Atharva Deshpande : You are the coolest person I have ever seen!!!! From 24*7 reading hall to Institute BioX Secretary everything, and every moment was so memorable with you. You are very cute and nice person. Always be like this forever!! All the best for your future!! Also thoda kam daatna mujhe 😊

Pokkuluri Mohana Madhumita : Salee!! The one good thing that the GNR class did was that we became friends (apart from our grades :P). Last summers were too much fun and I hope I'll get another chance to navigate xD. I should have joined the road trip...but no worries, we'll plan more also I am sorry to say, your dosa was a bit too salty.. haha Wish you good luck! Stay in touch :)

Rashmi Ravindranath : My brother from another mother!! Atleast this rakshabandhan, I am looking forward to your gift 😊... One free soul you are ♥...Thanks for tolerating me 😊. How to you keep calm always????😂...Need not write much here because I know we will be in touch always😊😊

Azmera Akhil : Ale boi you're busy in the ways I can't even imagine, we rocked and sucked at being the lab partners. your sleep schedule is more messed up than mine!! you plan so much but end up doing nothing xD. remember that day you, me and sasanka talking about our life blaming the college and we were worried about our placements? In the end, everything went very well except for this pandemic. mama touch lo undu and make plans for the reunion. Also, ismart codarTake that as a compliment or troll your wish xD

Abhinav Jain : The match maker of Telgu community, I am so glad to have made a match for you(start accha tha bas tune dubo diya xD). Playing with bio-tech ke equipments in TL was fun thanks to you, and so was shobhna ko milke pareshaan karna... I have not seen any person who is as chill as you, remain the same way man. And insti aake pehle apan (you, me, shobhna) khaane chakte hai :-D. All the best man, let's stay in touch. P.s: apan wingies the yeh mat bhulna xD

Vikrant Nagpure : Sharath bro! We both had same initial start of our tenure, khub roye h hum xD. Kafi maze aaye tere saath late night council walks pe and TL me discussion me. Thanks for pulling off BioTech wala HTW without any efforts from my side. I am really sorry for that btw! xD Mujhe aaj bhi samajh nhi aaya you know who ko tune secy kaise banne diya! Bangalore aa jaldi se milte h! Stay in touch!

Pragadheesh Kumaran : Ale!! Though I called you lanja more often 😂 we became friends just like that, I seriously have no idea how😂😂 we connected instantly. You were one reason I used to stay in H6. Well literally my room was like yours 😂m where is my trimmer? Ale has it 😂.. where's ale's speaker?...I have it😂. You're one of the few I had such a close connection 😊. I was really lucky meeting you. You are literally my brother from another mother😂😂. I don't know what to say anymore, I had fun in college, thanks to you♥. I will never forget, we will never lose touch, I'll always be there for you😊.

Siddhant Jadhav : Ale... Niche baith😂 It was amazing to have you as an over enthusiastic, ever confused and an adventurous entrepreneurial wingie. 700 characters aren't enough to describe the atmosphere of our wing. Right from mutton pickle to guitar bro😂, we had it all. You are such a person who will get stressed about things but don't take an action before the deadline (or even after the deadline 😂). You are the reason I won't marry any Hyderabad girl😂. The bioX secy playboy who did anything for his girl friends. Ab Bangalore me milenge. Tu ek jaguar gift kar de. Fir hum guitar bro pe tera favourite gaana bajayenge, "main rahoo ya na rahoo"😂
