Anurag Dwivedi : Hey Chainika, you have an awesome personality but mysterious one. Because sometimes you behave like the mature lady and other times, you do all the shitty things which I think we both have common and which makes our friendship stronger. One thing I can say with certainty, that you are a very caring person who thinks a lot about others. You are my lockdown partner !! We have shared a lot of memories together and will always cherish that , and I don't think so , I have enough words to describe our friendship and you.

Siddhi Garg : Hey motiii...Kbhii sochaa nhii tha kii IIT se bhi itne acche dost bnaa krr jaaungi...Teri toh mnn kii baat mujhe Teri shakal se hi ptaa lgg jaati hai 😂😂Bahar se itnii crazyy aur andar se itni soft hai Tu chorii...Merii shakal Dekh krr mere mood Ka ptaa lgaana aur fir jbb tkk mood theek naa ho mere piche pdhe rehnaa..Hmaari chotii chotii c cold wars😂😂Raat mein ghumnaa...Tere room mein baithke gppe maarna..Meri lab partner bhut dimaag khaati thi re Tu meraa prr still I luv u a lot😂😂U r really special for me motii♥♥Hmesha Khush reh aur aise hi harkatein krtii rhiio...U make my journey in IITB worth remembering..Thnku motii♥

Aosheen Anand : Hey beautiful! You were an endless source of entertainment for me. I can still recall your melodramatic tantrums. 🤪 You're an amazing soul aur Sundarr toh aap hain hi 😊. Take things in a little lighter way and dont ever let your tears well up for insignificant things. I miss our midnight maggie😭. These two years have been amazing with you. ♥ We both share madness of same intensity. 🤪😂 But you are more scary 🤪😂😂 P.S:- I hope you understand what I mean. 😎 Take a chill pill and go ahead with your dreams hand in hand. Stay same Maate! ♥♥

Mouli Hazra : Hey miss beautiful.. not only u r hot🔥u have an awesome childish heart..let me reveal a secret..u know..I can read ur mind..I can relate myself very well with ur mentalities...I love this but I don't want u to be like that always..it will be easier to hurt u then...I know u will be happy in life and make others happy..May God bless u..stay connected..

Amrit Prittam Nayak : You must have read in news the nuisance created by the cattle crowd in Insti. But you will be the only "Gaii" I became friends with.😄 It was always fun to see how you always failed to keep up with the anger. And your inside jokes with sonia will always be a mystery. The innocence with which you crack double meaning jokes will be missed. Stay in touch. Brighten up gaiiii and embrace the endless opportunities held for you. 😊

Neeraj Kumar : Thick as Thieves! You're beautifully humble, incredibly-hardworking, and full of potential. I have always found you my side in managing all kinds of affairs. You never said no to me..... kese manage kar leti hai, Bijnor kee rani? I will forever cherish the moments we had together. All the best for future endeavors, and I'm surely gonna miss you. Stay in touch.

Sonia Rani : Yo motii... you were always the first person I shared my things with. But I like that how you are possessive about some people ki you don't even want them to talk to others. But sometimes it gets too much to handle xD. I will always remember how I used to come to you when I was struggling with my hair before any function. The night camp in Kalsubai ...haha. That night walk of four of us will always be a memory. You aking others to take your pictures with selfie camera. It looks a very long journey of memories. That NSP while going out. Silly fights on almost everything. Ek dusre ki pol kholna in front of people jbki it was our loss only. This journey was happier because of friends like you.

Jaydeep Lohia : But what if I was wrong all along? What if I could never understand her truly? that how it always ended up with not normal faces and not so normal emotions, realisations always pounding back with the story with the world of ours, ever estranged? But the blue hour arrived. For this breeze to stay forever is what I long. The connection we established will never ever cease to exist. The support you have always given regardless of situations, how will I ever forget you! Don't misunderstand my silence, please, for even in silence, sometimes we go for those short walks, holding hands or not, but a part of us will always be together. "she's got you high and you don't even know that"

Harishankkar GK : I am sure you won't be remembering this but I could never forget..in fact it haunted me for a long time in my first year..well I got the answer months after that..the question that you got, in our freshers, "what is your stupid habit" and you directed it to me, to my utter disadvantage..I never thought I had any...but thanks for that question to me, now I check for each of my stupidities and cherish them :D ..and the answer to that question is.."once I start watching a movie, no matter how crappy it is, I cannot stop watching without finishing it".. I see you as an affable person who love to dance..thanks for all those smiles..all the best for your future

Srestha Banik : Hello lovely wench!.. I have a good experience as your neighbour... You and your room mate conversation seemed to me a soap opera which gave a refreshment in the hustle of insti... 🥰😂.. Though I like your style statement.. The thing I love most is your zestful spirit 😊.. Stay always be like.. Be happy.

Writasree Maitra : You're really cute! You jump, hop, dance, scream, laugh-you enjoy every moment very happily. Stay like this forever. Doing group theory assignments with you before the day of submission is something I'll always cherish as one of the funniest memories of IITB. Hope you get all your dreams fulfilled and have a beautiful and successful life ahead.

Avari Roy : Hey Chainika! I am very sorry for my arrogance sometimes.. if I had made you nervous by my impression, you know I was nervous at the orientation day too... but I didn't know that time had already gifted me with such a nice class and classmates...To be honest, I couldn't read you firstly, but slowly I discovered how beautiful your heart is!.. You are one of the coolest girl I have ever seen!.. I remember even in those midsem/endsem days you used to enjoy so much. I used to think how do you do it!. Now I know. Life isn't about studies. You are one of those people who had contributions behind this philosophy. I wish we had another year together.. time flies so fast isn't it!. Be very very happy

Nehal Sadmake : Hey weirdo! Yes I too was not aware of you for a year. During the 2 months of stay for summer project, I didn't even think we would become such good friends. But good things happen unexpectedly, so did our friendship. You act childish but I know there is lot of maturity in you. I am not open to many people but talking to you I always feel real. You are caring,innocent,helpful,cute(finally muze bolna hi pda (._.) ),panda. You have got good sense of humor. You are too emotional but just a suggestion being this much emotional is not good for health.I hope you get everything you want in your life.Be happy and stay connected.

Rohit Kumar : Hi chotu-motu, Mrs. chainika, We had many beautiful memories from some solo conversation to trips. I always enjoyed this journey. However, in the last sem ur mood was not kinda good to me cause of my lame joke "teri mummy ka number de" (if u remember). Yar I was just kidding but somehow u took that seriously. Uske bad I think hmne kabhi ache se bat bhi nhi ki. I'm sry for that. But these are the things we will always miss. I know u are very kind and pure heart. One more thing I would say, many times u are very tense for small-2 things, yar life curve is sinusoidal after bad, gd time will definitely come, so just enjoy the present, things will automatically fall in line. Keep smiling always..

Marnya Lomi : Hey Chainika! Jia sarai ehh!! Yes, I remember you, your hard work , dedication you had. In a way that tiny bit inspired and motivated me along with other such elements over that phase. We came at IIT Bombay. Boom! Honestly, I didn't realize we were at coaching 😊 . You have been really comfortable to approach even for some silly doubts or tutorials. Such tiny bits contributed to a whole lot of memories ,I will cherish forever. And , don't change the way you are . You are one of a kind. Cheers to the future.

Rahul Verma : Miss chainika, a loving personality. Jitni seedhi dikhti hai uthi hai nhi...the first time we had a short time conversation on 1st day of college near hostel 08. On that day i get to know your kind hearted and 0 attitude nature. Coffee or maggi ki party wale din bahut maze aye...phir cards ka khelna or bhi bahut si baatein. Sirf ek tumhi ho jisnein meri shayriyon ke shadon ko nhi, bhawnaon ko samjha hai, bahot kam hote hai aise log jog aapko pehchaan sake. Always be the person, like the one who you are today. Always be in touch with me. Thanks for being the part of this journey. All the best for your future.

But clearly you are very pure by heart and yes overthinker too😄. I liked your and your rommie's company. We three had enjoyed alot and yes I should appreciate room no. 189 in which we had done our tea parties, maggi parties, vo farewell preparation teri( jo rh gyi😂), exam preparation. Those days were so fun, H5 mid night meals, last holi with you people😄..... U was the only person other than my department people with whom I was having great bonding. Thank you..
