Mudita Rana : The first post was special, roomie :) thank you for such a sweet one. My first close friend here, you know how much you've helped me get through. Thanks for understanding me when no one else did!! I'm so proud to see how far you've come from first year. It always tears me up to know we all won't be seeing each other daily anymore; waking up to each other's alarms, knocking on rooms to wake each other up, running late for class :p will obv be in touch lallu. You're not allowed to forget me!!

Ritika Agrawal : Hi Baheti!! Bht hi sweet ho aap and chalte firte kabhi mess mein, kabhi H10 ke gate pe and kabhi room pe, aapki advices ne humesha help ki h. You manage everything so well! Sabse memorable handing over h aapke sath (club se hostel tak ka safar😄) Aise hi humesha guide karte rehna and keep smiling and stay as cheerful as you are always! 😊

Raghav Goyal : You are one of the best people I have met in insti! DE project kya mast machaya tha :p lol! I have no idea how we even managed to complete that! Remember the lakshmi wala dinner? (with me and pranil) - "bhaiya ye pasta toh ekdum kaccha hai :p". Anyway, kabhi pranil related secrets sunne ho toh btana :p

Ankit Neema : Hey Aayushi!! Thanks for some last minute exam preps and making me a part of 'wannabe maggus'. Those S1 sufferings could have been so real if you and Goyal didn't provide us with tut solutions :P

Akanksha Sachan : Hi Di! You're the first senior I met when I came to insti :) you've been so sweet and helpful all the time ♥ I hope we meet again :)) Siddharth Mehta : The day I met you is the day you befriended me. Charming, snarky, a true force of nature, and the closest I've come to know a celebrity. I can't possibly comprehend the will power it takes one to make 'me' go to the dance floor. Thanks for teaching me those 4 dance steps; that's my favorite, although quite embarrassing, memory with you and I'll cherish it for life. Flashing a sad & sorry face is my secret, captain (Also, I can't believe you'd reveal that incident here :(). But Aayushi Baheti isn't someone who can ever be ignored. We're obviously gonna be in touch for long years to come. Also, Vision is too complex a character to be diluted into single words so let's not do that, please!

Rishabh Agrawal : Hello Roll maa, I don't know if you remember our first conversation (Koi sense tha us baat ka, mjhe bahut lagra tha 😊). In my defense, I was dumb and idiot at that time 😅😅. Thank you for being a sweet senior and a cool maa 🙌.

Rohan Garg : Life pains! 4 saal ho gaye but tera messenger pe nickname change nahi hua, because tere hi according it still fits :p btw i did not mock you for being in chemical that day. Stay this cool, never hesitate to hit me up, and milte rahenge teri infi treats ke liye

Veerupaksh Singla : Hello Lab partner. Thanks for the tips and trixx for getting more marks in labs and cribs. Thanks for jugaading notes, solutions and previous year questions! Also thanks for helping me and tanny in front of some judgemental TAs 🤔. Lab se 5 min pehle viva prep karana. Ludo khelna lab me. Viva me random answers fekna 🤔🤔. Also thanks for getting Nutella from h10, and please maara mat kar itne zor se 😊. Ek KD tshirt maangi this bas 😊

Pranil Jain : Pasand toh aap first year se thin mujhe, par teen saal lag gaye aapko patane main. Bas fir kya tha, College ne acche grades toh nahi diye par accha life partner zaroor de diya, who always keeps a check on me, has been my alarm :p, who has been there in my joys and sorrows. Thankyou for everything you Crazy, you are my doze of happiness and an indispensable part of my life. Hope to extend my college life forever by having you by my side! <3

Risha Agarwal : I tried writing some 700 words a number of times ever since I joined YB and failed every single time. I guess, the amount of love, respect, admiration I have for you is too pure to be expressed in just a combination of some few letters. Paayushi, you're like Sunshine. You brighten the lives of each and every person you spend even 5 minutes with. And I'm so grateful to God that I have some memories w you that have made a permanent place in my heart. Rcity, 5 spice and McSwirl will never be the same amount of fun with anyone else I ever meet, sitting in the auto and screaming at the driver to stop when the meter runs will never be as funny w/o you, playing dumbcharades and being the best duo at it will never be with anyone other than you, and election days in the wing would never be the same amount of fun without you, and you know why? Because I don't want them to. I don't ever want to forget any minute spent w you, and it breaks my heart to think that a pure soul like you has had some tear-ful or painful memories in insti because of me. I will also always remember when you walked in to my room while making that card and ran away as fast as you could XD and that day when we made some insane snapchat videos in the Belgian waffle store for our kids to watch :P I hope you keep flaunting the beautiful smile on your face and I hope Pihu and golu always stay cheerful and happy on every videocall with their crazy and wonderful aunt !!!! 💖💖💖💖 We should soon make an insti ending video for our kids in Belgian waffle :) I really love you, have always loved you and you'll always inspire me to be a better and compassionate human, rocket girl!💖

Tanmay Garg : Hiya loudmouth!!! Please stop shouting everytime i ignore you 😂 tu bahut chillati and maarti hain yaar mujhe and ye to deny nahi kar sakti tu.. Lab TAs are the proof :p anyways, it was tremendous fun pulling your leg and knowing you for the last two years and somehow we always seemed to end up in one group lol!! I also think youve become too soft now and it would be nice if we could bajao atharva one last time together :p always stay cheerful and i hope we stay in touch :)

But again, I know you will send me a lot of sweets forever😊. Ok, that's a deal, no negotiation.😊. Or agli baar mera birthday bhooli to you have to double up the sweets😊. You're such a badass yet sweet person, and I wish you all the happiness going ahead. We absolutely have to remain in touch. Your little pixie :)

Aditi Mahajan : Hello Baheti. Thanks for your first stress-causing post xD. I never expected that we would become good friends, but again, unexpected friendships are the best right? <3 EN642 can be easily marked as an amazing thing that happened to us. Our pre-exam studying sessions gave me a chance to know how great you are!!!! You care so much selflessly bro and that's what got my heart. Tere bina wo course just another shitty course reh jata xD. Puneet Kaur : After the lift vala incident in freshie year, I'd never really thought ki I'll be friends with you and eventually be living next door 😊 Turns out tu itniii bhi buri nhi hai afterall 😂😂♥ you're lively and straightforward. 2nd year ke start mein saamne se you helped me a lot given we barely talked to each other at that point. S1 aane ke baad you and Rishika always helped me with the transition. We bonded a lot over Pihu ♥♥ You're a hard-working person. Bahut effort maara hai tune insti mein. Tujhe senti sunni nhi hoti isliye nhi bolti hun because fir weird si shaqal banati hai and taana ready hota hai 😊 I know I'm going to regret saying this to you xD but I love you ♥♥ P.S. : you didn't bully me, I just let you think that you did 😊

Atharva Jaipurkar : Baheti Baheti!! Even truecaller used to warn me by flashing your name twice whenever you called 😊! Kafi jhagde hai apna labs me 😊, kitne hi baar mara hoga tune mujhe 😊 But masti bhi infi ki hai! Lab me baith ke ludo khelna, viva me kuch bhi na aate hue bhi kuch toh bolke ajana 😊, treat pe chalne ke plans(sirf plans 😊) banana! Par apne group ki sabse Jugadu memeber hai tu, dusre groups ki lab manuals, viva questions sab fatt se daal deti thi group pe! Kafi kuch machaya hai aapne SARC CTM, KD OC, and finally that sought after BCG placement♥! Always be straightforward and lively as you are :) Take care♥

Rishika Gupta : It makes me wonder sometimes, how far we have come from where we started in freshie year. But yeah, things always don't remain the way we wish them to be. I really admire the way you care for people close to you. You can fight with the world for them. You taught me how to deal with people. Remember the days in freshie year, knocking every door just to convince them to participate in GCs. 🙋♀Sleeping alternatively in Bellare's lecture so that we have atleast one set of proper notes. 😂 Fun we had in kurta days/pool party. Gossiping about the sports council later on 🙋♀ Planning pranks on people. It has been a roller coaster ride with you here and you really helped me grow as a person. I am very thankful for that. 😊

Himanshu Goyal : Mol-a-star!!! ♥♥ I will miss sending you creepy gifs in the class for no reason. I'm glad we were 'forced' to make a group together in the marketing minor (universe's sign) 😊. I loved to hear your crazy rants and weird logics (pankha chalta hai toh aankho par hawa padhti hai). Thank you for all the drama, maar, daant, and advices you gave me. ♥ It's cute how you thought that I was scared of you (you wish). 😂 I will miss our study sessions and you forcing me to study the most. 🙏 You deserve half of my degree (not kidding). 😊 I'm happy when you're around. You're just perfect. ♥ I just wanna say, Happy Mother's Day and I love you the most. ♥♥ OTs: embarrassing videos, walks, cold coffee 😊

Abhishek Singhal : Hi Baheti!!, I think we became friends by sharing assignment. But without you people chemical jhelna would have been impossible. I really appreciate your helpful nature. And thank you for teaching me day before exam(special thanks to you and goyal for Mass Transfer I, tum logo ke bina to mai pass bhi nhi hota isme) . Aur abhi to mera messenger wala nickname change karde and stay in touch!!

Jovina Vaswani : Set aside all they say about the friendship mattering more than distance and the absence making the heart grow fonder. Setting aside everything, let me just confess: This sucks! And I hate not being your neighbour anymore. Not being around the dazzling girl whom I have shared beds with during anxious nights, whom I have teased and annoyed and loved more than anyone else. You are a sister I never had, sometimes a small one who messes up, gets cranky, frivolous and goofy and sometimes a big one who supports me incessantly. I owe you for not leaving my side when I was being so unreasonable, and selfish. You are the best girl I know. I love you, and it is sad that I can not express how much.

Allen Bose : Hey Co!! It was a great tenure that we had. There were a lot of stuff I learned from you during those times. I specially admire the passion with which you see things through and get them done. Our team along with our coordies will always be special to me (had loads of fun together). I dont know how much I should thank you for bringing me that red velvet on my bday. PS: Please don't stop delivering those epic comeback lines (I used to love those fights between you and Sharma). Stay positive, you will have a great future ahead of you my friend.

Akshat Parwal : "Unexpected friendships are the best ones" - Well this came out to be true when this chapter tuned in! I really don't know why you are my best friend? But I know for sure that I will forever cherish all the masti we do together, all the things we gossip about, all the moments when only the two of us get a joke and laugh like mad people in a group, all the fights we have, all our double meaning bakwaas and you being the first one to laugh on them always!, Your great advices and not all so great decision making 😊. All of our walks, the first road trip, our upcoming Mussorie (Turkey) trip and all the lovely moments we've had together! I love you chotu ♥♥, "You the best"

Aditya Kasture : Aayushi! You were one of the first who I would meet as a senior in the Institute and I couldn't have asked for a sweeter person as a first junior that I would get. MI that year and all the events we did were so much fun that time. Even though your involvement reduced a bit in the later years in insync, you have always been there as probably the most enthusiastic and cheerful one of your batch. Talking to you over the years has helped me learn a lot too. Stay the same Baheti ! Keep in touch ♥

Karan Kothadiya : Itna kyu tang karna hota hai tujhe meko, like maine bas treats dene mai hi toh kanjoosi ki hogi kabhi :P I've kept my promise made to you at the start of this final year. Bas wo placements ke din thoda charade karna padta hai just to let everyone else feel that the process is fair. Lol. You're incredibly sweet. I am infi jealous of the sheer volume of wonderful friends that you have. Hamesha pareshaan karti rehna, maza aata hai xD Love, K

Divya Mrinal : Hieee!!! Dear ISMP Mentor♥.... You were the first senior I met when I came to instii. You have been a great inspiration since then. From taking care like an elder sister to sharing memorable moments of friendship...you have been a vital part of my freshie year at IITB. The Apsara-Subway Treat, the long walk back to insti at night, the informal meetings, the insti-tour, the meeting for a birthday surprise... those were some of the most memorable moments😄! Whenever in dilemma or confusion...you always guided me. Thanks a lot for caring and being there... You are indeed my elder sister!♥♥♥ Looking forward to meeting you soon. I owe you a birthday treat !😁

Golu . : How can any person be so candid as well as caring! I have always admired the way you manage to be childish and mature at the same time. We have millions of memories together - from gossiping to tear-shedding and ending up having Chinese food at 5Spice. I love how you share things with me and when it comes to it, transparently make me realize my mistakes. I know I can always count on you whenever I need strong emotional support. Thanks for being there with me and you know I am always here for you, as a friend, a mentor, and a partner in crime. Loads of love <3
