Anurag Dwivedi : It was very unexpected but still I searched your name on yearbook. Cool! The innocent face harami guy, I can remember, the first time we met in canteen and I thought you as the most studious nerd after seeing your high-powered glasses, but that's my wrong notion about you in starting days, how you used to visit every half an hour in 7028 unpurposely and then ending up with the shitty talks. No one will forget your chachaji, may everything is fine between you people in this lockdown period...

Harishankkar GK : I still wonder what that look you gave with your eyes means..I see as a genuine fast bowler..and a person who is calm, cool and unwavering in the mix of things..even the night before the exams, u seem to be cool-headed..all the best for your future!

Vishal Vishal : Roomie...😍😍😍... Pta nhi yaar tere baare main jitna bhi likhun utna km hai. I still remember hamari bahas during electronics project and after that I thought are maine ye kya kr diya becz I didn't want to loose such a good friend and roomie. But uss din k baad phale vali baat nhi rahi according to me 😞. I know you are a shy guy, may be becz of that. But apart from that I don't forget those backchdi bhare days jab ham Rahul Verma ki lete the 😂😂😂. Aur vo Vinay k room ki sabha 😊😊😊. Aur hamari late night party 🍷🍷🍷 Missing u bro....

Lovish Gulati : I am the only one....whi have seen Mr. Aman sardwal in his home as well as in the campus....bhai sahab.....ghar m yehi harami sab ka laadla hai..😂😂.....rockstar...tere saath bhut yaadien h...khelne se le k ...baaki logo k room mai jaak sabko tang krna. 😊.....han pr bhai hai to shyyy...apne dil ki baat kyi logo ko ni bol paya...😂😂..bhai ab bhi mauka hai...likh de....i will really miss u buddy...enjoy ur life..

Amrit Prittam Nayak : To the most shy baccha of my friend list. The internship days brought us close. Bas ek akhri wish thi: to listen more to your chacha story. 😂 One last advice: don't accept whatever others say you. Speak up more often. Have a rocking future and stay in touch.
