Harsimran Kaur : Hey Lab partner! To be very honest we were some of the best teams in the lab. You are really hard working which is commendable. I have not seen anyone in my life working that hard. You dance so well! Yes we grew distant in time at IITB but that's okay I hope we stay in touch later in life. All the best for your future endeavors. I am sure you will do well!

Rahul Shaha : Priya you are one of the best thing happened to me in IIT. Our bonding keeps on strengthening as days passed. You were there for me .. always, Because of you I was able to survive those hardships. You have always kept me motivated whenever I feel like quitting. You are an inspiration. Discipline, Politeness, Genuine, Charming, Intelligence, Caring are few of those many qualities you possess that makes you one of the best people. I still remember people questioning your integrity towards your work as an IC and you have shown how actions speak more than words. I am proud of you. <3

Titash Baidya : I haven't met much people in my life who are really down-to-earth; sometimes they show and pretend to be something else but in reality things are completely different. You are the exception in today's world; you are far, far beyond the results, studies (well, what can I say more about the 10-pointer!!!) and set an example of being honest, meritorious, thoughtful, hardworking and benevolent. You have a huge receptivity which draws attention. Keep it with you.....and my heartiest congratulations for your future. And at last, thanks for the original Swiss cheese which you brought for me on my request.

Neeraja .P.S : Dear Priya, I love the deep conversations we had at the end of last three semesters 😊 we were open books for each other !You have taught me the great pleasure of loving ourselves and I love you for that 😊. You will be remembered, always !

Pradip Karmakar : Hey Priya, I am lucky to meet such an extremely talented person .. thanks for teaching me dance in the initial days of iitb ... It is always nice talking to u ...freshers dance still give me laugh and joy like doing mistake in group is always fun ; ... from our marine drive trip and playing lots of dare games with cards game was truly fun and memorable ... ya, we had some misunderstanding in the middle but happy that we have confessed which will make our friendship stronger like the initial days ... and of course PG cult dance preparation, farewell dance prep, all time bkdi with "trip will happen" gang will always be unforgettable ... wish good luck for all of your future success !

Rohan Kumar Parida : You are the first person to say me Hi among my batchmates in the convocation hall on day 1. You have always been a good friend to me who has never stopped supporting and caring me in my bad times. Throughout the IITB life, you were so punctual, self-dependent and one of the most hard working student I have ever seen. Finally your hard work paid off and both of you got selected. I'm so happy for you. You have been so enthusiastic in every field; may it be academics, cultural or sports. Your success story in every field proves you as a complete person full of versatility. I have no doubt on your brilliance which will surely establish you as a successful person in your field.

Sreyashi Mandal : You are undoubtedly the best IC we could ever have. You are so hardworking and so efficient. I have always admired you for that. You are so talented - be it academics or sports or dance- you ace at everything. Also, you were the only person in campus with whom I could share my excitement after watching a K-drama! :P Wish you all the best for your future. Take care. :)

Harshita Khurana : Hi Priya!! Thanks for being a helpful Co-IC. I have always admired your hard working and disciplined nature. I loved how you smiled whenever our paths crossed. All the best for all your future endeavors. I wish you get everything that you deserve in life. ♥♥
