Krishna Subramani : Ani boy!!! From Barcelona (Ana pains) to DDP (you know what :p) to here... Bahut maje kiye hai apan ne :) Apna Montserrat hike yaad hai, wo to bahut sahi tha yaar! Barcelona (and now obviously :p), could not have asked for someone better to chillax with :) Here's to a great time at MIT hermano, rock on!

Mandar Sohoni : Aniiii <3 Man, it feels like I've known you forever. You and Unni were the first friends I made after coming to insti, and since then it's been an absolute kick-ass journey. From scaring you in freshie year to window chillingz in jhol's room, I've never had a dull moment with you guys around. You've been there for me at my lowest, and you have no idea how much that means to me. Here's to killing it in life (MIT maateeee!!!) and for many more memories to be made! <3 Ugh, we need to have that road trip soon.

Jaymal A. Lodha : You're one of the coolest people i've come across in the Insti, just seriously love your chill attitude towards life. Even though you probably stopped debating in my freshie year I can't forget how you always tried to motivate me to debate and do well at the activity- whether it was after freshie year NLS, RV or just in general. You're a real inspiration for me personally cause you're going to be studying the course I hope to apply for in the future(MIT!). Hope you stay in touch, thanks for everything

R Aditya Narayan : Dude this is the endgame. It's been a wild run man, sad that we were thrown off track by microscopic organisms. But what do I say, we've done almost everything in insti together. From all our chillin sessions, fighting with each other over who contributed more (EDL toh tu ne kuch nahi kiya, arduino code likha bas), walking to class together, waiting for your dabba to come, random sunny nights on weekdays (let's go at 7 man !), Debate partners (Yeh kya chutiya judge hai), Semex chats, hiding behind you when Cows come. I don't know where to stop. So I'll stop with this, I can't imagine an Insti without you. ily <3

Pranav Thakkar : Y000. My spellings have become terrible because of you. Bruh, this is going to be a real appreciation post. From Duck Song marathons and Aero DICs to teaming up at SLS, Jugheads visits, H8 kitty shenanigans, gigs, Gullu dinners, dabba sessions, Khar outings, we've done it all together. You've always been beside me and I feel so much love (and laziness) from you all the time. From the guy who forgot his umbrella during insti tour to the dude in my window who chills while listening to Mild Orange endlessly, we have come an incredibly long way and I can't imagine not staying in touch with you. ♥

Ishita Shah : I wish we could've executed at least half the plans we made :(Chilling with you is always so much fun! Karaoke nights at Harry's were so amazing. But we need to find other places now lol :P Keep in touch while you're machaao-ing at MIT and hopefully we'll get to hangout again soon :D PS: You and Avan are damn cute <3

Devyani Verma : Hey Ani! Barcelona was amazing, all thanks to you and Krishna! It was because of you that I got over my previous scars (read: first time vodka hangover) about drinking and resumed it once again! Thank you for introducing me to that great wine (and the best one till date ig) All the best for MIT and I hope you get to do a Europe trip with your super cute SO :D

Saman Siddiqui : Hi Ani, You're one of the coolest seniors in the Debsoc and I'm so glad that I got to know you! The Debsoc just wasn't the same after you and Gult left for the sem ex and I'm so glad this year's juniors got to know you guys :) Thank you so much for everything! Hope you have a great time at MIT !

Mookund Sureka : Interning with you was damn fun. Chillest roommates ever :p. that night on the roof was fun and we both wish we had done such parties earlier. We complemented each other well and it has been always fun talking to you. Argentina getting kicked out during the world cup was fun :). Anyways stay in touch and all the best :). Oh i forgot our Amsterdam adventure as well :p

Aashay Biyani : Ani, you're a stellar debater and an inspiring senior. I didn't have much practices with you, but you've always been really sweet. Your advice on how to improve is always helpful and you have always been keen on exploring where we can improve. Those practices have been fun. Cheers and all the best for future.
