Aditya Chalisehar : Thank you so much for all your help this year! PGAC 2019-20 was a roller coaster and it was tremendous fun.. All the best! :)

Anjusha K : LOL😂 So you took the precautions.. Good for you! I remember they day we were having Masaladosa from Gullu and suddenly this Rakshabandhan topic came and we made the deal😁 I will cherish this sis-bro bond forever. We had a lot of time together.. Our "waiting for sir" time.. "Evng chai time".. TA, Vmcc lab.. Movies.. Gullu.. The list is long. The best thing about you was.. even after a big fight.. we could talk like nothing happened. 😊 Thankyou for tolerating all my stupidities! But it will never end.. A long way to go!

Tarun Soni : Countless movies, tasty pizzas, restless outings, amazing two years!! Ops sorry 1.5 year, every thing is so amazing and best part to take bilwal for movie without his consent is real fun.Your continuous support during placement is really admirable. By the way pune-mumbai is not that far.

Nidhi Kapoor : Right, the first person from IITB i got to know, thanks tp that wrong whatsapp group 😊. I remember how enthusiastically we conversed about all aspects of civil engineering, the first time we met in person. Whatever little opportunities we got to interact, it was really good to know you. Wish you luck and happiness always 😊

Manish Yadav : bilwal ka Uttar Pradesh main khulle aam barat main goli maar dete hai iss sentence ko correct karne main sayad hum freind bane uske baad to kab tum logo ke movie club (bollywood) main aagya pta hi nahi chal, debi ke room par baith kar raat bhar pure college ka haal chaal jaan lena, diwali ki tere room par laxmi puja. I think mujhe jab bhi lagga ki saamne wale ko ab ek patau sa mail likhna hai dimag bola ankur, thanks for all those helps. Lockdown na laga hota to sayad ab tak bombay ke maximum famous restaurant and khau gali ghoom lete, koi nahi aage dekhte hai, aur haan ek baat yaad rakhio ye bilwal to apni shadi main bulayega nahi but apan bin bulaye jarur pahunch jayenge

Nikhil Pisal : I know exactly how we met (h4 ke canteen me kya hua ye bata raha tha tu pure floor ko pura masala Laga ke😄). The beauty queen (bilwal and I preferred biatch😂). But hostel 12 was totally different all those movie nights, late night canteen trips ,those days(nights😄) were lit. Thanks for all the help with first aid kit.(Sale maje bahot liye he tune dava lagte hue). Sure you liked to gossip a lot, whether it's about films or what's happening in insti (but as time passed it became our source of amusement). All the best to you too😄. Abhi to milte rahenge.

Vinay Maurya : Nawabi Tiwariji!!! Kya hi kehna aapke bare mein. Such a free minded and cheerful person you are. Never ever denied anytime for going out to movies or roaming. Blessed to had a roomie like you and Bilwal jaise hum teeno ne maze kiye the first year mein. Kafhi ghoomne hum saath mein hum aur kuch baki bhi reh gaya par koi nhi naseeb hua to wo bhi jaldi hi trip khatam krenge. Hamara batch ka first-aid kit tu hai jo har kiski problems ko solve krne mein koi kami nhi rakhi tune. Placement mein to waise hi machaya tha tune. Ab life mein bhi aise hi machana. Hamesha touch mein rehna :-)

Abhishek Bilwal : Tiwariji ab kya bole aapke bare me jitna bolo utna kam hai, down to earth banda, always helpful, always cheerful, source of gossip, apna AURAA, apne Panditji and apna amazing roommate. still remember the first time we met, on the first day of orientation we became friends by bitching about how boring this process is, and then became roommates. What a blast time we had from so many amazing memories to countless movies N outing to hundreds of gossiping N bitching 😊. Agar din me kuchh bhi naya huva ho ya share karni ho koe news ys likhna ho koe mail, you were always my go to person. Always gonna remember apni canteen ke trips aur rat 5 baje tak movies dekhna. All the best for the future kuchh nae

Neeraj Kumar Burugupelly : Hey Tiwari! From giving M.Tech interviews to staying in hostels we are always next to each other and you are always been an interesting and cheerful person and I learnt a lot from you. From H4 to H12, from birthday parties to class trips, from Department to Geotech lab, from writing exams to doing TA duties there are many memories we share and it's really hard for me to pick one. Being an Auraa, CR and Genderchamp you always want to take others responsibility and Geotech Fam Is fortunate to have you, many of our plans wouldn't have been possible without you. Thanks for giving all those wonderful memories. Stay the way you are, and I hope we meet soon n start planning our next class trip :p.

Rajiv Kumar Saw : Ankur Tiwari bhai hum room no. 333 ke bakchodi se hi 1 dusre ko janne lage. Bhai mai mail nhi dekhta tera WhatsApp msg hi group me insti me hone wale sare kaand ka kachha chitha rakh deta hai. Matheran me bhi maja aya. We can say you are the person jo plan bnaye wo cancel nhi hota. Maje me raho bhai & be like this & java ke lie hum touch me rahenge hi 😊

Ramakanta Behera : you are such a nice person bhai. Every masti with u and all GTE team is indeed an ever lasting memories. I had missed several trips which I regret at later stage. Always you are the one who initiates the plan to create memories, whether it may be a trip or tour or movie, thanks bhai for all those memories, at last the street food 😊 plan was a great plan. will surely miss you.... Han the most memorable one will be chatting day/night at room 333 ,H4, which is like a common place for all of us. Debi is the one who binds people together. I think u r like a bro from different mother. I wish every group should have a friend like you. I guess i enjoyed the best part of IIT with u guys. Han i forgo

Mohd Raza : Ankurrrrrrr with you i didn’t even require to put in efforts for explaining anything. We thought about matters similarly like we had a bro code. But you were more observant about people than me. You always had all the gossips of the campus and you were the source no 1. Ofcourse you were the mastermind of every trip and you made every trip a memory for life. In campus i always felt like i can discuss any problem i had with you and you will come up with a solution. We will catch up soon.

Debiprasad Bhakta : First maine tujhe interview k time pe dekha tha, jo ac k niche byathke aur piche morke sabpe nazar rakh raha tha 😊. Sare lab, group ppts, TA k partner (in crime 😊). Bhot kand kiye hai apne lab aur TA me 🙌. But humlogo ko pata tha ki kisko kab kya karna chahiye, jisliye bhot awkward situation handle ho gaye. Aur responsibility ki jab baat aaye toh tu dev manus nikla 🙌. Kitna kuch samhala hai eksath in 2 saalo me. Apna AURAA true sense me AURAA hi hai. Then planning aur logo ko convince karne ki alag credibility 😊. Placement me bhi machake aaya. Sab ehi bolna nahi chahiye 😊, khatam bhi nahi hoga. Stay happy always 😊

Jasmine Lokesh K G : U r our (mine and anjusha's) fav topic to bitch about. Every time I feel like we are having a cold war, u come up and talk as if nothing has transpired between us! We may have contrasting views about certain things, yet we have the same idea of fun (most of the times)! We belong to the text less, talk more category. Tere oratory skills se bhai tune batchmates se zyaada to juniors ko impress kiya hai. IIT me aane se pehle jitne movies theatre me dekhe the, I feel like I've watched five times that number because of u. Horror movies dekh dekh ke raat me kabhi akele ghoomne ka dussaahas bhai ne kiya nahi hai :P

Monimoy Paul : Tune and Bilwal ne mujhe dominoes+mcd+momos+movie+chai+... ka concept sikhaya. Am grateful for that . You are a good person who is ready to help anyone anytime. Tu jab bhi ghar se wapas aata tha tab bohot sara namkeen and mithai sabke liye lata h, jo hamara group 2 din ke andar almost khatam kar deta. All the very best for your future. Keep in touch and keep learning java for Mindgate.

Tejaswini Satya Chinthagunti : Hey Ankur! Our Chill Panditji. I still remember our first proper conversation during the late night walk in the dark at Lonavala. We were speaking about ghosts and paranormal activities. :P From then onwards, there was a kind of comfort for me with all of you . The time I spend with you will always me memorable for me. Thanks for the memories and All the best for your future. I'm sure its gonna be bright.

Hasan Rassiwal : Ankur bro tere liye jitna bolu utna kam he bhai, you are extremely talented and you know how to manage things well and ha bohot kuch sikha mene tujse, bhai yad aegi vo msti starting from orientation then mini militia then moodi toh sabse best he list me, bhai java sikh lena mast machana job me i know you will rock it , Be in touch bro always 😊👌

Lokesh Mangal : Yoo Broo ! As I remember we know each other from day1 of our IIT Bombay journey. We have good memories and laughter of Esselworld, RCity 🙌 , Department Trip and Bhaskar k saath mere room ki chat to tumhe yaad hi hogi kaise ham ek dusre ki taraf dekh kar has rhe the or bhaskar reaction was like thu on you people😊. Keep in touch Broo enjoy your journey.

Abhik Mandal : Itna kam kaise kar lete ho vai😅 Class k liye kuch draft karna ho, koie mail likhna ho, sir ka TA work!! Ohh!! 1st year me senior TAs' k itne sare kam se you saved us👍👍 Koie movie ka suggestion chaiye ki review chaiye, you have all the info ready 😊 Sare trips pe bohut maje kiye ha sath me hopefully fir karenge👍👍 Tumahara vo "I will make this happen wala attitude" bohut achha ha 👍 Keep up the good work Be happy always 🙌

Onkar Kanthale : Hello Ankur, hamare AURRA ♡♡, You have always keep the dept well informed with all academic updates, you are the best AURAA a dept can get, Aap Ka naam hi Ankur, aap jaha bhi hote hai, waha Khushi Ka Ankur phul jate hai, Aapke support and guidance, ta umra muze yad rahega, Aage future le liye bahot bahot shubhkamnaye , Milte jao jald hi ♡♡

Mayank Bansal : Ankur bro, you are one of the most talented person I met in IITB. You played your part amazingly in this tenure, we planned so many things together from orientation to workshops. Thank you for all your support. Placement m to jo machaya hai tune, hat's off 🙌. You were also the source of all the insti gossips (no one can beat Manish though 😊). I had a great time with you, be in touch and all the best for your future. Let's meet soon !!

Mithilesh Patel : I can't believe the amazing skills of management you have. You will never let us feel that you are from different branch, you made the environment of our floor full of cherish and I really loved the games dumb charades and movie name guessing in your room with you all. I always feel that your POR perfectly suits to your personality. You are the perfect planner and your plan to watch movies in TV room was seriously one of the best moment of iit. I wish I could have more chances to such scenario.
