Drish Mahnot : CHOTTA DICK RAJU! I refuse to accept any other nickname for you. A literal god amongst boys, your capability and intelligence is 100% unmatched in insti. Never forget that me and Chaubal were your naukars in freshie year, so investment mature hone ka time is here. FIFA was always fun, sadly never got to use the new lappy. Oh and thanks for the laptop during placement sem, you've no idea how much it helped. Aamcha Bobi has some of the happiest memories and is probably what I consider my core freshie year group. I am so happy ki we will spend a lot more time together, couldn't have asked for more!

Gurparkash Singh : Rajat, my callipygian fren! Insti me sabse zyada time tere sath hi spend kiya hai. We've bonded so well right from the start. Mere har project ka default teammate. Apni team best h bro. Working alongside you has been a privilege and I've learned so much from you. No problem seemed too big. Tu itna smart and brainy h; thanks for passing a bit of that to me. We've done so much together. Infi projects, ITSP, placements prep, GRE prep, MS apping, infi TP. Fuck, you've been with me in every important thing that I've done. You've also been a very good ear to all my problems as I'm able to share everything with you. I'll miss all the nightouts together. Hope our paths cross down the road. <3

Rishabh Raj : Oof! Dunno where to start. I remember asking you something about a fractal in our 1st year. And your reply was so cold that I started to fear you a bit. Fast forward 3 years and I guess you turn out to be an amazing person! Always indulged in texting (I wonder, who :P) when I pushed open your jammed door! Twas fun running around the athletics track, hitting the gym, playing football..(I still remember your words when I assisted you in that game:  kya paas diya be😂). Thank you for your motivation and please thodi kam liya karo, meri 🥺. You guys know I can't figure out when you are pulling my leg and when you're being serious. Shouldn't take advantage of this :P. Acha, take care. Milte hai

Kumar Saurav : Such words to your freshie self - can't help but wonder what you were thinking of when you wrote it. Potassium. I was fortunate to have you in those theory courses - such a saviour with your brains and knack for exams! Too bad we still got demolished in that legendary graph theory course. Those FIFA days reek of bad investment with that too-late controller purchase, but looks like fragrance is reserved only for some 😊.

Sahil Saiyad : I never imagined that itna rr karne waala insaan itna wholesome ho sakta he. The shade of humour that exists in our wing is darker than your skin tone. Very unhealthy amount. How easily we all bonded on our common love for csgo, anime, fifa and football. Especially csgo. All those adrenaline pumped night outs were heavenly. Only person who gives proper comms in game and keeps the team together. You are glalve of our team. I hope our dream of watching astralis play at major comes true. All those grand blue episodes wouldn't have been half as fun without you and bro. I hope we twitch stream together after retiring. Reach new heights in Amsterdam unlike you chickened out in goa. ggwp cyka blyat

Vihang Wagh : Ae Rathi!! <3. Kids here think of you as some god. They haven't met the alien artificial intelligence that was 11 year old Rajat. Fav person to play football with (both Nashik and Insti). Thoda aur hangout karna chahiye tha saathme. Woh ab amsterdam me kareng. Keep in touch <3

Kumar Saunack : Saurav here. Remember that I was the more willing of the two of us to play CS. Although commuting from 6 to 2 was too much, especially when you go back after 3 am in the night. You guys started playing better than me after some time, anyway, so I took the exit at the right time, with my reputation intact :p

Amey Patil : Rathi! I have absolute respect for your enthusiasm and competitive compulsion to be the best at literally everything! I'll always remember you trying to get me involved in Competitive Coding, well I somehow got through placements. You are one of the most efficiently working, micromanaging, a chatty, lovable person I have met. Don't be this weird with your "bandi" in Amsterdam btw! I believe that College life is not only about academics, accomplishments and good or bad memories, it's about how we get our personality and ideologies from those experiences which we are going to nurture for the rest of our lives! And I'll always be glad that our paths crossed in the most amazing time of my life!

Atharv Nandapurkar : Yo Roomie #GOD. Bhai, sachme 3 saal saath mei the phir bhi kuch bhi jhagde nhi kie, humesha ek-dusre ko support kia. Tere itne saare weird photos hai bc ki ab google photos mein memories banke aate hai, lol. Tere itna sorted banda nhi dekha; aise hi khudpe bharosa rakha kr, tujhe pata hota hai tujhe kya nhi chahie n kya chahie. Bass roya kam kr :p Ab finally tune yeh bhi prove kr dia ki tujhe 2d ladkiyon ke alawa aur bhi chize pasand hai. Ab jo itna bada ho jaega tu toh humein bhoolna mat & good luck for your future. Thoda outdoor games bhi khelte rehna, humesha ki tarah life balanced rakhna, n of course mujhe help krte rehna. Aana kabhi ghar (mein toh aaunga hi Nashik!)

Sarvind Rankawat : Yo rathi! The extraordinary all-rounder, tu defense and attack dono machata hai, and ussey bhee awesome heading karta hai. Thoda aur khelne aajaata BC, anyways apney 2nd year intra ke days were like invincibles. I will miss playing with you bro, Hopefully I will see you soon and ek aur baar khelna hai tere saathh. Till then bye!

Abhro Bhuniya : Whats this xd, we talk everyday and will continue to do so. I will really miss you as my neighbour, and walkmate. You are so fast, so sure, so intelligent, just a hero (like your mom says). You are the most complete sportsperson I have played with, the most complete student I had the fortune to study with. Maybe I will never ever share such a connection with someone else as with you. I thank you everyday for waking me up before i missed my quizzes, for your food, and most importantly for your belief in me, and your mental support. We have done so much together, learnt so much together, 700 characters are not enough, heck no number is. We will never separate, because best friends never do.

Sanchit Jain : THE MOST intellectual guy I met in insti. Competitive coding machata tha(the best coder hands down), sab exams me last night, minimum prep ke saath maximum marks laata tha.Very helpful,honest and straightfoward person. The best thing which I admired about you was that you knew your capabilities and was confident about it. Cracking the highest paying job ("OPTIVER") on day1 of placements. A proud Malwadi, but ab no kanjoosi I hope. Exam se pehle koi bhee doubt ho yahi banda solve karta tha. You already are very successful and with the gem you are I am sure you are going to raise the bar for whole of humanity, and this is also an understatement. I respect you. All the best for future.

Ishan Tarunesh : Yo Rajat ! I admire how you do so many things so well - padhai, competitive coding, football, CSGO etc. It was fun playing football and badminton with you - though i'm sad the dept football couldn't happen. Maine note kar ke rakhe hain tumhare relationship advices 😊. Kabhi kabhi ore bhi trade kar liya karo aur itna hard to get bhi mat play kiya karo lol. Best wishes for the future
