Harsh Vazirani : I like being both annoyed and confused by your indecisiveness when it comes to picking things to do or selecting places to eat or food to order. But then I love your reactions when something finally has enough importance for you to care about. You're a very cool friend to have. I have enjoyed all of our outings :)

Aman Sharma : We all know your disdain for senti, so none of that. You're just such a great friend to have and an absolute gem of a person to look up to. Hope to see some emotion out of you soon!

Mayanka Medhe : Hey Chanchal, You were the best roommate one could ask for. Thanks for always understanding me. All the best for your future and stay in touch!

Bohra Ankit Narendra : Chanchal, perfect person for PM i suppose. You were always there to answer my queries. Thanks for that. IC Tenure bhi kaafi acha tha saath mein. You're someone who probably hates nonsense. Itna machane ke baad bhi tu kaafi down to earth and that's admirable. All the Best for future! Stay in touch!

Aniket Prajapati : I would like to write about the pre-PM Chanchal. You were really helpful, always there for the team. Mahabaleshwar trip was the best IC trip for me, best part being the walk in the market. Thanks for being my gullu partner 💙

Harshita Khurana : Hi Chanchal♥️.You are one of the sweetest and grounded persons I have ever met. Dedicated and hardworking,and not to forget,a go to person for any kind of help. Didn't get to interact much with you,but I love your simplicity.Will always remember how you cheered me up during the placements. Glad to have met you. I wish you all the success and happiness in your life♥️♥️

Prachee Prabhutendolkar : Chanchal, never are we getting super drunk again. We became friends when we had to debate against each other, the first interaction we had. Most honest, helping and sweet human, I hope you become a little tough and keep achieving lot more :) We may be opposite, but we still grew a bonding and caring for each other during the tenure. Thanks for taking care of me :)
