Ankit Kumar Kanodia : Bhai Tere baare me to kya hi bolu m jitna bhi bolunga kam hi pdega tune etne raaj chupaye hai logo se ki ek book likh sakte hai...or baato ko mudde se bhatkana koi tujhse sikhe (Best sakooni award tujhe hi milna chahiye). Ek dialogue jo tune pure Mtech me use kiya hai (tujhe baad me btata hu na yaar 😊😊)... Lekin tere bina Mtech bhi puri nhi hoti meri harami.

Mithilesh Patel : I would say you are the person with tonnes of secrets and mysteries. you are the one who can digest all secrets of other(tonnes of food) too. this makes you unique. Apart from that we can learn from you how to be happy, calm and satisfied in difficult situations. one day you will probably win the battle of life and problems. in difficult situations i would prefer to talk with you. last year when you came close to my room then i read your index page and introduction after that i realised that reading further is impossible and i stopped thereafter. whoever says that they know you, i wont agree with them. the way you takes other people in front of them only close friend of you can understand.

Roshan Jha : Seminar hall me last row me hum pehli baar mile aur mujhe pata chal gaya tu banda shi hai...apni lambi chalegi! Tu hai toh multi-talented! Kaunsa aisa game hai jo tune nhi khela ho! aur last me dhoka diya! Par sab maaf! Ek baar phir keh raha hun- PhD Karle!!

Nikhil Pisal : The shakuni of WRE. Bhai you have powers to turn a quiet room into total chaos.(sala kese kar leta he). The man who has question to every question.(Most of time ek hi ans. Rahta tha " tera time ayega re tension mat le").on serious note thanks for all the life changing advice which I'll never forget. (Baba banne me bahot scope he try kar Lena😊).but I'm gonna miss all those late night discussions and random plans(yes yes you planned them you win 😊). Sure it's been a bumpy ride but I think we enjoyed every bit of it. Definitely dialogues ki jugalbandi Bandi miss karunga esi baat pe tere liye ek dialogue." Mein to tujhe harami samjha tha .. tu to dev manus nikla re.. :)

Akshay Kadu : One of the most amazing and understanding roommates one can have. King of sports Kingdom, one who has truly utilized the sports facilities at IITB. Just one advice, it's good to play different kind of sports but start doing Yoga too which will reduce the risk of muscle strain and make you fitter for all kind of sports. Another thing, your name will be written in the book of history for successfully organizing Alibaug trip tour along with Roshan by following simple rule...Jisko aana hai aayega 😂 baki bahot kuch hai kehneko lekin 'Batata hu badme terko' 😊

Neeraj Kumar Burugupelly : Hey Gorasee! Bro I should definitely thank you, Nikhil and Ankit for bearing me and listening to my bakchodi always. I can never forget the times we spent discussing politics, debating with Mithlesh, going to Kalsubai, reading your newspaper paper, watching movies. It is always a joy spending time with you. Am sure you cannot forget saying “Am not sure!” to me :p. Needless to mention the number of games and sports you play. I like the way you handle people and situations. Thanks for your honest advices, though they are embarrassing sometimes they are true most of the times. I wish I get a chance to see you doing your MTP at least a single day. I hope we cherish this bond for ever! Until next Nishikant Kumar : Hamare batch ka sport man. Koi aisa hi sport hoga jo bhai ne khela na ho. Or canteen me bill mast bnata tha 😊. Koi v secret pucho to bolta tha chal tere ko btata hun pr btata nhi tha. Alibag ka trip jo tere or Jha ke karn hua sbse best trip rha♥️. Mamu ke class ke bad rula diya tha 😊. Bhai teri English speaking ka fan tha mai. Always miss you. LOVE YOU.

Manvitha Molakala : I got to know your patience level after Alibaug trip where I irritated you the most by asking an hour to hour schedule of the trip. Yet you answered everything patiently (any other person would leave me in Alibaug for irritating so much :P) The trip was so memorable because of your planning and perfect execution. Sad part is this was the only trip we all as a group were able to go (control your tears Sarosh :P) BTW you are chill yet responsible, who likes trips and adventures, who likes scaring others with your adventurous trekking videos, very mature, ready to help and the person who knows all the secrets yet not revealing any. All the best for your future. I am sure we will stay in touch.
