Shubham Pallod : Bhai, jo bhi galat galat time pe photos liye hai mere sab bhej diyo. Sayan ka computer hack karne me, uske table-cum-board par kuchh kuchh likhne me, table tennis me buri tarah harane me, wo straw wale bande ko stalk karne me aur kuchh kuchh theories banane me maza to bohot aaya. Aur UP me hi rahiyo. Yaha aayega to gundo se pitva dunga. Chal all the best. Zindagi me kuchh bhaukal kaam to tu karegahi.

Gautam Sharma : Main jo kahunga sach kahunga aur sach ke siva kuch nhi kahunga tere bare mein (Will say truth about you without going here and there). Together, we participated in several cultural dramas where we played the role of Dipsomaniac ("Sharabi"). In H18, we used to meet daily during late nights in my room with many proposals from him about my life talking about future goals, marriage (hot topic). Together, we shared our past life experiences and their lessons with each other. I have plenty of thoughts to share about him from day one but cannot share due to word limit issues. Above all, he is hardworking, trustworthy, charming. He is a very good friend of mine. Best wishes!! God bless him!!!

Ravi Prakash Yadav : kya likhun be kuch samajh nhi aa raha. bas mera naam uncha karna achche kaam karna. ye bakchodi vagera ab nhi. aur han ek hi khwahish he meri agar usko bhi tu poora kar de to shi rahega. I need that head waving grandson. aaage tu samjhdaar he. kuch paise vagera udhar loye ho to lauta do abhi. survat me tune jon audi ke naam pe jalwa banaya tha tune us audi ko bech do ab. time up. aur han mere phone me tumahare kuch photos aur screenshots pade hai delete karwana ho to paise Gpay kar dena. baki thik he pyar to papa bhut karte hai tujhe best wishes love u

Sayan Roy : Hello Survanshu, we had a good run in our first year. I remember all the memes and trolls we made together. I guess we will never forget that confession page wala panga XD. Thanks for clicking all my DPs. I enjoyed our midnight canteen rush and specially coffee guy ka pichha karna. Also, thanks for fetching that water glass everyday before we went for dinner in H1. You are already a hardworking guy, so buckle up to enjoy your future.

Divya Rathna : Hey bro.. The most epic thing about you is your silly jokes. Even though they are crazy and pointless, I couldn't hold my laugh whenever u crack them. I miss those jokes about mangaltai, food at H1 canteen and ordering biryani with pranati. It is because of you I got to see H18. Please delete all the stupid photos of mine from the phone and send me the good photos. I wish u all the good luck in future. Don't forget me after you become a successful researcher and congratulations on your publication.

Pranati Das : Mr. Saxena ji, you are one of the few persons who have taught me a lot. You made me understand the value of saying "No". Your maturity is at some other level. You are built with great character, patience and your respect for doing the right is amazing. I will always remember your dialogue..."there is always other better option". You always stand for the right. Because of you, I am a far better person. It has been beautiful 1.5yrs being with you and I wish to count further. Also, the credit for my memes knowledge goes to you. You are also responsible for the ginger tea that I crave now. Keep flying higher and higher. Waiting for the tasty pasta, coffee and more.....your cooking skills are gr

Bharti Arora : 700 chars bhot kum tujhe gaali dene ke liye. I curse ur publication. Duniya kitni bhi jal jaye, bakvaas kare...you work ur ass off to achieve ur aim. Yes, I admire, envy and hate tera aur Gautam ka ye persevering nature. Be it by hook or crook, u have earned what u have. Irritatingly secretive ladkii hai tu. Raat raat ko lab me marvana, "meeting ke liye data hai?", "color change dikh rhaa hai?", prachi aur kapil sir ka pyaar, lab ke logo ko judge karna, "reco mila?"...we made endless memories toiling hard for our dreams. No matter how much I truly hate you, I pray that u achieve ur goals in life, because I have seen ur zeal for it. I hope hamara PhD ka randii rona jaldi khatam ho. Goodluck X
