Apurv Tiwari : First day of insti, we all were sitting in an MB classroom (they don't even exist anymore :( ) and the thumbprint reg for icard was going on, and I said that Eklavya hota to bechare ka kya ganda katta, and only one person in the room laughed. From sharing the same propensity for dad jokes to old songs to stargazing to random lukkha to dominos ka pizzamania, it was fun hanging out with you! :D And thanks for teaching me those 5 dance steps in prom, now I know a total of 6, Garima wala ghoomar add karke :P Logon ko maarna to kam karna mushkil hai, though I will try. Stay in touch! - afraid of the tiger :P

Tanya Gupta : Divyaaa! Major regret not making the effort to know you or bond with you in the first year when we were neighbors. ☹️ But life comes full circle and I for sure know our final year has been a blast! I will always remember going to the H10 terrace with you, admiring the view and sharing stories. Be it eating at KFC, in the mess or your home food, you making me green tea, telling me about pottery, and me avoiding a certain friend of yours :P, I agree I feel like I have known you since forever. I have a good idea to help you with a banda :P Go to some guy's yearbook and write "I don't know you but I've read only good things about you and want to get to know you." Even if you're not reading it who cares, people aren't writing the bad things anyways lol xD Tell me how this experiment goes 😂 Thanks for letting me take the choker and I'm really sad prom didn't happen ☹️ Stay untamed, wild and carefree! (Remember our discussion on what it means to be untamed?) I'm going to miss randomly meeting you in the mess and all our discussions in my room or yours!

Himani Gangurde : I think we met during Mood Indigo prep, where you were in charge of decorating OAT. It was really fun working under you, and I've always seen you as that fun senior ever since! Aapke saath catan khelne me bhi bohot maja aaya 😊 You're always cheerful irrespective of situation, and that pretty smile of yours always brightens up the mood 😊 Wish you all the best for all the future endeavors, and always be the quirky person that you are 😊

To me you are this determined, hard-working person who is super fun to be around, and loves art and people. Also tumhare room ka chand, and the tiger. Hope you achieve what you set your mind to, all the best for a super super succesful career. Lotss of love <3

Harshita Verma : Hi Divya!!!! I guess my whole wing n u would agree that all of us interacted with you d most either near d water cooler or in d laundry area😂. But other than that I also bumped into you a couple of times in the mess where you helped with some really good weight loosing tips 😂. I remember one day we bumped into each other at least 5-6 times n later joked about it😂. Girl I guess this goes without saying the passionate artist that lives inside you have given us some really good artwork to appreciate these 5 years. I remember the wall painting shading that you did in our 3rd year n your dedication in PAF ♥. Like I said to others don't stop on your artistic work n all the best for your futur

Devayani Verma : Hi Divya! We both have shared our sorrows, we have bonded over being close to Mauli and safe to say that you and Mauli were my go to people in H10 whenever I needed to cry or rant! Thank you for staying with me in my lows and thank you for just listening and talking to me when I needed it! Did I tell you I finished Death Note? I hope we stay in touch girl! And I hope you don't always need to be strong just for everyone around you. I hope you find someone who pampers you like noone has before and I hope you find the love of your life (hehe)! You are and will always be very special for me. You are one of the bravest people I know! More power to you! All the best for everything <3

Bhavya Garg : Daman trip pe u pampered me like a baby!Aap kitne sweet ho itna hi unfold hua tha tab all other colors of ur personality I got to see later.Aapse baat karna exponentially increased n eventually meri wo senior se baat kar rahi hu wali hesitation nikal gyi.Chahe rant karne baithe ho ya bitching,Catan khelne,dress khareedne ya dinner,it was always fun.U have a unique perspective towards life n it feels good sharing things with you.Pehle to aap kafi mehnat kar ke nikalwate the y m I upset,baadme to aisa ho gya aap dikhoge mai chalu ho jaungi xD guilty feel hone laga tha ek time pe to bt gradually u started sharing screw-ups in ur life 2,thoda hi sahi.Finally it felt like a balanced deal😂 Stay i

Rageshwari Marollikar : Started with ED partners to roomies to being virtual mess co to being virtual gsec, fighting, dancing, singing, drawing, preparing, 2 am bitching and not to forget the best thing that happened to us during last year insti summers.. it was hell of a ride. It took time for us to get to know each other but, when we did we were inseparable then, yes you know what I am referring to. I thank the deep down soul of yours' that has been so pure, loving, compassionate and I feel so fortunate that I met you. I just want you to believe in yourself and trust that god has planned everything that is best for you. Don't be too hard on yourself, trust your instincts and do what feels right. Okay? Hugs and :*
