Mouli Hazra : Hey Babe...U r my first roomie and best rommie ever.Im a fan of ur photography..U have a great sense of art....Ur presence, ur decoration in our room made me feel like home. I really feel difficult to sleep at those nights u spent in library..I know u will do great in ur life..Stay blessed...Stay connected...

Avari Roy : Well, Ms. Ray, I will MISS YOU.. above anybody else I guess. It's hard to say which things I'll miss the most, cz there are just too many!! Yeah, study room chirping and those PNPCs...those curses to people we don't like, etc etc... Oh my God what a time spent!. Never had I thought it will end like this. Atleast we were putting up a smile hiding our sorrows and defeats everyday. But nature seemed not to like that too... If only I had known that we will NEVER meet again soon, I would have given you a big big hug. You were kinda my partner in crimes.. understanding my temptations and acting the same way. Wish you fulfill each one of your dreams and be very very happy! We "WILL" meet again soon

Rumjhum Mukherjee : After wasting the whole of the first year, we realised how well we bond with each other and how! How amazing a friendship that starts and grows so beautifully in such a small time! Daruun chobee tulish, always get better at that! May our common feelings grow (you know what I mean) and may we always keep in touch! Bondhutto ta thakuk shara jeebon! 💖

Aprajita Shukla : Sananda!! Jo Idki black tea me cheeni mila kr peeti hai! That girl! Can never be trusted! Ever! 😊 You are an amazing photographer! And a very sweet person! I will cherish the time we have spent together in mess! All the best for future! ♥

Writasree Maitra : The girl with craziest sense of humor and weirdest ideas. I wish all the plans we've made together become successful. You're stubborn and you've a constant urge to do something different. Stay the same. Keep on cracking good jokes, clicking amazing photos and dreaming strange stuffs. All the very best; accomplish everything you desire.

Saheli Dutta : Hii miss. I meet you when I hardly need a bengali friend. But time by time you mean a lot to me. Your artistic activities amazed me. But you should apologise for the thing that when we went for outing you definitely forgot your camera 😊. Will really miss you, our food dates, gossips... everything. Hope you enjoy your journey of life by your own way and achieve a smooth successful life ahead. ♥

Rashmi Bala : Hii ShaanuDaa It was a nice experience to share moments with you. You are really funny at times and I will always be reminded of those hilarious talks...you know what I mean. You are so sweet. Your craziness for web series and your tears for Iron Man 😂....I will never forget them. Wish you all the best for your bright future...lots of love. Hope to see you soon.

Shubham Bhatt : Hi mentor, Thank you for guidance throughout year. Never thought goodbye from juniors will be like this. Best of luck for all future goals!!!

Om Kushawaha : oye chudaiil, witch I meant, don't get something else. u r the most abusive girl I ever met, u say anything bluntly. one thing i can thank for is that u taught me some of the Bengali slangs.. aur ha rahi bat hindi ki to "u suck at it" mil mere ko next time insti me fir dekhte h kaun pilta h..thanku for the good comments used on timeline coz mere ko laga tu bs gali hi de sakti h. stay safe so that ki next time tere ko peet saku.

Om Prakash Sahoo : Heh chotti... Kaisi ho... I still remember our first meet in hostel 11 canteen. From that till now the bond of our friendship has grown stronger with each passing day... U are really an wonderful person to spend time with... After the msc life I am going to miss our chit chats and small fights which were full of sarcasms and comments... Bahut acha bol diya... Ab suno bhootni si sakal wali chasmis... "Aami tumako maarbo ikhane, tumi padbo okhaane" 😏😏😏
Haha... Be a successful person in life and never leave your photography passion... 😊
