Shubham Jain : Hi Yojit, writing this in one year in advance, Bhai tujh jaisa banda maine apni poori life mein nahi dekha, sahi mein i think one of the person who has inspired me the most, it would be definitely you. Your simplicity and humbleness is just unimaginable. The way you make understand things to others, always helps them to make things interesting and remembered. It has been a journey of 8+1(i guess by the time you read this post), and i hope this journey goes on forever. I know i have troubled you with a lot of silly question when we were in pace and also in the first year, and m really grateful for calmly replying to them, and i think i would continue to give you more trouble in the future! :)
