Riya Singh : I met you first in GMRT trip 2018. Apart from this and InterIIT 2020, my interaction with you is negligible but from the limited conversations I have had with you, you are very interesting person and it was fun to spend time with you.

Shobhna Misra : Hot chocolate <3 Working with you as part of the council was fun. I really enjoyed the times we spent together apart from work! You've gone out of your way to help me many times, and I can never forget that. You helped me get through the GS tenure even when you had no obligation to. Thank you very much for that! And yes, obviously I'm going to send you pics when I visit Interlaken. :D All the best for the last lap of your insti life and for the future ahead. Let's stay in touch!

Ritik Bilala : A well-suited quote for you "There are friends, there is family, then there are friends that become family." We enjoyed not only the project discussions but also spent lukkha time together, Ideated together.\ #YeDostiHamNhiChodenge #friendship_forever

Apurv Tiwari : Aaaaaabu! You are the one jiski wajah se I discovered my astronomy enthu and I cannot thank you enough for it. Those long random walks in the insti rant karte hue gaane sunte hue and sar par maarte hue :P were the best <3 And wo itna bada geminid dikha tha us din mach gaya tha :o Stay in touch hamesha Abu, one of my fav kids. And we will keep bitching about youknowwho :P

Animesh Singhal : 2nd year Solid Mech Lab! Kya time tha yaar vo. Infi masti karte they tu, mai aur Mrunmayi. Thank you for helping with the lab work and the pre-viva preps. I still remember jis din mai CG bana tha aur results ke baad seedhe lab aaya tha aur tum logo kitne khush they :'). Time nikalo fatafat, treat pe chalenge asap. Cheers to all the study sessions and discussions we've had <3. Stay the same humble person you are :D

Zote Ajit Sanjay : Hahahaha. You are the best hahahah. Best roommate evrr XD. Accha tha wo discussion , we were just pouring our hearts out that day xD. And Yeah man , thanks from my side too.

Rahul Agrawal : I hope sab kaha suna maaf bro. I know we have had our differences, but as I graduate I will remember it as friendly banter. I know I am too brutal at times, but all that is me not hiding my true feelings. Convo hua to let's meet up. Good luck for the DD year, macha dena.. All the best for the future, we'll stay connected :D

Aditya Chalishazar : As promised, this is post 1/2. I have a feeling this year is going to be an interesting one. Here's to burning more midnight oil on projects (no matter how they turn out) :p... Thank you for the most awesome birthday present. We do need to re-(actually)create that one picture. Keep spreading more joy (even more inside jokes and a lot more hot chocolate)... All the best! :)

Debanjali Chatterjee : Hey Abhinav! "Let's judge", but not here :P Kitne saare mazedaar memories hain tumhare saath... 6th sem se chalta aa raha hamara lab group and hum teen (you, Varun and me) being the most memorable. Prom night 2019 ke judges the hum! Campus hub ice-cream to Starbucks coffee to Soul curry, kaafi memories banayi humne. I admire your leadership qualities, and how you are always ready to take initiative. Machine Design ke course project ko kaise bhool sakti hu.. poore sem bhar aapne 9 logon + 1 prof ka ... (ykwim! Which reminds me, Madagascar ka wo crashlanding wala video XD, Yash ne shi mein machaya tha usme!) You're awesome, Abhinav. I'm glad to have a friend like you :D

Nautatava Navlakha : Ah! this is one guy jisko kabhi bhi milo always has something to about(Ever had a continuous 4hr long chat anybody!?). But uske alaawa bhi iss bande ka infii enthu. Din bhar astronomy club hoodi and headphones daalke rakhne waala ye banda infii machaata hai. Iske saath patil ki lene ka alag hi mazaa hai. Specially that lonavala trip, waah! Never change dude! Always stay the same humble person you are!

Mrunmayi Mungekar : Hey AJ! You have been my bestest buddy since a time I can even remember (like dude seriously we gotta figure out, man, kabseee?!!! :-P) Through yeh error 500 pcnt kyu hai yaaar (forever solid mech buddy!) to aaj shiru chalthey (*aaah shiru :-P) to cc chale? to hot chocolate pitey, you have been such a fast friend. Aren't we glad for yearbook and all? coz hame to ek dusre ke chats to kabhi aaj tak chamke nahi, na aage chamkenge (ironically, par apne stupid convos bas apan hi bear kar saktey)...well, even though we wouldn't be here to bear you next here, stay the sweetest , stubbornest guy ever - seriously, someone should reward you for still jhelofying me :)

Varun Patil : It won't be an overstatement to say that our lives have become as entwined as two strands of a DNA chain :P. From "out of league" and "hot chocolate" to the deepest recesses of the soul, words are too fragile to express in any way the meaning of our (rather strange) friendship and the invaluable time that we spent together :)

Yash T Rajan : Ek dusre ko masti mein Sir, Sir kehte kab pseudo-roomies ban gaye, pata hi nahi chala. The thing which I like the most about you, ki tu jis bhi group mein hota hai, usko baandh ke rakhta hai (talking apart from the one obvious example too :P) and you always manage to create an atmosphere in which people can trust you and share stuff with you. Room 4129, H18 has been the centre of many scandalous activities, bhale hi kiya jyaada kuchh na ho, but bahut kaand soche gaye hain uss room mein :P. Ek aur saal hain saath mein, I feel privileged for that. The only thing I will miss is Tera and Patil ka romance. To the best of times, bhai<3

Swarali Ghodkhande : Seems like I can not get away with that "HTTP: 404". 😂
😂 Thanks to Mrunzzz for introducing me to such a cheerful and friendly person. Looking forward to making new memories 😊

Krishna Wadhwani : Abhinav!!!! One of my first and closest friends! With you even if we did not talk for weeks, it always felt really comfortable. Will miss our banter on Jain things, our united front on Shubhanshu's pranks and me finding humor in your rants. From Wingie days to the pranks to RC plane to Kritika groundwork to InterIIT Tech (your first one :p) to so many useless, we shared so many memories. Hope we'll always stay in touch♥

Rishika Gupta : Italy in a box turned out to be good decision afterall 😊
Goodluck for reincarnating as a panda next time. 🐼 And sabke birthdays ko calendar mein add karlo abhi se 😂

Shreyas Chaudhari : yo brooo, most understanding, talkative and convincing person of the group. Deadline pe kaam karna koi inse sikhe, I remember our MTL and Projects ke reports/PPTs kese bane the xD. I still want to meet in TL for project work with random masti, I hope CCTV ki recordings kisine nahi dekhi hogi :p. Duniya bhar ki khabare, contacts and jugad tha hamare project manager ke pas, for smooth execution of the project xD. I still wonder, becoming friend with you should be considered as worst thing or blessing !!!!!!!

Ashi Gupta : Met in the final year on Diwali at Mrunmayi's home. I won't forget your name!....haha...You are an amazing person with lot of enthu and creativity (something at the time of the election).

Mrigank Ashesh : Bhai mere yaad aaoge tum. The first year was awesome with you. Stay connected bhai. All the best for your future endeavours

Anupradiksha Rajan : Tere poor jokes hamesha yaad rahenge, kyunki tu khud hi uspe hasta tha. Starting me mujhe lagta tha ki tu bahut maggu hai, phir pata chala ki tujhe bahut gossip pata hai. Mess mai jab bhi aau tu dikh jata hai, apna hostel ko 8 se change karke 10 karde :P

Shashank Verma : Haa yaar treat baachi hai tum sabki, as soon as sab sath aate hai treat pe chalege pakka, me tum logo ko treat pe le jaaye bina nahi jaauega. I haven't seen anyone persistent as you (at least in treat related business) :p. Aise he rahena hamesha, infi machana aur life me. Will meet again in some corner of the world, sipping wine and remember all those stupid and hilarious incident of past. Keep in touch, my boi...

Nitin Tiwari : Yup Abhinav! Definitely had a fun time with you. TA training, classes aur course projects pe kafi time bitaya hai apan ne. Was always amazed by the new things you were pursuing every semester, from inter IIT to Kritika. Bhai itna manage kaise kar lete hai!! All the best for your DD year!!

Aryan Agal : Yo Abhi! Yaar tu infi enjoy karne waala banda hai. Love your positivity. Tere saath convener year was full of laughs <3. Looking forward to hangouts in 5th year, wingies toh hai hi hum :P PS: intellectual discussions mein feel aayegi, like the one we had in 4.2 PPS: Mere room mein tapakte rehna when returning from stuff, accha lagta hai :p

Tanya Gupta : Abhinav Jain! I think the best memories with you definitely include the chair discussions, your explanation of that research paper on categorization of people and a lot of dissection of our life events. I remember you saying you don't have a group, but look where you are now! Your humor makes me want to bang my head on the table, literally. Tujhe maarna baaki hai. But all said and done, you are definitely a part of my insti life that I couldn't do without. Ace this year and your future, and know that I am only a call away :D

Sanskriti Shah : Hey..well we interacted mostly during birthday celebrations of common friends but I can say that you make poor jokes..and are the gossip queen :p . Well you are really fun to talk to..always cheerful ! Stay the same :D

Bhatt Maulik Chunilal : Hello Abhinav sir, aapke sath infi memories hain. Next one year mai fir se infi memories banate hain and infi + infi = infi memories ek saath likhenge ek dusre ke wall pe. Aur haan jaise hi milte sabse pehle jalebi-fafda kahne challenge. Koi bahana nahin chalega.

Kinjal Saxena : Hi cry baby! I remember we talked first time in the mechanical workshop (jab tumhari team ne kaand kiya tha :P).. then when we sat together and kept talking in MA214 class but only you were scolded.. how we became friends in the weirdest ways but came close very soon.. when you are one of the few people I used to run to, crying.. our lakeside walks, McD treats and long long talks, never realised you would soon be one of my few special friends <3.. one of the constants in my life.. I remember you asked me why you're special for me. That's because you're always there for me, I learnt some of the best life lessons from you. You made me question myself! Stay as u are! I m not leaving you soon :p

Vikrant Nagpure : Bhai, tu hi mere manager tenure me fun, excitement and even teri high level ki problems leke aaya xD. I hope convenor year me bhi itna involvement ho pata. Tere saath apni tenure ki problems discuss karne me alag hi fun tha, TL me baith ke apne enemy (iykwim) ke baare me discussion as well as tackle karne ke plans hi toh asli fun tha. Apart from ITC tera before exam padhana was really helpful. Also apne course projects bhi nhi bhul sakta, TL me baith ke ek dusre ke projects ki kamiya nikalna, Gym me prof (iykwim) ke aane pe chup ke bhag jana, late night group walks as well as outings hi toh yaad aayenge. Chal jaldi se Japan aaja (apna dream pura kar le) and stay in touch!!!

Athul Arun Nambolan : Well we do certainly have a lot in common ranging from aero to mech branch change, techmeet and council experiences, Hostel-8. The range of your enthusiasm to how you sometimes react situations (both in good and bad ways) helped me learn a lot. You were really good friend and junior in dept whom I will never forget. Those election time curiosities and some of the pranks and jokes will remain in memory for a long long time ! Thanks for all the ways in which you supported me back in my tenure as GS.

Harshwardhan Mourya : You Abhinav, i do remember kya first message bheja tha teko maine, that convo man😂😂(zyada details leak ni karunga). Kaafi humorous and bakchod ho re tum. Debanjali ke birthday ke din ki Patil ko maachis laane ke liye convince karne wali convo yaad aagayi😂😂. Alag level pe bakchodi😂. Also, That save = 100 moment at that night, and thenafter making puns on fire and ignition later that only 3 guys on table were relating😂😂😂.. khatru ekdum. Apna last discussion was intiguing. I guess i first noticed you in yash's birthday. Tab bhi apan dono yash ki le rahe the(not together) and last time jab mile tab bhi yash ki le rahe the(together this time :p).. I guess something will never change😂

Arjun Rahar : Hey merry jane(jain). Your capability to adapt with the situation is just commendable. You can be cool sometimes, you can be hot headed, from cry baby to hardworker I don't know how many personality you hide underneath. I just thank god, you are my friend since 1st year and that too one of my closest friend. Your development over the years from a little introvert guy to the one who lead kritika, inter IIT team and not analytics teams is just out of praise. Teri 1-2nd year ki daant or gussa hamesha miss krenge main or krishna 😊 honestyle that really used to scare us😂. Tere sath infi bakchodi, infi treats lena, infi baatein or kuch bndo ke kaarnamein discuss krne me kaafi mazza aata tha. I f

Vardhil Mehta : Mr. HR guy, MD se apana interaction start hua tha and usi me kafi memories ban gayi h. :) But ek saal aur h apan insti me, aur kaand karenge. Fir agale saal likhenge. :P

Amit Gangurde : Yo poster buddy!!! The starry-eyed boy (yaad hai?). I remember the first time we made a poster together and took hours that day just to make a simple one 😂. Tere saath GMRT trip pe kaafi maza aaya tha bhai. And superwoman banke toh macha hi diya 😂. I wish we had interacted more after 2nd year as well. It was amazing to be your co-convener. Stay in touch and aise hi machate rehna life mein🙌

Yash Samriya : Abhinav bro! Tu council ki Jaan tha yaar! Tere dank jokes kaafi alag level pe hai. I was always in awe by your knowledge of stars and their position. Damn kaise Yaad rakhte ho itna Saara! Stay in touch man! 😊

Pujan Biswas : Insti ki sabse epic rivalries ka part kyun raha hai be tu? 😊 Patil aur Rajan ko ek saath jhel lete ho toh bhai respect hai. Baaki tere laughs and subtle poker face jokes ko yaad rakhunga. DICs mai common bitching sessions were fun. All the best! Yours, Bisso!

Sharath Chandra Ale : Hey Pseudo wingie!! Who knew that we would be more than just co-Secys? You, me and Shobna made our tenure contentful which otherwise would have gone god knows. I am always owed to you for those texts of you to you-know-who which made me see a different world and be versatile. I will always miss that hot chocolate, and how we mess with Shobhna! I envy you coz you got another year to live to the fullest Insti. Stay in touch!!

Tanya Mamgain : Hey ! I always knew you as kushal ka roomie and yes we didn't interact much. But reading your post brought a smile to my face. It is sweet of you to notice such things. I Wish you all the best for future:) bie

Abhisek Sahu : Dear Abhinav. If I make poorer jokes, you are the one who is capable of laughing out louder on them, than myself 😂😂😂. It was a lot of fun having you as the co-manager. MnP and Kritika bhai, Bhai..Unke managers bhi Bhai bhai 😂. Bahut saari Bakchodi, bahut saari bitching Kari hai hum logon ne. I'll always remember those fun times. Keep in touch man. 😊

Aditya Patki : Bro, apne most baate toh jaldi jaldi me hi hui hai. But tere saath Bilala ke room pe lukkha kaatke bada maza aaya. Tu kaafi cheerful banda hai life me. CE 102 ki TAsip toh hamesha yaad rahegi. It is one of my weirdest experience with you guys. Aage bhi machate rehna apne Harry Potter ideas ke saath. All the best bro!!

Sanit Gupta : Yo Abhinav, apni dosti Inter IIT main lukkha kaatte hue hui thi na. Kaafi fun time tha. It is almost scary for me to imagine ki Siddharth, Mrunmayi and tera labs main mere supervision ke bina kya hota. You've been really fortunate ki aisa supervisor mila. Treat toh tum teenon ka mujhe dena banta hi hai. Also, visa stuff main help karne ke liye thanks a lot. I had no clue what to do. Tere bina pata nahi main pahunch pata ya nahi. Take care and stay in touch.

Shubhanshu Gupta : Jab first year mein mila the hamesha rota dikhte the tum, shrur mein you seem like a very maggu person but as time goes I get to know more and different side of you. First year mein fire exit mein raat ko baatyein discuss krna, aur faltu ki bakchodi karna, ED ki lab mein tmhara copy karna, walk pr jana saari baate kafi yaad aayegi bhai. Aur last year a tmhara favourite pose 🙌 😊 Nd thank you for supporting me and helping me in my journey of IIT. Hamesha khush rahe bhai aur yaad krte rahna apne es bhai ko bhi. ♥ P.S - Prank ke liye maafi nahi milegi tumko Arush Gupta : Bhai ye story xD mujhe bilkul yaad nahi hai kuch bhi about the eggs xD Bhot maza aaya yaar Krishna ke room pe xD It was lovely to see both of us grow as time went along; we didn't get along very well at the start, but we came a long way after that :D Bhot maze karenge B-) and we'll always keep meeting. Vikramaditya Patil : Yo Abhinav, We had so much fun in the first year. Post that due to our wings going to separate hostel, we didn't see each other very often. Still we managed to stay in touch throughout. I really enjoyed looking at the moon, through the Kritika telescope you had in your room. I was really proud of you when you made it to GFK, I never had a chance to tell you. I love your passion for astronomy. Keep it alive in yourself and in others. All the best!

Anirudh Arputham : Hey Abhinav - my awesome wingie!!! You are one of the first friends I made when I first came to IITB. Loved every moment I spent with you and all the conversations I had with you and how you had an opinion for everything. You were one of the few friends I could share almost anything with. Thanks for everything. All the best for everything (Better keep in touch ^_^).

V S Harikrishna : Yo! When we first met you were such a shy guy but look at you now man! Watching you grow up to the person you are now I feel proud even though I don't know why. I hope we get to have a good year ahead. Wishing you well. Stay safe my friend.

Sumitra Barhat : A person who looks even cuter pass se!! Ye mere liye tha 🙏 ab teri baari Itni dhamkiyan sunke bhi same and sane raha tu hamesha. But yaar sach much me kabhi maar kha leta. Galat kaam karta phir kuch bolo to judge karna lagta miyaanji ko 😊. Hamesha bali ka bakra bana tu.
