Mufaddal Bhanpurawala : YO Roomie, that random guy who wished me birthday and asked me for a treat and I replied like WHO THE HELL YOU ARE never knowing that we were fated to be roomies although fate is the wrong word here. It's interesting how our twisted multilayered conversations cringes the common folks. There's one thing that sums it all, you weren't the friend I deserved but the friend I needed. I won't say something gooey like let's be friends forever because you aren't really the person who let's go of others easily. I bet you'd even ring me up in hell. And I might have missed a few but the count is 16 including your maiden over during ESummit for all I can recall.

Satyam Mohla : Man!!! that baddy match was a-mazing, but only because you killed it. I was stuuuupidly bad at it man! But i think that was a great icebreaker, we kept running into each other, discussing this that and what not... and man, you are one hell of a GSec that our department got but maybe it did not deserve. You are an amazing dude Abhijeet, and I am glad that we met. Krte rhna pareshan, stay in touch.

Ganesh Chelluboyina : Yo Abhijeet! We began as teammates in "Restless Maniacs" (what a name? haha). At first I didn't like your demeanor, and tried to avoid you. But then I got to know you better, during the speech classes and in our hostel. I really admire you for your confidence and for your interests outside of acads. You'll do amazing wherever you go! Hope to see you again soon.

Kinjal Saxena : Hey..Tujhse sabse pehle TF mein 2017 mein mili thi.. Hi co-coordie :p. Bohot pareshan kiya tha re tune Sophia ki speech ke time backstage xD. Won't forget that dinner last day of TF. Didn't know we would become cos again! Last year we interacted quite often CC mein.. tune bohot cheezein batai xD..mujhe suits khatam karna hai! Also, tere jaise apna 'me time' enjoy karna seekhna hai. Our baddy spree though short was infi fun.. pehle kyon nahi kiya ye xD. Then apna vo case competition :p, next time, I will expect Mike Ross as a teammate so be prepared..hehe. Finally dude, that night will stay memorable..one of the best times in insti! Teri shayris and gaana face to face sunna mujhe! :P

Navnit Kumar : Jab tak yeh khel khatam nahi hoga hum idharich hai . Senti agle saal due hai

Sumukh Vaidya : Sirji! You've shown me the behind-the-curtain scene a lot of times, and I've had fun interacting with you a lot. Would've been fun if we'd got to hang out more often, or had had those discussions in some cafe or something rather than the corridor or the damn street XD. Aage job me fodna re, you're going to crack it real well. All the best man!!!!

Unmesh Raskar : Quora GOD! NSO Volleyball and swimming camp are sweet memories. Acads ke baare mei aapse baat karneki meri aukaat nahi, but I will say that I do respect the decision to convert to dual. I bet you were the true romance king in 2nd sem and I still wonder what's the secret study spot you found in insti. Always hungry for knowledge, mai toh bolunga you would make a great Civil Officer and manage everything from the top like a boss. My jasoos in the dept :D You have witnessed how low a person can stoop through me; hope I have proved myself to be a better person. You are too smart, truly a gem in elec. Aisehi machate rehna and stay in touch. ALL D BEST!

Aditya Tapase : Hi Abhijeet! Tu Insti mein mera sabse connected junior hai. Bahut easily open up hota hai tu. Sabke sath jaldi se connect hone ki kafi achhi quality hai tujhme. Last yr leadership bhi machaya. Hum jab bhi milte the, bohot baatein hoti thi. Profs, courses, projs ki bitching mein infi feel aati thi tere sath. Semiconductor bohot achha aata hai isliye micro mein aaya, ab bol raha digital karna hai 🤪. Jaldi se decide kar le. Ab DD mein aayein ho to thoda sehen kar lo, par mithe fal jarur milenge. Aage jo bhi karo, PhD ya placements, usme macha lega tu. Hindi kavita aur vakrutva bhi jaari rakhna. Best wishes for future! Stay in touch! Convo pe milenge jarur!
