Shreya Agarwal : Samardeep.....You have been a great mentor and friend. Thanks for helping me through all sorts of career dilemmas and guiding me to the best of your knowledge . Outings with you are the most memorable outings I have had in insti . You never failed to make us (atleast me :P) laugh with your incessant jokes on the same topic :D . Some more things I would never forget are the GRETA talks we had , sitting through few classes of marketing management with the genius in you and talking about what we deserve and what we don't :D. Hope you get to study / work on what you like in the upcoming future ! Stay in touch !

Kirtesh Ajay Gadiya : It was a great fun in tutorial together. Have a bright future!

Drish Mahnot : A good memer, an essential part of NKMFNKFT. 90% of our interaction has been online, and 90% of our offline interaction has been randomly meeting you outside the acad area xD Keep gaming hard and keep in touch :D

Naman Goyal : Trly you are the best mate I have got in the insti, there is a lot I have learnt from you. Those 2 years of the tenure were the best, memorable and smooth only because you were there. We can still have countless discussion on so many topics we have interests in. All those treats with our heads and with bacchas (all of which I gave :P) were so fun. I can't forgot all those times when all of you teamed up to tease me funnily. The trip we ought to go is still pending, I am sure you'll take us all to your grand trip treat. I know you'l be immensely successful in your endeavors, please bhul mat jaana mujhe.

Piyush Kumar : Sammy, friend since day 1, bhai tere saath kitne saare boring lectures nikale hai maine, we used to draw random shit on each other's notebook, fir tune ipad le liya 😞, I will really miss you randomly telling/texting me "yaar kuch samajh nahi aa raha kya hoga mera". LCH k saamne apan ne infi interesting discussions kiye hai on random topics. Tera meme taste bahut sahi hai, aise hi lit memes bhejte rehna. Aise hi life me machate rehna and bhul mat jaana. All the best.

Parmar Dhairya Dinesh : Sammy! you've got a great taste for food and places to hangout. NCC would've been intolerable without you, stay in touch buddy

Siddhesh Ambesh Biyani : Worked with you on a project, absolutely loved the experience! Stay the same fun-loving memer that you are :D

Vikram Aditya Sharma : Yo manager sir! Can never forget our incessant Pokemon conversations every time we went for an outing, and boring Naman and Shreya with geeky stuff until they were ready to cry. Also Naman ki gajab lena pure time xD I remember how you'd convinced me Naman was the maggu-est guy in the club, only for you to turn out to be an even bigger maggu later :p Machate raho, n00bs slay karte raho, magte raho, and stay (Tenta)cool!

Arnav Dewan : Paaji, rona ab toh chhod dena! I don't really remember how we met for the first time, but bro uske baad se the ride has been hilariously amusing. I still hope ki I will get your one treat sometime in the near future and I don't expect it to be something below Taj. I know tu ro ro ke machayega but please thoda kam kar and iss gareeb ki madad kar!

Tu yaar sach mein machata tha but kabhi bhi accept nhi karta tha, by the way mujhe aaj tak samjha nhi tujhe uss course mein chaggi kaise lagi, jiska tu mujhe agge hamesha sunata rha. Sriganesh N : Yo! Har baar enthu se greet karta hai. First year me ghar se khana laane ke liye thanks. Appreciate ur enthu for video games, aage bhi jab game related doubts ho tujhe ping karunga. 7th sem me controls course me maza aya. The chitchat we three used to have after every class is memorable. Aur sir aap ke kitne interests hai.. gaming, aviation, biology, chemical, controls, finance.. aur kuch miss kiya toh maaf karna. And the jokes about ur style of complaining were funny dude. Stay sweet always and all the best for ur future in US or Canada :D

Soham De : Kaafi chill banda and kaafi interesting conversations in that boring Comp Bio class, scheming to get Soham Dibz AA so that our grades improves, random meet and talks around LCH. Best wishes for MS

Anmol Gupta : Yo Samardeep! (stop picking on my 'Yo' every time XD) Saying this for the nth time - Yaar bohot zyada cute hai tu! Council mein rehte hue humesha itne formal aur sincere way mein greet karna aur baat karna, despite having such a fun alternative side to your personality _/_ You and Naman getting 'rejected' and congratulating each other was next level fun :P That 'heist' we pulled is always going to stay etched in my memory forever! After just a few discussions, I got properly invested in it - it's not everyday that you maneuver such a thin line and break (?) rules hehe - as much as it was nerve-wrecking for you, I'm glad that you pulled it through and got what you wanted. All the best! <3

Ankit Neema : Paaji!!!..Yaar phir se handing over me ja ke Naman ko bhand karte h :P ya phir ek aur roasting session organise karte hai Naman ka 🤔. Itna machau h bhai tu..ab rona band karde :P ..I had a great time with you in managing Council clubs. I wish you luck for your future and stay in touch ♥
