Himanshu Bishwash : Hey, Shikha. My shopping partner! Thanks a lot for giving me company to those random, short notice shopping sprees. I remember that trip of ours to Sameer Hills, something that you had always wanted. That trip is one of my cherished memories from IIT and thanks for making that happen. And don't worry, I will lose weight soon :P Also, the sweets that you brought from home were awesome. Thank you for being a good friend. Keep smiling and stay happy :)

Nisha Satish : Hey Shikha, my first roomie! It was great to know you. I guess you are the first person I spoke to during orientation. Thank you for being a part of this wonderful journey. All the best for your future endeavors and take care!
