Be the way you are...love you 🥰

Shweta Naik : The only time when I have seen you in tension is one day before all the presentations and submissions. Baki 24*7 smiling and laughing. Tere room se sab ko subhe uthana for breakfast "Chalo Bacho khane chalte hai". And the most important job you had done - Mukul aur Abhishek ke sath Project. Shayd hi tere jaise koi aur ho joh un dono ko sambhale sath mai. Just keep smiling and laughing always the way you do.

Divya Singh : Tere lye ky likh skti hu Mai..... Mre sare moods to dekhi h tu.... Sare secrets bhi janti h, to sb secrets ase hi apne pas aage rakhte Jana.... From interview till now U r with me ... Love you a lot 🥰

Yearbook
2020

Satish Dulla : I will start with the word "MUMMY". I called you Mummy more than I do in case of my mom (kyo ki ghar pe amma bulatha hu). Our relationship went like a Z curve within these two year (nutrition wale hei na... isiliye statistics me batha raha hu). No matter what, you are my all time favorite lady. Tere peeche nahi chodunga. But still I wonder, how did you get that motherly feeling... I can't list out the memories here due to the word limit. The best and worst part in you is your seriousness, sincerity and peculiar tastes & choices. Please don't cry for petty things, that will ruin your glamour. You are one of the best part at IITB's life of mine and only friend from Assam. I wish u all the best

Thirumal Reddy Vennam : Kya hi bolu!! chup hojao, will be standard reply I'll be getting anyway. I missed the count of sorry I said to u, still many may be pending as there is a year more. Bas rona bandh karo nhi dek sakte yaar. Work with you taught me many things which u may even not aware or u could have forgotten today. I still remember the day I noticed u, some serious talent who cleared ES prelims and came here to spend time. But that got burst and u have become family. The long walks and the abrupt talks gonna be missed. Chalo limit mei itna kaafi be... Be Happy soul as u r... Keep smiling

Lahari Yaddanapudi : Pigguuuu! Yearbook is asking me to write about what you mean to me. Don't you know? :P Koi rahe ya na rahe, I know you will be in touch with me. To ye yearbook ka formality chod dete hain, okay? On a serious note, nobody knows me better than you in the entire campus and I'm glad you understand all my mood swings, just like I get yours! We still have one more year of staying together and having our kind of fun (movies, shopping and sagar ke paas) but I won't leave with just that. There are many more trips we should go on, and Assam is going to be my favourite destination! Thanks for sharing your amazing family with me, I love all you Assamese log!

Aman Lonare : Yo GOGO!! Always keep smiling the way you do. You might be the only person who always used to have a big smile on her face no matter how tough the situation is. Iss se mujhe to hamesha courage mila hai. Agar kisi ko kuch bhi tension ho to main unhe tujhse baat karne k liye hi recommend karuga. It's good that a simple and very common word like 'Yes' will make you remember me. Kuch acche kaam to kiye hi hoge main except Mobile lekar bhagna, aur chats to main bht rarely padhta tha :p You might be the only one in whole CTARA batch jiske mobile me Lock nahi hoga. Aur baat aayi meri bandi ki usse to tujhse dur hi rakhuga :D. Always stay the same Best Wishes :)

Gaurav Kishore Dubey : 😂😂 first project partner, Abhi to milte rahenge. Hope you get success in your future

Mukul Yambal : Although you have title crime master gogo, we were crime patterns for PJs. Your lobe story was/is _/_ .. haah wahi jo back seat pe baithke batai thi .. Waise hum donone mtp1 me bohot dukh dard sunaye hai ek dusre ko .. waise hi aage bhi kuch sunane ka man karre toh yaad karna .. all the best !!

Sunny Johari : majedaar raha aapke saath kai projects aur drama ka safar..aise hi muskarati raha karo acchi lagti ho.All the best for your future. Kabhi assam aaunga toh tumse jarur milunga Sameer Kulkarni : I think I'll be the first person on earth who is scaring anyone because of his decency.:D Daro nahi, aapse kam hi hu sab cheezo me. It was fun helping you to make that paper lantern for TDSAA function.:) Sabse simple, kaam se kaam rakhte ho aur bass kya chahiye? All the best for UNICEF.:) Ek photo nikalna reh gaya bass, jab milenge tab karenge click.
