I have cherished our friendship and I am always going to be in contact with you no matter what :P. All the best for your future mate :D.

Sharan K Pujari : Surp went south. Although, I found a new circle. As much as I hate to admit, you really have heights of patience; I have secretly admired you for that. Wish you best of luck and don't get used to Delhi, I still hope to meet you again. Lets go to that trip we almost planned and have that drink that you never promised.
