Saman Siddiqui : Bharatha, Lab mei abhi tak jo bhi grade ayi hai na, woh sab tere wajah se hai :P Aur jo tum silently mera mazak udate the na, woh toh mai kabhi nahi bhulu gi :P Omkar, thoda Bharatha se seekh! Jokes apart, you're one of the most brilliant people I've met. From art to chemical to holding us bandar in line in the lab, you managed it all :P Mujhe apna saara art bhejte rehna, and jaldi se meri portait banao, mai abhi bhi 'kataar mei hu' :P Sorry for taking you to KFC to eat the veg burger, but I blame Omkar Loads of love, stay connected!! <3

Rushabh Vora : Bharatha sir! The artist of the wing♥. Teri drawings dekhke I am always amazed even though I know how talented you are! Tere notes ke bina to S1 survive nhi ho pata bhai. Madhu ke course se apan saath me padna start kiye the and uske baad tune kaafi baar kataya bhi hai😓😓. Har exam ke pehle u were the one in wing jo mere doubts solve karta tha and mere stupid questions jhelta tha, Respect! Plz gussa karna thoda kam karde and tune ab tak mujhe sketching nhi sikhai after asking multiple times bhi so I guess katana to tu kam nhi karega😓😓. Anyway always be happy and stay in touch ♥

Yash Kothari : Yo boi. Har cheez me to machaata hi hai tu but sketches banaane me to tu next level hai. 1st year me to epic maze kiye Mini Militia aur Bombsquad khel ke, specially exams se pehle. And remember that battle of all the games on 'Hago' app with a points table and how seriously we played it for 15-16 hours. And it turned out to be a very close one(I won by 1 point :p). Our interest in these small mobile games is just unmatched. Tu mujhe aur Sultania ko interview dene nahi aaya nahi to we'd have had many secrets of each other for sure XD. Tere se haath milaane me to humeshaa darr lagta hai :p. Baaki tu bohot hi shaant nature kaa banda hai and kaafi machaau bhi. Stay the same and stay in touch

Rohit Kumar Gupta : Hello Bharatha - sorry ED GOD. Pure first year mein aap famous the ED GOD ke naam se. Aur bhai yaar... agar tere notes nahi hote toh mera kya hota?! Seriously... tune alag level par help ki hain jo main kabhi nahi bhulunga. Waise toh bahut sidha-sadha down to earth banda hain tu but tune jo ek baar daanta tha na mujhe uske baad to bhai bhai, darr hi lagta hain (kyun mayank). Apni design project ke time ki masti aur phir aapsa mein milke hum log jo ek dusre ki lete the aur ek baar jab main cycle se gir gaya tha aur tum log mujhe dekhne ke bahane jaldi bhag aaye the... bhai kya din the wo bhi... touch mein rahenge yaar aur haan, agli baar jab milenge tab aise dantna mat mere jokes par 😂😂😂

Atharva Jaipurkar : Bhartha bro! Humari batch ke Picasso! Kya arts banata hai bhai tu 🙌 Bhai, tere notes se hi adhi S1 pass hui hai, tune kaafi padhaya bhi hai mujhe and doubts bhi solve kare hai har baar! Yeh sab ke liye dil se thanks♥ Tu bahot down to earth and humble banda hai! Humesha cool rehta hai, never have I seen you getting edgy! Aise hi rehna, and keep up the hard work, you will surely do great♥ Take Care 😊 and keep making beautiful sketches 🙌

Binayak Sahu : Hey Bharatha, design god, first year mai sabko ED mai pass karwaya, late night tak tere room pai sikhata tha, aniket ko 3 saal jhelne wala, mayank aur hum dono ka ghumne ka group, aur bhi trips Baaki the waise 😂, milke Mayank ka aur fun karte hain phir kabhi CoW ka memories rahega, specially uss Veg hotel ka khana 😊, writing this post Taki tu yaad rakhe hame

Kireeti Akkunuri : Hey Barry! Writing here certainly won't do justice to our friendship so I'm not trying too much. It was so fun navigating these 4 years with you, certainly one of my most unique and talented friends. I consider it an achievement that you opened up to me. With you, I had so many moments where I could relate to someone in ways I never did with others before, especially because of our interest in art. I'm going to heavily miss going to classes and to eat with you, randomly hanging out and sleeping in each others' rooms, and hoping to discuss exam stuff with you before your room attracted too many people. Our trip to South Bombay was a massive success and a final year highlight for me.

Aniket Bhatia : Dunno where to start. The first day I met you, you were this shy guy & when I compare it to today, I realize that we've come soo far. I remember how you'd teach almost everyone how to do ED stuff, & how I'd feel privileged cause I'd get personal classes ;), how you'd wake me up for classes, how we'd watch movies, discuss it & sleep after having breakfast, it's all so fresh! Ik I'm such a bad clumsy roomie, who'd keep the light on for god knows how long, but you always put up with me <3 It's because of you I can stand my ground (for at least a while) against lizards, especially when they're on the bed ;). Thanks for being the best roomie I could've ever hoped for!! Ik we'll stay in touch :)
