beauty with (read some) brain :P | Strong Debater Ya toh ek dum high level intellectual ya poori paagal. There is no in-between for this woman. As soon as I am to write about you I see you running towards me (full on DDLJ style - Ja Simran Ja) like mera savior Hero aese department to H11 to H16 mere placement k time par. Tera caring side is genuinely filled with love. Thank you for supporting me and encouraging me during the tough times. We have had our share of fights and arguments and talks and laughs :P You bring a whole new perspective to a conversation, which is why I will miss your presence Stay happy, laugh loud like you do and keep the fire in you burning :)

Sreya Das : Thank you Simran for being a part of my journey in IIT. Though it was short but it will be memorable. I barely find honest people these days and I am glad that you are one. Ofcourse you are very beautiful, ambitious and intelligent. Will miss you a lot. You helped me when I expected the least from anyone and I'm grateful. I hope we meet again and have more fun. Keep smiling your way through hardships and you will definitely reach your goal. All the best for everything ♥

Aparna Singhal : Jb mei tese orientation mei mili thi toh meko lga ye bht pagl ldkhi h😂..logo ki baato mei aake teko galat judge krne k liye I am still guilty..but at the end of the day I am happy ki I got to know the real you..u r truly amazing, hardworking girl..bht focussed h..I like your management skills the way you handle your academics, yours por's, your relationship with everyone..😊..U r very nice girl by heart and beautiful too..I am in love with your hair👩💕..Missing your laugh😂

Jeyapriya T J : We were in convocation hall. There comes a girl late, and started her incessant stories of coming alone from Delhi. I wait for your name for the attendance so that I don't miss mine :p You've never forced me to learn Hindi from the very beginning. Even after I learnt a little bit of Hindi, you were careful that I understand what you say so you translate everything. Whenever I was negative, you said something positive to motivate me. And, whenever I was positive, you were negative i.e., end of the world 😊

Rumjhum Mukherjee : I have never met someone so stupid and smart in the same package! How I miss pulling your leg at the mess-table! And sometimes, your stupid jokes! Always be the bubbly self that you are! <3

Lisha Awasthi : Hamari journey bahut khaatti mithi rhi hai i have to admit it😂😂😂.... tu bahut emotional hai mujhse bhi zyada.....kabhi kabar gusse mae daat bhi deti hai but baad mae aake bahut pyaar se mna leti hai.... uss moment tu bahut pyaari lagti hai😊 ...that late night movie plan was😍... tera popcorn bnana woh bhi apni lab mae😊 aur raat mae lab tk ki walk..... tujhe aur shivam ko nazar na lge... you both make a very cute couple.... best wishes tumdono k liye ❤️

Aditya Chalishazar : It has been fun interacting with you over the course of this past year. Thank you so much for all your help. Your enthusiasm for a lot of things is really infectious and admirable. It's sad we could not interact more.Thank you for helping out with the birthday gift! All the best for whatever is to come... :)

Priya Kumar : Hi Simran! I was very happy to have found a friend in you as soon as we met, but sadly grew distant. Good thing we were lab partners - at least we shared some lab adventures and enjoyed each other's companionship. All the best buddy, you will do well :-)

Sonia Rani : Hey roomie. I wish I could ask you every time when you used to be sad but I did not know what held me behind. I felt it every single time when you were sad, but still most of the time I did not get the courage to ask. Anyways I am taking an experience from here. I still remember our long night conversations we used to have when either you were on time in room or I was sleeping late. Our routine was toh ekdum ulta xD. Thanks to you for all those hair styles when I was struggling to get ready for any function. I also enjoyed seeing those small fights of you and Shivam. I am also missing our very clean room in this lockdown xD. Good luck for your future and keep in touch.

Sagar Baulia : For Kaur I have one memory that is etched in my brain, is not a great one but 🤔🤔 I want to share, it's my side of story although we were working for 2018 genvision and I made some very bad BJ on her , 😊😊 although from the very bottom of my heart I can assure I have nothing against u it's just a very bad BJ ,Im sorry for that , 🤔🤔🤔 but still if it hurted u I don't know how to make amends just forgive ur friend ,dosst smajhh maaf kar de..miss Kaur or Mrs... 😊😊 ,other wise we have great 2 yrs not many memories bcs I love to remain in my own cocoon(comfort zone)... do not disturb others do not have any grudge on me 😊😊😊. Stay happy , live life to the fullest and achieve all ur go Ashish Kumar Choudhary : ja simran ja ji le apni jindagi ..the first dialogue from where we have started. Sem 1 ki gossips DU ki bakchodi like Delhi se hai bc and all was awesome. Initially, we were a good coolest dost, having a good bonding but due to some reason, things have changed. But Still you are always with me when i need your help 😊 . I wish we will become the same like we were in sem 1. All the best for your bright future. we will meet soon to add some more bakchodi and will do du ki hawabaji 🤔🤔🤔.

Harshita Khurana : Hi Simran!! You are certainly one of the sweetest persons I have met in IITB. I will always remember our dining table discussions, where we literally talked about anything and everything under the sun. We have a mutual love for Delhi and it reflected in our conversations. I wish you all the happiness in your life. All the very best♥♥

Sreyashi Mandal : Some people just don't get along for no apparent reason, and I guess we ended up in that category. Just to be clear, I have never hated you. And that's why even with our differences, I have refrained from talking ill behind your back. I really suck at the 'pretending to be your friend' game and that's why I never tried. Hope you will appreciate the honesty! Anyway, wish you all the best for your future.

Soumili Sarkar : Hey partner.. I remember the first time I met you near the stairways, opp to Lisha's room. That very evening I knew this is the one, with whom I can execute all the monkey business. We connected instantly with our pathetic jokes and what not! But sadly, the bonding went downhill during sem 2.. But then again, we got one more opportunity to bond, or to start afresh. And I guess M.Sc lab gave us that opportunity.. I got back the bond and this time I was dead sure not to lose it. You have been an amazing support during my interviews. We have all seen your growth, and that's commendable. Thanks for everything. I miss you. Stay in touch :)

Abhishek Datta : Another of my fellow mentee and an early friend in campus. As you said things turned out to be awkward. Never thought it would. Anyway, Wish you and Shivam a lovely adventure ahead. Have a great career ahead and don't lose your phone :D

Nidhi Ray : Orientation Day: And there comes this Senior in minimalist Google t-shirt and takes everyone in awe by her attractive voice and kind advices. I have been fan-girling you since then. You have inspired me in the way you sincerely devote your time and efforts to the things you love. Your voice is very sweet and charming. I wish you all the best for your future journey. Keep that infectious smile wherever you go. Hope. Love.

Abhishek Shaw : Thank you so much simran.. agar tu nahi hoti to C programming m pass karna difficult ho jata..isliya sayad maine tujhe chocolate v khilaya tha..... i really like your long hairit is so nice...bengali m ek puja hoti hai..kali puja..usme jo devi ko humlok puja karte hai uski aisei long hair hoti hai.....tension mat kar dost ki nazar nahi lagta...😊

Pradip Karmakar : hey, simran, u r truly an inspiring women; i have noticed that whatever work be it big or very small , u try to do it selflessly; from freshers dance prep to vishapur trip to freshers college trip to initial pg cult prep to corridor me bate everything will be unforgettable! agr college gya toh mere lab me maggi party me u r again invited :) and of course u are amazingly talented , thanks for those non veg foods, managed from moodi guys , i will never forget this ..:) always best wishes for your future endeavors , stay in touch from wherever u go (u will definitely get a big university, dont worry)
