Anurag Dwivedi : Hey Anagha.....the keralite...we were the mentees of the same mentor, that's how I met you at the first time. I asked Amit to call you for our freshers. How I bother you unpurposely in lab just to have conversation with you. Generally we met on the way to classes when we both were late for the class..xD..Best wishes for your future endeavours.

Chainika Chauhan : Hey girl!! My new lab partner!! You're too sweet, intelligent.....on the other hand, you are very shy....I still remembered the incident you told that why do you not celebrate your birthday with friends:p.....You know what is the best thing, you are too calm, relaxed and still manages everything very nicely..Stay the same that is your one of the positive point. Well you are going abroad.....so all the very best. Hope we will remain in touch.:-*

Harishankkar GK : the first time I talked to you, u were perplexed..the second time I came to talk, u burst into tears :|(feel the beat of my heart) yes..u needed your time to get back on track..and now, I can say that you were the person I felt at great ease while talking..you were the ground zero whom I could express myself in malayalam(which I guess sometimes had gone overbound :D)..anikunju illathirunnenkilooo(what if anikunju was not there?)..bore adichu chathene(I would've died of boredom)..anikinju ond(anikunju exists)..anikunju pavanu :P I enjoyed our movie times and shopping really well..I like ur critical mind..anikujinu missanillarikm..ennalm I miss you..padich valiya alakanam keto..all the best
