Harshita Khurana : Hey Roomie!! Thank you for being awesome, first as a Co-IC, a fellow ISCP member and then as an understanding roommate. I am glad that I got to meet you in the very initial days at IITB, IC interviews, team dinners, handing overs were so much fun with you being around♥. I love your "Never give up" spirit. During these two years, I have seen you growing as a person and making consistent efforts for your dreams. Keep doing that. And of course, needless to say pretty toh tu bahut hai!! I wish you all the happiness and luck in your life.♥♥

Amrit Pritam Nayak : The first thing that comes to my mind is the way you describe whenever a company gives any pain. But still you managed everything so perfectly. You were the persuader of our group. The handover treats will be remembered forever for crazy dance and super awesome time we all spent. You have a vibrant smile. Have a rocking future and stay connected.😊

Mayuri Bakshi : Yo Laveena, you know what, at the first sight, you look like a dumb, annoying and clingy girl. But later on, I came to know ki you only act dumb because you're smart enough to avoid the negativity around, annoying because you care for your near and dear ones a lot and clingy because you don't want to leave your friends alone when they're low. You're a complete sweetheart and more like a little sister to me. And you know what, I love it when you bother me with your "mayu" followed by gossips and daily basis bitching. Love you cutie♥ Mayu 🌻

Veenus - : Jitni shareef shakal se dikhti h utni h nhi.. You are a very lively person. I remember how worried you were from starting of the placement session upto end but finally all your hard work paid off! Wish you all the best.
