Don't leave everything for last semester. There may be a pandemic waiting to ruin your plans!!

Yearbook
2020

Rahul chunduru : My Insti life would be so much dull without you. Our late-night chats n walks, movie screenings, Techfest fiascos, baddy matches and other 'adventures' we did were all too memorable. But it's not over yet. A lot of hurdles to overcome still and more fun yet to come. Mr. entrepreneur in the making, all the best in the future!

Gurparkash Singh : Yo Mayank! Apne political debates kaafi heated ho jaate the at times but I really enjoyed them. Even though apne political opinions differ krte the we still remained awesome friends. CS Dept trip pe kaafi mza aya tha! And yes, I would always remove my earphones when we met on the road because teri baatein infi more interesting thi than all the songs combined. :D

Aryan Aryan : You Mayank!! Bhai same here! Tere saath mess me bada mazza aata tha. Infact, pta nhi kaise, but tu hamesha mess me mil jaata tha😂😂. Ig wo mess wala scene hum dono ek doosre ko poore life yaad dilate rhenge😂😂! Keep in touch ameer aadmi!! (Cohesity ka IPO hone k baad bhool na jaana hame😁)

Neelesh Verma : Yo Roomie !! Remember we went to our facad just before the first sem started. The only beautiful thing for me he told was that your roomie would be one of your closest friends by the end of 4 years. I guess that just gradually happened without us even recognizing that. We used to had hour-long discussions on random topics (from politics to games, movies, acads, etc), all those moments are memorable. So happy for your placement in Cohesity. #2 saal me crorepati.

Anirudh Arputham : Hey Mayank! You were one of my closest friends in the department and you always helped as much as you could when I asked for it - you definitely made my insti life and a lot more smooth. Thanks a lot for being my friend and sharing whatever you felt with me. Keep in touch please ^_^
