Sananda Ray : Hi saheli. You are most laziest person amongst all of my friends. But you are the cutest too. In IIT you were the one of the friends (there were very few) whom I can trust completely and can share anything about. You are one of my best buddies. You are very generous and talented girl. I will miss you and our food dates, d mart dates, shopping dates. No matter what happens I got your back and I will be always there for you whenever you need me. Hope we meet soon because my zomato gold is getting expired and ultimate barbecue is waiting for us. Love you loads 😊😊😊😊

Writasree Maitra : The mobile teddy bear! You've an amazing sense of humor. Your witty reply to every awkward question is something I'll always remember. You're intelligent and sweet- killing combination. Stay passionate. Stay funny. Hope you do fantastic research and accomplish everything you desire.

Mouli Hazra : Hey miss Non Relativistic Saheli..u were the constant in dinning table, since u were the last person to finish the food..u r my crush...I loved ur face when u have to go for 8.30 class....u r literally the atom bomb..no one can imagine who u r behind ur cool calm cute face..and that makes u special..be like this always...stay happy darling..♥♥♥♥♥

Avari Roy : Yo Saheli! Gym wala Saheli, Green tea wala Saheli, non- relativistic Saheli and so much more! You were nearly the perfect person to me. You were such a cool, calm and cute person, yet so studious and genius!. I really needed time to discover the person beneath that 'always happy' face! How do you keep so calm amidst all the situations? Whatever it is, hold it, don't ever let it go. I remember me being surprised by the way you talked about mathematics! As if,, it was too easy!. You be like, "Hain ogulo to hoye jaay", for algebra, and I be like "Seriously!!!" :0 Hey, keep in touch, I mean it. And be very very successful in life. Finally, DO NOT COMPROMISE YOUR PROMISING LIFE FOR ANYTHING! <3 u
