Harshita Khurana : Yo Alok!! Thank you for being a part of my BS family at IITB. Will miss our walk from LHC to Hostel 11 and un 10-15 minutes mei duniya bhar ki gossip karlena. You were always so supportive, whether it was my own internship or helping my juniors out with your apping fundae. Always, be the way you are. Have a happy life ahead, stay in touch

Mohanish Verma : Bhai bhai bhai I'll miss our trip. It seem so untrue that we became friend over social site and within a month I had a bonding like brother. Maybe the reason is we were bored and just to want to explore the city. Omg, those nights in convertible car, madame, zoo, 3 sister mountain and you know that club 😂. Also I remember every details of making cholle rajma and those overpriced rice everything was perfect. Truly speaking, meeting you in an unknown country was the best thing happened throughout my internship. I wish we can meet again in some other country. Who knows what can happen 😊 stay in touch.

Abhishek Singhal : Hey Alok!!!, I enjoy arguments more than talks with you. You are one of the most dedicated person I met in Insti. I appreciate the hardwork and dedication you had for your work( skipping treats for work). Apna Goa trip was really fun!!!... Australia jakar machana, aur bada aadmi ban jaye to bhul mat jaana. Also, thanks for your help in Placements!!

Abhirup Majumdar : Alok boi. Ek cheez yaad rakhna..life me jahan pe bhi rahe tu, jo kuch bhi ban jaye, always remember that you're a council member first. Best Prank Ever. Kyun ja raha hai Australia?? Tu dil se jo chahta hai, sab iss desh pe hi hai. Aankhen kholke dekho Alok. Chea pe khade hoke kaun sunayega tere weird puns? Cricket me average pace bowling karte karte computational gawd ban gaya tu aj.

Naman Jain : or 2 bachhe ke papa jese dikhne waale aadmi...Tere ko pata hoga i don't like you much in first year..or tu mere ko jesa rommie chaiye tha vesa bilkul nahi tha...but then you changed completely from sleeping whole day and night to working day and night in lab..tu hamesh raat ko meri baate kitne dhyaan se sunta tha 😊..tu koi bhi cheez ye soch ke nahi karta ki log kya sochenge 🙏..I know your hard work will pay..fir bhulna mat apne irritating, overly enthusiastic roomie ko

Valay Agarawal : Teri wajah se maine experimental chemistry chhod di. Hope its worth it.

Ronnie Mondal : Dog filter use karta tha, mujhe laga vafadar hoga. Anyways, have fun in Australia, and Duty Free se sutta leke aana please.

Ankit Neema : You can be a perfect epitome of most annoying, hard-working and rarely a go-to person :P. Didn't used to have frequent meet-ups earlier due to your timezone issues but it's good to know the friendly side of your's lately. I won't suggest you to stay the same but it was great to have you as a wingmate

Ramavath Rajkumar : Hey! Alok Do you remember the random talks with baba and the plan of chacha nagar?also the debate over FOB at the main gate? GRE prep in lab? Two elec projects? Walk towards Hostel after the class? You and usama correcting my mistakes after *that interview? And wing cricket? Alot to remind. Will miss your company Alok.

Bhavya Garg : "thanks a lok" will remain my favorite pun. This is the only time I am going to say it so listen carefully, your puns are good 😊 I will keep saying "that was lame" but it just means mast tha ek aur please 🤪 Pun games were pun with you. As 'forever council member' you have done enough thankless jobs yourself and thank you for that! You were truly just one call away always. You maintain a great balance of sincerity and lukkhagiri in life! Only legends possess the keys to their professor's lab while being among the juniormost labmates and practically live there like a boss. Wishing this ko(a)la all the best for future in and out of Australia 😊

Khidir Usama Abdul Karim : Stubborn, irksome & gandhu. U are d 1 guy the wing can't get rid of, from "mistakenly" being left out on treats 2 being left out of T wing 2 being repeatedly kicked out of 2 wing grp. U are also d 1 guy wing can't get enough of, from helping us through our placements 2 helping me get through that shit of an EE course 2 blurting out hard hitting truths. No 1 was surprised when we learned the truth about u through ur "adventures" in Sydney. Ur work ethic and dedication deserve a special mention as does ur sense of humor (2nd best). It is easy to get lost in this herd but you are 1 of those gems(?) who pushes really hard (no pun) for heart's desire. Thanks for ur help all these fucked up years.

Ayush Ankit Singh : It was nice to have someone present everytime for every occasion 😊. You were always the first person whenever we start some plan. And your constant enthusiasm for outings 🤪. You and singhal are friendship goals. But honestly tera humor bhai kafi god hai. Vo night discussions hamesha yaad rahege mujhe (Yaad hai matador van). Specially freshie year main jo wing main bakchodiya ki hai uska competition hi nai hai. Loved the way you prioritize stuff and how focused you are toward your goals. I know you will miss me(poke). And i know singhal would never let me forget you 🤪. Special mention to that freshie year GPL. Do your best in Australia bro.
