Sayan Roy : Ali bro, you are my best swimming partner. You are ultimate chill guy, we had so much fun together. You remember that day when we sat on the swimming pool gallery (when you were writing report and I was having intense discussion with you)? Hamara Swimathon ka sapna adhoora reh gaya. Thanks for letting me use your bicycle so many times. I loved to listen to your operation theatre experiences. And you have got your dream job, so macha dena pura. Aur ayenge hum kabhi Nalasopara mein, maze karenge. :-)

Bharti Arora : Bhot jugaadu, chill aur practical bandaa. Bhot logo ki lagai hai whatsapp group par tumne. Stay the badass human you are. Good luck janaab !

Gautam Sharma : I still remember the first day in H1 where we together setup your room from bed to mattress under heavy rainfall and it was your first stay in hostels. Yes, as you said, we together made one short film, and you played the role of Father ("Pita Ji") of Ravi. Fantastic memories with that movie. We took several pairs of shorts for one scene while you were entering the room to make Ravi understand your household condition. HAHAAHAHAH. Together, we went for mood indigo too and built many beautiful memories, so many photographs and lots of food that we shared. Lovely. Used to meet while on our way to the lab and down to room on "Mybyk". Such sweet memories with you. Best wishes. God bless you!!!

Pooja R Borhade : My only mumbaikar dost in class. Tu ghar gaya tha kya yaar me bhi gayi thi.. i use to talk about this only to you. Hehe.. dono ka placement bhi same din . N jaha chahiye tha vahi hua. Thanks for the memories your share and allways be in contact kyuki yahi mumbai me hi bitegi teri or meri zindagi.. all the best for your future
