Mrigank Ashesh : Bhai I am grateful for the awesome food you ordered, trips you planned, and places that you took me. You will always be my partner on the dining table. It was an awesome tenure being the GSEC/SAPD duo. You really helped me ease the GSEC pressure. I guess we are thankful for COVID-19 to help us save ourselves from designing the T-shirts/Hoodies. Stay connected Bhai.

Edwin Saji Uthuppan : What captures your essence? Love for Food? Nah! Cleanliness freak? Nah! Smart? Nah! Fun? Nah! Can sit with silently for a long time without it getting awkward! Yep, That's it! Also the guy talking to himself is a sight to behold. Getting drunk with Ronnie... Man that was fun. I had almost forgotten: Fungal infection partners :)

Adane Sahil Ravindra : You are the best example of conserving energy and being passionate about what one really likes. Weird but of the interesting kind. Aaj Neel ne kya kiya? - is a discussion people around you love having. Ofc, there is a lot of affection in us when we do that, atleast in me. Listening to you monologue is always fun. Again, lots of memories with you and some are outside India. It might be stupid but I remember feeling strangely proud that night - Two dudes, from India, getting drunk on streets of Zurich, and sharing their minds. A lot of respect and admiration for you, but most importantly we have the 40 deal (mana mat karna tab). If that doesn't show the comfort we share, I don't know what does Sagar Kumar Seth : Yo Neel ! You are one of the most laidback and intelligent person I have met. You have a unique way of life. Random discussions with you are always fun. Thank you for hosting us in Switzerland and your house. Trips were fun with you. All the best for future bro !

Nirbhay Wadiwala : Love is a four letter word .. so is neel (not trying to say anything just a correlation i wanted to point out).. Do you have no social sense though... peeing in the slot next to me when the other slots were empty ... talking about existentialism in the first year when we were all still optimistic.. I mean you suck ... nah yea youre a great guy and I really dont think i can put words to what I feel .. Damm the past four years just flew given that you made em so interesting ..
