Chinmay Kalra : Even though you were in Meta, I got to know you well only during our ITSP...which we could complete only because of you and Bal (honestly). Sophie year onwards you became the 'Mercedes wala rich nibba' of the Bhh gang. Will never be able to forget those innumerable trips to Gullu and the 'legendary' shots you play in lawn tennis. BTW, I hope ki tera future mein bandiyon se itna zyada na kate, even though it is highly unlikely.

Pushan Bal : The first time I saw your name on the tutorial sheet, I thought you were a girl. We never interacted much in our first year but that one month of ITSP was enough, wasn't it? You have heard so many of my rants, I have forgot to keep count. The designated memer of bhh, although honestly speaking, you suck. What I love about you is that no matter how much we tease you, you make memes anyway. I really admire that quality. You are one of the smartest people that I know and I am sure that you will do well in whatever you turn your mind to. Forever my veg sharing partner in gullu, here's to life ahead. Cheers!

Amit Gangurde : I'm still amazed by how you were able to recognize me on the very first day in the convocation hall. Mess mein itna fast kaise kha leta hai bhai? Tera itne baar katne ke baad bhi tu fight maarte raha . Respect bhai. Tere photo editing skills kuch jyada hi next level hai. Sarcasm intended 😊 . 2nd year intern ke liye itna help kiya uske liye thanks bhai. And also thanks for giving all the inside information related to placements 🤔. We deserve some extra respect from everyone for staying with Behere. And sorry for bullying you in 3rd and 4th std 🤡

Shubham Behere : Mannat boii,I am really thankful for having you as a first year roommate.I barely knew things and you were really helpful.Tere sath zhagdne mai maza ata hai bhai .Tu bohot intelligent hai but kuch jyada hi gandu jokes marta hai.I hope you will work on that, then may be kam katega tera. It was really fun and memorable doing so many things together.Don't forget to stay in touch when you get to your beloved amrika. Thank you for everything!!

Divyadarshee Das : Mannnnnaaaat bro, you are the only person who has demoted himself. From an awesome movie maker/editor to posting humourless (more like tragic) instagram stories. On a serious note you are a very dedicated person may it be Mars rover or swimming or even studies. Your small fights with Behere were a treat to watch. Your enthu to watch something with high IMDb rating was never ending. Your help in acads, internship/placements and being a fellow pj maker will be cherished. Do teach us swimming one day bro.

Aayush Anurag : Apne swag (Insta posts😄) se na sirf insti mein, NY tak aag laga di hai bhai tune. NY ghoomne ke advices ke liye thanks. Teri baatein ,views & advices regarding career and in general life, sensible and practical lagti hai hamesha. I'll cherish those walks from lecture halls to H4. 1917 was <3. Apan dono ke career ka trajectory hi badal gya😁(alag POV se aacha hi rha coz of Corona). Milte rahenge and all the best.
