Radhika Tibrewala : Hello new friend! 5 years into insti and i can't believe i got to know you only in the 4th year that too cz of stupid reasons xD. But time doesn't define any relationship, and its soo true in our case. Since we've known each other, we've been there through thick and thin, through all my rough phases, through all your placement shit, through all the forced sunny nights, through all of it! Bahut hi chutiyaap karta hai, bahut hi zyada irritate bhi, always into things i hate, still I adore you. I simply do. What i love the most is, we both come to each other with our issues with a 'bro'. Like doughnuts won't lose their taste and charm, I promise our friendship won't too. Love, alwaysss
