R Aditya Narayan : Mandy. You are truly everyone's Candy. I have a confession, jhol and I already finished your rice crispies, we never told you. And I'm not even sorry =P. We gonna do the 48 hour road trip in the US no matter what after this Covid crap is over. Proud of you man!! Stay the same!!

Sumukh Vaidya : From being intimidated by your kamaal English on the first day to having real deep discussions with you, it's been quite a journey. Bitching with you and at you about life, the courses and social issues was one hell of a ride. Keep doing amazing man, and we shall remember these 5 years with nostalgia....

Shobhna Misra : Starting from bitching about classes to bitching about life, we've done it all! :P I have really enjoyed discussing physics with you and working with you. All the best for grad school!

Pranav Thakkar : Mandy you're our candy <3 sweetest boy ever with 100% cooking and baddy skills that I'll always be jealous of. I'm sure you'll always be doing some kickass research! You know who ate your Rice Krispies. Never stop putting rainbow hearts in our chat and you know we'll be staying in touch for a long time. Best (and cleanest) neighbour ever <3

Parth Jatakia : It's been a true pleasure to have someone who has the same goals and dreams. I have had lot of fun working with you on all the fabrication projects. I have learnt a lot from you and have thoroughly enjoyed all the discussions we've had. I will really miss your quick-witted humour and I am expecting big news coming from Cornell now that you are there. Let's collaborate on at least one paper in the future!

Aniruddha Suhas Deshpande : Mandyy you're truly the sweetest boi. I hope leaving insti doesn't mean I stop receiving multi-colored hearts and calls from you informing me of your intoxication :p Thanks so much for getting me through first year, really don't know what I would have done without you. Also sorry for your 2nd year bday, just maybe it was my fault XD. From COD nights (Don't forget I beat you in gun game, once...I think), to music orientation performance, to laxmi nights, to last sem bday (sorz if you ever got bored lol, its your fault you're so good) and frequent social breakfasts we've had some great times. We're gonna be v close in the US, so we're gonna meet and do the roadtrip and have even more fun time

Nandan Prince : Mandyyy, I never thought we could survive the 4 years together but we did. Well everyone in our wing will accept that our room was the best place to hang out because we both did whatever we can to keep it that way. I'll remember the tensed Mandar during endsems to Mandar after 90ml telling everyone "tu best hai, tu best hai, tu best hai broooo :D" Random late night conversations were the best <3
