Devyani Verma : You are my favorite girl in the whole insti! I have always felt a void about having no "girl gang" but talking to you always made me feel like I had a female confidant too. You are one of the most mature person I have met and your sporting spirit towards life is inspiring. I have learnt so much from you although it may not look like that :p And thank you for giving me all your food yaar <3 Tu bahut acchi ma banegi (and the coolest one too). I don't need to wish you all the happiness because bhagwanji has been unfair and jeevan me sabse zyada tumhe khush rehne ka boon diya hai cuz how the fuck you smiling all the time man (even while cribbing lmao, that is some talent bro) gonna miss ya wingie

Prudhvi Kavya : Shruti!!! I hate that it was because of this, but we did come a little bit closer because of the stupid TA duty, although I wish we had spent muchhh more time together. when I think of you the first thing that pops into my head is nariyal pani xD Maybe because har baar mujhe tu wing mein ek nariyal pakadke dikhi hai. I'll never forget how you wanted to sort out wires from a 'garbage' pile just to pass time in the lab :P Abhi Intel mein hai matlab mere bohot paas hai, toh insti mein nahi badhi bonding toh yahan badhaayenge :*

Anmol Gupta : Hi Shrutiii! I think we've had the most amazing of first interactions - offering samosas, and then offering gulab-jaauns in those Fac-ad lunches XD! Oh, and then helping me finish those cheesecakes. I guess we've almost always bonded over food :P That apart you're very sweet, very caring and I hope you get the best of everything in life :))

Harshita Verma : Hey you sexy lady!!! The best memory - doing Gyra lights with you the level of fun we had :P ...You're a mast insaan n I wanted to do this year's gyra lights with you as well and also the PAF but anyways. We had our memories made in the secy year as well as later on :P . I always enjoyed the fact how we both were there for each other's genre <3 . It was fun to bitch with you or admire each other's dresses in the hallway :P At last jaha bhi raho madam touch mein rehna <3 :*

Mookund Sureka : Hopefully by the time lockdown ends, I'll outdo you in fitness. Over last few semesters we have bonded decently and moved past those conversations "Viru hai ya office mei". Looking to hearing more embarrassing stories of yours :P. Stay in touch and .....

Mrunmayee Gaikwad : Yo Shruti Da Great! Aapka aashirwad humesha humare saath the! 🙏 Mere DD years there wajah se sahi gye. Apne ghanto chalne vale discussions, bitching, patte khelna, mess mein khana and kaafi baatein, GOT k theories discuss karna...sab miss karne wali hu main. Kaash ye lockdown na hota aur hum aur time spend kar paate. Mujhe kafi bura lagta hai ki apna roomies vala Sapna adhoora reh gya. Teri jaisi friend milna kafi lucky tha mere liye. Mummy jaise khayal rakhna, khana offer karna, chai banake dena, advice dena, hasaate rehna.. ye sab miss karungi main. I hope tere sapne pure ho, tu khush rhe aur hum humesha contact mein rhe. Love ya!! Already missing ya! ♥♥♥

Aditya Tapase : Hey Shruti! I am so happy we are sharing a lovely sibling bond for life. Lots of memories worth to be cherished. Our 223 failure/redemption and outstanding 325 performance 😊 has to be the best. DSP lab wouldn't have been so fun without you. Those H10 mess and late night gossips will be missed. Really going to miss poking fun at you and our petty quarrels annoying all the others 😊. You are such a cheerful and caring person. I was fortunate to have a sister to be there for me and helping me in numerous ways. Thank you so much! Wish you all the success in the future. Take good care of your health and stay in touch. Well, here I finally say...Shruti Da Great! 😊

Abhishek Singhal : Hi Shruti! We interacted very little maybe negligible in our insti time but those conversations we had in the lab were refreshing. This break killed more of those conversations that would have happened but still I feel you are one of those who have confidence in them to succeed and don't fear failure. Wishing you good luck in your future endeavours and stay in touch!!
